RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING FOUND US ENTERING THE CHURCH OF OUR CHOICE SEEKING GUIDANCE TOWARD GOOD CHRISTIAN LIVING.

"I PLEDGE ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA—". WE LEARNED DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES THROUGH PRACTICE IN OUR DAILY LIVING.

NONE OF US WILL EVER EVER FORGET THE WINTER OF THE BIG SNOW WHEN FEROCIOUS BLIZZARDS RAGED FOR WEEKS AT A TIME, PREVENTING BUS TRANSPORTATION.

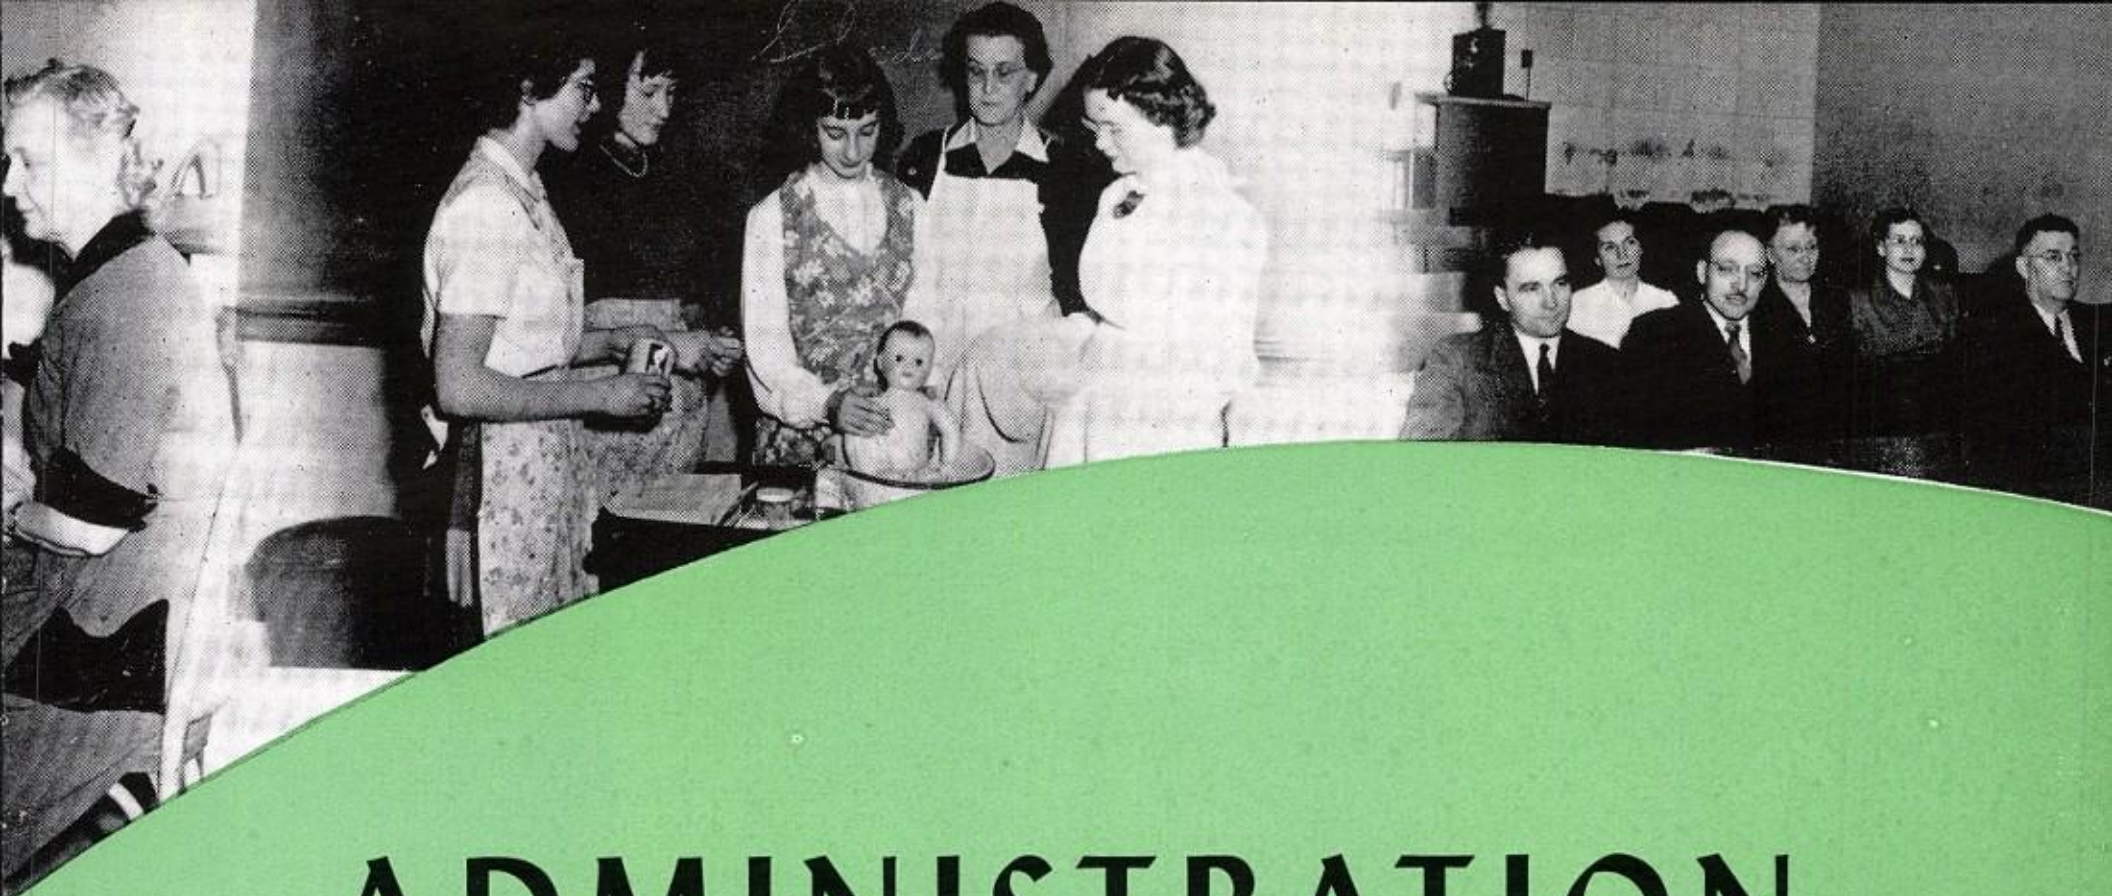

ALBERT LEA, DESCRIBED AS THE "SOUTHERN GATE TO THE GOPHER STATE", HAS GAINED NATIONAL RECOGNITION AS THE "CITY THAT PLANS FOR ITS FUTURE".

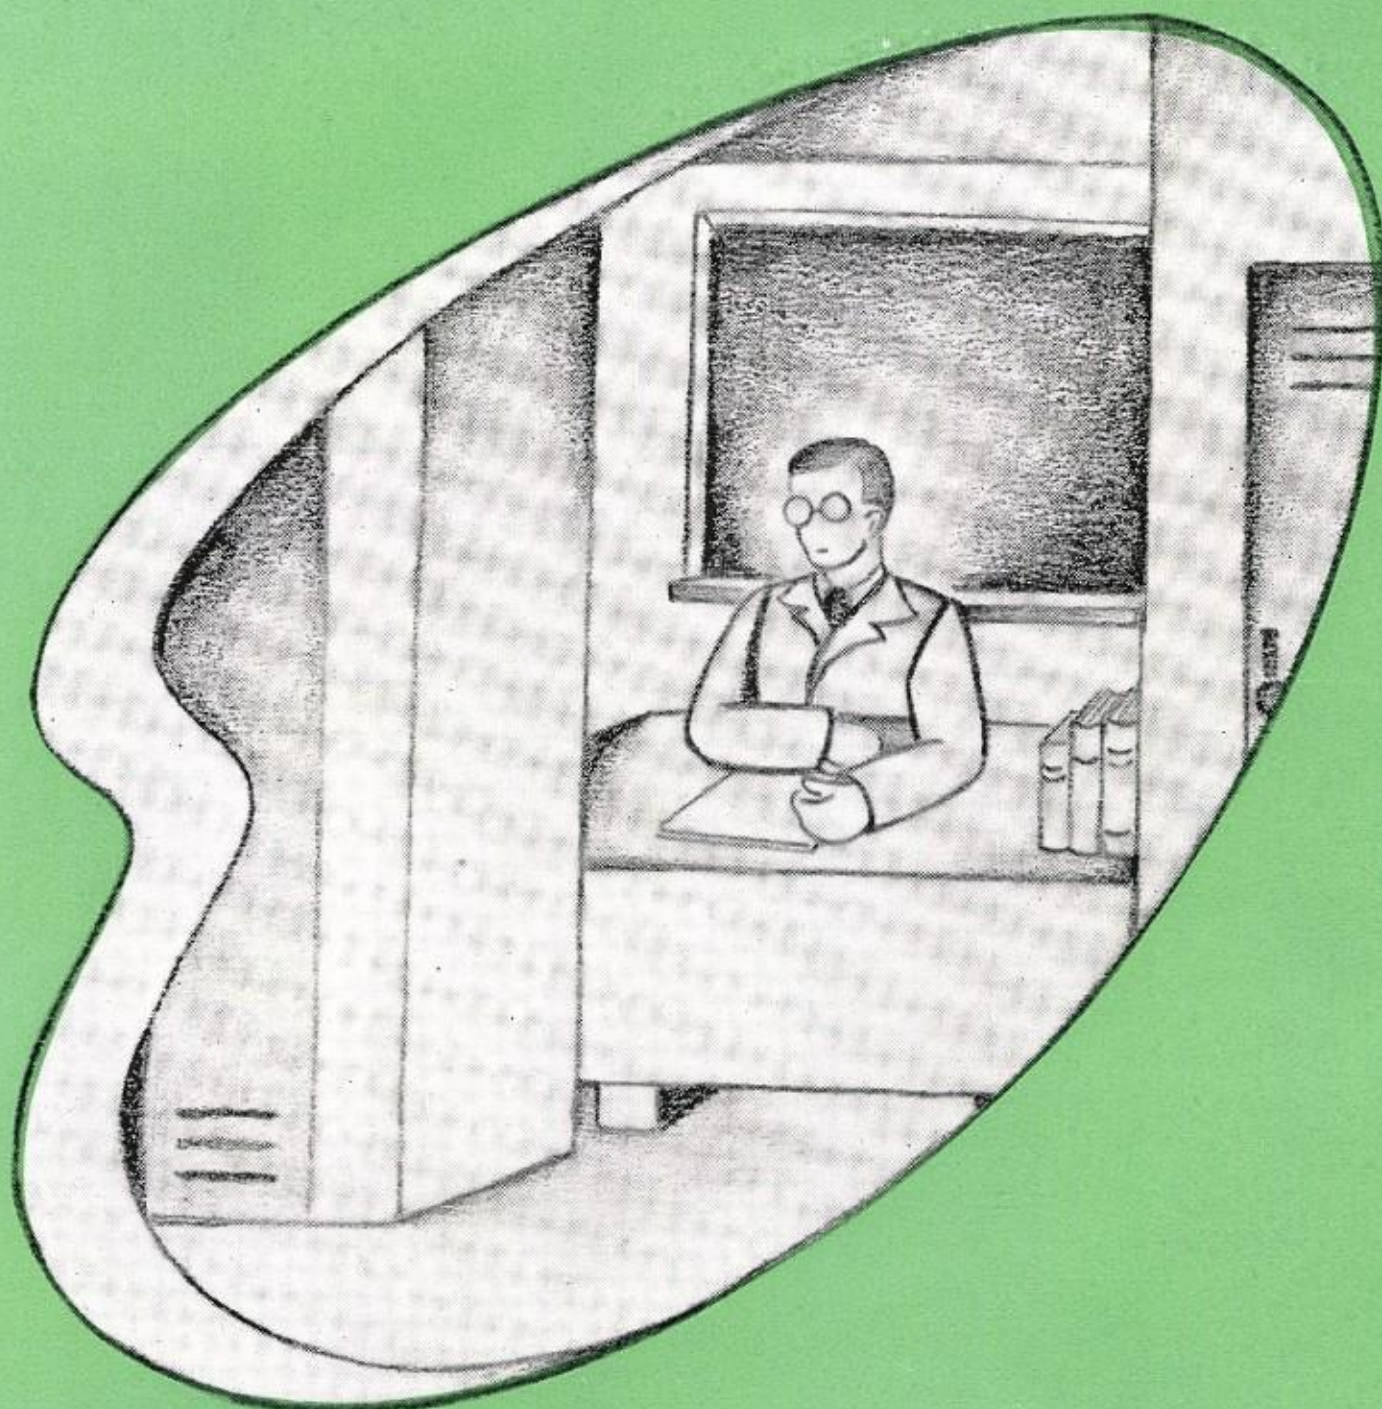

REMEMBER THE FUN WE HAD SINGING IN THE HALLS AND OPENING OUR LOCKERS BY CANDLELIGHT? IT WAS DURING THAT MORNING WE HAD NO ELECTRICITY.

ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY

They Pointed Out

FORREST WILLEY
Senior High Principal

Mr. J. John Halverson, superintendent of the Albert Lea Public School system, shoulders many important responsibilities. Capably serving our community since 1943, Mr. Halverson has many accomplishments to his credit.

A new athletic field, a new Northside school and an addition to the Ramsey building have been undertaken as the year's top projects.

Rotary Club, fishing, hunting and gardening are included in the extra-curricular activities of this versatile and dependable man.

J. JOHN HALVERSON
Superintendent

Mr. Forrest L. Willey, principal of the senior high school, is as understanding as he is efficient, and is respected by students and faculty.

Because working with young people is Mr. Willey's hobby as well as his occupation, he is well qualified for this responsible position. He also participates in the activities of the Kiwanis Club, and enjoys fishing during his leisure hours.

Mr. Vermund Andersen, junior high school principal, counsels and encourages every junior high student. This year, Mr. Andersen's main project has been to provide the junior high with a Guidance department. Being a Rotarian, working on the Cedar Valley Area Council of Boy Scouts and fishing are a few of Mr. Andersen's outside interests.

VERMUND ANDERSEN
Junior High Principal

OFFICE STAFF: Secretaries to Mr. Andersen, Mr. Willey and Mr. Halverson, respectively.

Anna Carney

Gloria Fink

Irene Phillips

Our school board is a continuous body that meets every second and fourth Tuesday of each month in the superintendent's office.

The board consists of six members, who are elected by the community for a term of three years, with two of the men up for election each year. In this way there are ideas of both experienced members and newly elected members with Superintendent J. John Halverson advising them on all current issues.

Their outstanding accomplishment this year has been the building of a new Northside elementary school, which will be completed during the summer.

Miss Irene Phillips, secretary to Superintendent J. John Halverson, has worked in the Junior High since 1943. Among her extra-curricular activities are dancing and interior decorating.

Acting as secretary to Mr. Vermund Andersen is Miss Anna Carney, who graduated from Albert Lea High School in 1950. Knitting occupies most of her leisure time.

Mr. Forrest L. Willey's secretary is Miss Gloria Fink, a 1949 graduate of Albert Lea High School. Her hobbies are dancing, knitting, skating and swimming. We are proud of our active board and our secretaries.

SCHOOL BOARD: Charles Upin, J. John Halverson, Marion Grotenhuis, Otis Olson, Clifford Larson, Dr. Walter B. Lyon and

T. M. Stewart discuss their plans concerning the new Northside Elementary school which will be completed during the summer.

Presenting their own radio skit are Carole Myers, Gertrude Moe, Edithann Nelson, Joanne M. Nelson and Joanne B. Nelson.

During his six years in the junior and senior high school, each student is required to take a course in English thus enabling him to use our language more fluently in both his writing and speaking.

The mechanics—spelling, capitalization, punctuation and usage—are emphasized in every grade.

Beginning with "Beowulf" and proceeding to modern authors, the students in senior high get a complete background in English and American literature. Everything from "Ivanhoe" to "Rendezvous with Death" is studied by junior highers.

As a part of the English course, the movie version of Shakespeare's famous tragedy, "Hamlet", was shown to all the students in the New Broadway Theater.

To carry on the objectives of this program, 12 teachers are employed. One new teacher, Miss Edna Weieneth, was added to the staff this year.

Studying world affairs are Richard Greengo, Frank Flanagan, Miss Elsie Sebert and Larry Carlson.

During the year, the senior social studies classes study American government, learn the fundamentals of our democracy and develop an appreciation of our way of government and economics.

Sociology is part of this course. Here students record and trace their family trees and study the behavior patterns and institutions of man.

American history is required of all juniors. It gives the student a background in how American government came about and prepares him for senior social science.

World history, which is offered to all senior high students, studies past world affairs and gives the students an appreciation of our world.

Junior high pupils in the social studies classes study the problems of our modern living and how to improve themselves as American citizens. This class is required of all grades in junior high.

Rita Lukes, Jeanne Robinson, Valores Klunder, Kay Buenecke and LaVonne Parks give a demonstration in dressmaking.

Practical advantages in the home were studied by the girls in the Home Economics department. Style shows and teas were presented to show their achievements during the course of the year.

Interior decorating, dress designing, dietetics, teaching, research in test kitchens and dress making are a few of the many possible fields one may enter.

Experience in wood work was given by the boys in the Industrial Arts classes. They are taught the use of tools, machines and power equipment.

The purpose of the Industrial Arts department is to provide experience which will develop the individual into a useful, happy and successful citizen. Industrial Arts supplements and aids general education with its aims to provide experience which will fit the individual, through his knowledge, skills, attitudes and accomplishments, to be more useful as a producer, more appreciative and happier as a consumer and more valuable as a citizen.

By taking a course in Latin, French or Spanish, taught by Miss Clara Berdan and Miss Ruth Bauer, one learns not only the language itself, but also the customs and ways of the people of those countries.

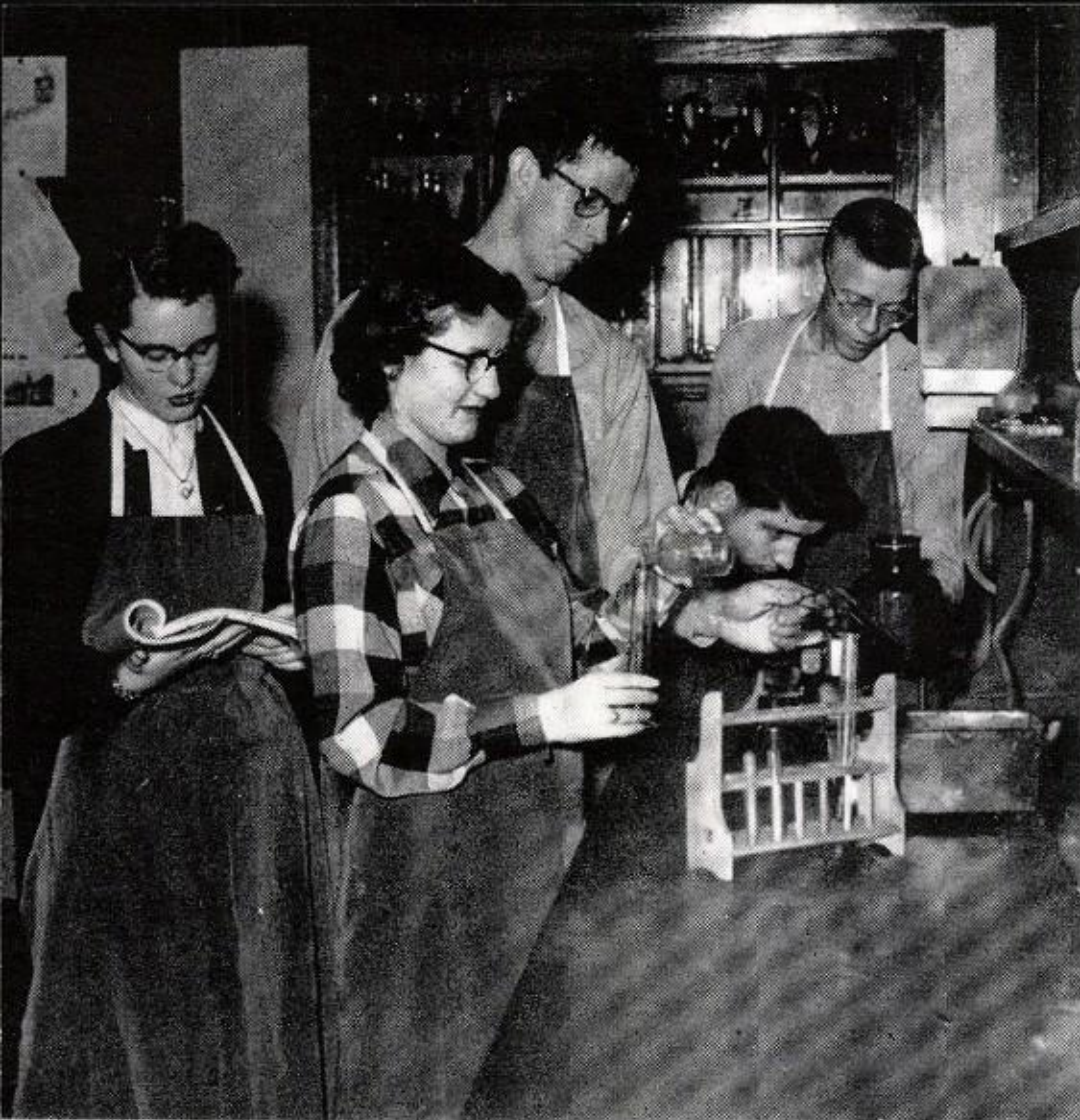

The music department consisting of the choruses, bands and orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Robert L. Myers, Mr. L. J. Emmons and Mr. Lester Strierner, presented various concerts during the year.

Giving an art exhibit was the highlight of the year for the junior high art students, taught by Mr. Thomas Slettehaugh, and the senior high art students, taught by Mr. Guel Dostal.

This year the speech classes, under the guidance of Miss Georgia Pengal, gave programs over the local radio station on Friday afternoons.

Supervising the senior and junior high school libraries and finding reference material for the students were just two of the duties of Miss Mabel Rawlings and Miss Carol Eastwold.

Because it is the study of the things around us in life and of the world we live in, courses in science are offered to all classes in high school.

General science is taught in junior high. It is a study of everyday science which provides a good background for the more advanced courses in senior high.

In biology, the sophomores learn the various levels of plant and animal life when they aren't collecting insects or dissecting earthworms and frogs.

Physics is the first scientific course that is not a required one. The juniors learn the workings of machines and how work is made easier by machines. They also learn various formulae and laws, and set up experiments to prove what they have learned.

The most advanced course in high school science is chemistry. Industrious seniors work on formulae and study the basic elements. Using the basic elements in their experiments, the future scientists strive to better understand the mysteries of chemistry.

Solving trigonometry problems with the aid of a slide rule are John Sturtz, Lila Briggs, Wilford Johnson and Ruth Madson.

The main purpose of mathematics is to develop the thinking ability of the student. Courses are therefore offered in both junior and senior high school.

General math is first given in junior high school; next algebra is offered. This is followed in senior high school by geometry, plane and solid, advanced algebra and trigonometry.

In math, problems are put before the student and he is instructed as to the method of solving them in a systematical manner. Students first receive primary equations to solve and these become more complex as the courses continue.

All the courses are taught for the entire year except trigonometry and solid geometry which are offered in only half year courses. Not only does math develop the thinking power, but it is also required by many colleges for entrance.

Rosemary Peterson, La Vonne Parks, Henry Hickey, Denise Denson, Larry Klukow enjoy a square dance.

Square dancing made its way into the activities of both the boys' and girls' physical education classes this past year. For the boys it was the first time that square dancing has been a part of their regular gym classes. They were slow starters but once they learned they enjoyed it for the four weeks during which it was a part of their regular classes.

The other sports the girls competed in included volleyball, basketball, soccer, softball, tumbling and the required exercises.

For the boys, basketball and football were again the principal sports, while wrestling, volleyball, kitenball, tumbling and exercises were stressed.

Health and first aid classes were held for all the senior high students. They were taught by the gym instructors, Mr. Paul Wilke, Miss Lois Spencer, Miss Donna Heise and Mr. LeRoy Maas.

The classes were held four days a week with physical education held on the fifth. This program offered training for the students in these courses as well as providing for the physical welfare of the body in the physical education courses.

In order to prepare students for permanent vocations after graduation, classes in diversified occupation are given. As a part of this class, students obtain part time jobs and actually learn the work first hand. Educating students for work in stenography, bookkeeping and secretarial offices is the task of Miss Iva Loy. Students interested in typing may take that subject any one of their three senior high school years.

What crops to plant? Which type of seed to use? These are just two of the many subjects discussed in the agriculture classes. Agriculture is offered to all boys in senior high who are interested in farming as a future profession.

Miss Alice Gammell, who is in charge of the senior high attendance, reported that 40 students had dropped school by the end of the first semester as compared to 30 which is the usual number. The average daily attendance stands at 745.

Besides taking charge of attendance, Miss Gammell also served as sophomore class adviser.

One of Mrs. Sund's many tasks is giving hearing tests to the students. Here Mrs. Sund demonstrates on sophomore Jean Heilman.

HELEN SUND

Mrs. Helen Sund has as her duty the guarding of students' health in the school system of Albert Lea.

Because of their work with eye and ear testing, first aid and home nursing instruction, she and her assistants may be credited with having aided all students in the general advancement of their health.

Helping students find their way to the choice gateway of life, are the members of the Guidance committee.

All senior high students profit by seeking their counsel on decisions of extra-curricular activities.

The seniors especially profit from the advice offered concerning their work in any field they may want to specialize in.

Preparing and serving a well balanced, nourishing and delicious meal is the goal of Mrs. Mabel Crynes and her cheerful cafeteria staff.

Their meals are enjoyed not only by the junior and senior high, however. Each day Air-Void containers of food are taken by cafeteria women and served to the Oakwood, Abbott and Ramsey students.

The janitors, firemen and engineers play quite an unheralded but important part in the role of school life. The duties of each are self explanatory.

A real test of assuming responsibility was theirs this year. With hours of no electricity, they were able to keep things going in an efficient manner.

Honor Students Obtain Annual Awards

Attending Rotary meetings to report on high school activities is the responsibility of the ten senior boys who were given the honor of being elected as Junior Rotarians for this year.

Each Junior Rotarian attends the meetings in his assigned month and informs the Rotary Club of the progress in his particular field.

Rotarians representing the different fields are:

Paul Skophammer, Student Council; Donald Thompson, Senior Class; William Kuchera, Music; Lowell Barr, Dramatics; Henry Ruble, Agriculture; John Babey, Shop; Roger Naylor, Journalism; and James Engen, Honor Society. Peter Veldman and Richard Greengo represented the school in athletics.

The American Legion awards were given to the senior boy and girl having outstanding qualities of courage, scholarship, honor and service.

MARGARET BLUNT

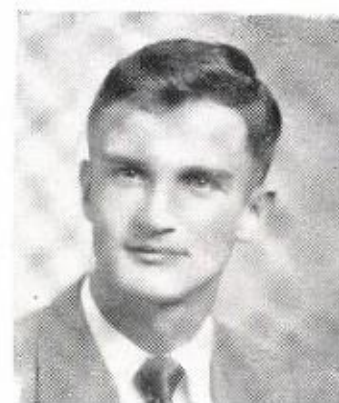

Receiving American Legion awards for outstanding citizenship were Margaret Blunt and William Kuchera.

Margaret Lee Blunt has been a member of such organizations as Drama Club, Thespians, Quill and Scroll, National Honor Society and the Ah La Ha Sa and TIGER staffs.

A few of her hobbies are hunting, horseback riding, skiing, snow-shoeing and tennis.

Excelling in the field of music, Bill Kuchera has participated in the high school band, the A chorus, select madrigal group and the Swing Band.

Bill has been a member of National Honor Society, Junior Rotarians, Student Council, Thespians, Drama Club, Hi-Y, track, Science Club and the Junior Academy of Science.

Reliable Seniors Complete Final Year

The year 1951 brings to a close three eventful years in the Albert Lea Senior High School for the graduating senior students.

During their sophomore year, this class had as its officers: Jeanne Cady, president; Margaret Thompson, vice president; Nadiene Dale, secretary; and Marilyn Hendrickson, treasurer. The sophomore class party and Sadie Hawkins' Day dance, which the sophomores sponsored, highlighted all the events of that year. Adviser for the class was Miss Alice Gammell.

As juniors, the main event of the year was the Junior-Senior banquet and prom. The theme of this gala event was "Dreamer's Holiday" with Miss Blanche Benson advising them as she did throughout the year. A pie social helped to finance the prom and banquet. The class officers were Richard Greengo, president; Janet Grasdalen, vice president; Marjorie Hellie, secretary; and Margaret Blunt, treasurer.

Another thrill for the year was presenting their own play, which was "Uncle Fred Flits By."

Finding themselves with the titles of the superior seniors, the group took charge of responsibilities which are designated to the students.

An active participation in school activities was an outstanding characteristic of this class.

Heading the seniors were their class officers: Donald H. Thompson, president; Peter Veldman, vice president; Caroline Machacek, secretary; and LeRoy Van Proosdy, treasurer. Mr. Egil Hovey acted as adviser as the seniors advanced through the year.

The Daughter of American Revolution award for 1951 was presented to Nadiene Dale. This award signifies that she is the most outstanding citizen of Albert Lea High School. She was chosen for her service, honor, dependability and leadership.

Stopping to rest before leaving for the junior-senior prom, Marion Yoemans and Tom Donovan look forward to the fun and excitement of that important night.

Discussing plans for the junior-senior banquet and prom are class officers: Grotenhuis, Bussman, Hoffarth and Jensen. Lois was also selected as Girls' State representative this year.

Juníors Pave Way to a Happier Day

The theme, "Storybook Ball", was used by the juniors in the annual spring prom and banquet. On Friday, April 27, the juniors and seniors donned their pretty spring formals and coats and ties for an evening of eating, dancing and having fun. Mr. Al Menke's orchestra was the spotlight of attraction in the boys' gymnasium on the festive occasion.

One of the highest awards a junior girl can receive is to be chosen Girls' State representative. This year the lucky delegate was Lois Bussman. Lois has already gained recognition in her work as junior class secretary and AH LA HA SA editor-in-chief. Elected as her alternate was Wava Hagen.

Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and is held in order to study the different phases of government. Minnesota Girls' State is staged for a week at the state fairgrounds. Mrs. M. W. Knoblauch serves as dean to the girls.

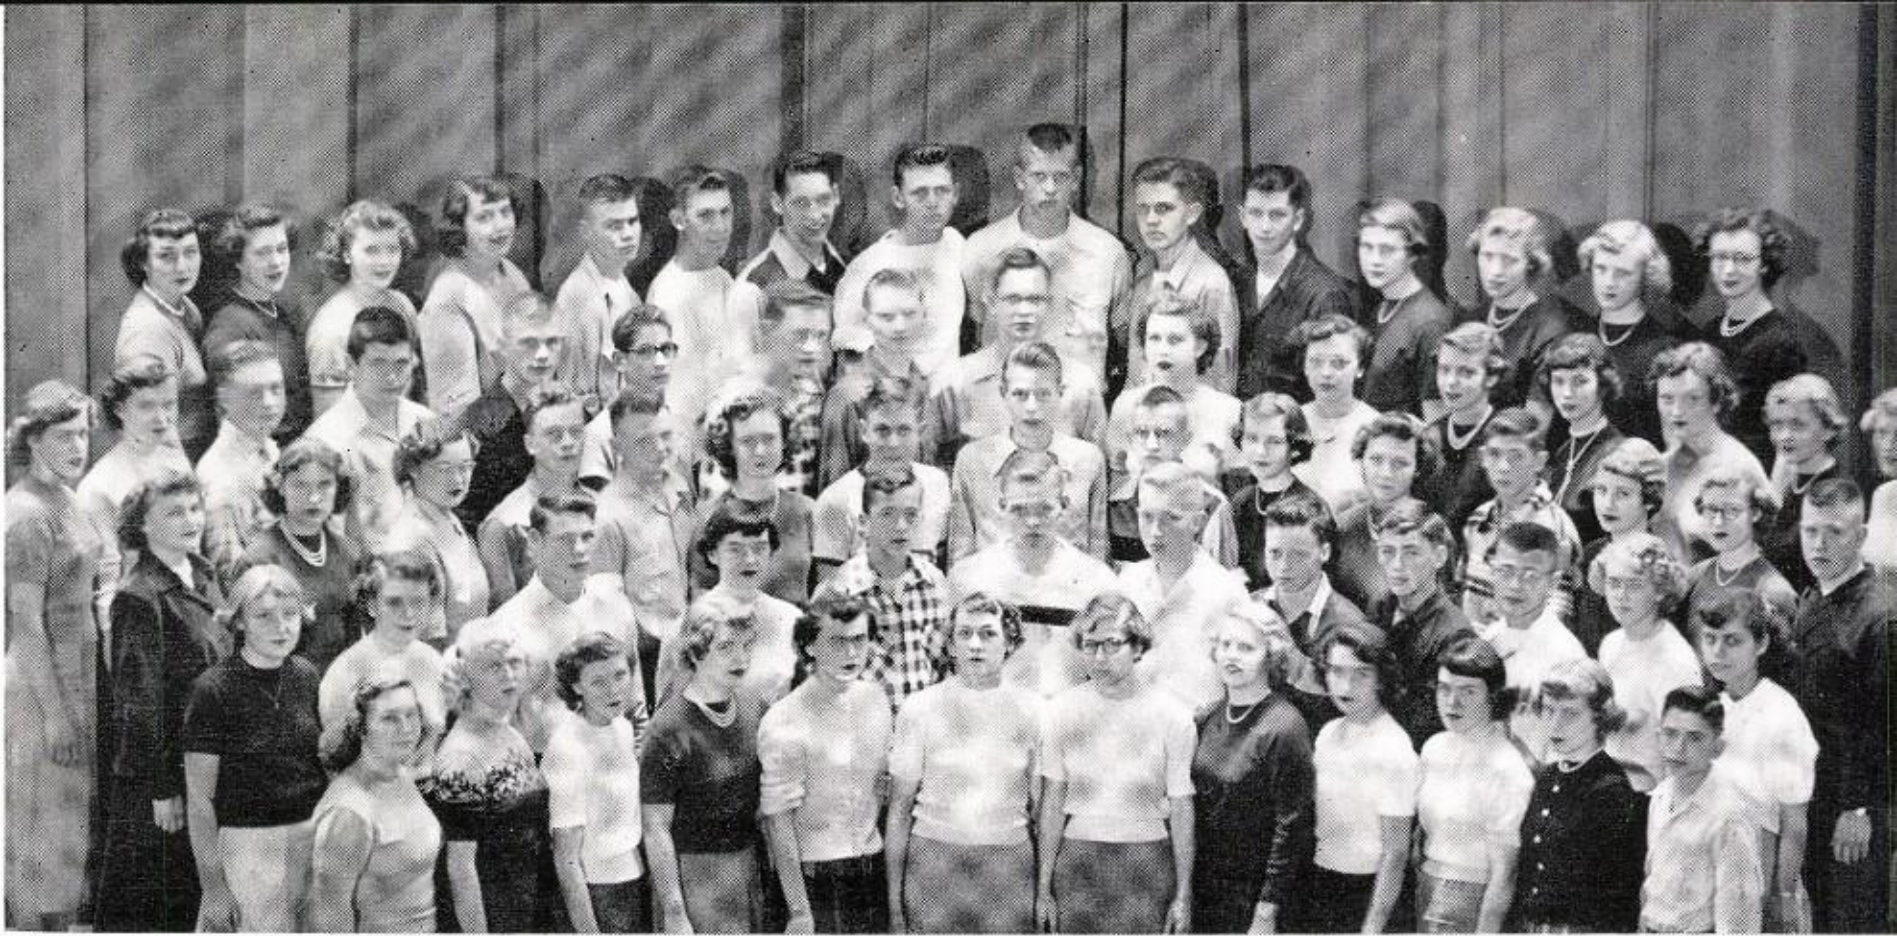

With Miss Blanche Benson as their adviser, the junior class elected Paul Grotenhuis and Carl Jensen to be president and vice president, respectively. Lois Bussman records minutes as class secretary while Audrey Hoffarth handles the financial duties.

The busy juniors have sponsored many programs during the year. To start the year off they held their annual pie social January 20. This night found the boys buying the pies, baked by the girls, at an auction held in the girls' gymnasium.

Playing in the junior-senior basketball game February 9 were boys not on the varsity team. The junior team lost the game, 45-34.

Picking the popular comedy, "Cheaper by the Dozen", for their annual class play, the juniors produced a hit with full houses both nights. Each of the characters dyed his hair a bright shade of red for his part as one of the large family. The play was presented to the public February 24 and 26.

"Tom Sawyer", "Little Orphan Annie", "Gravel Gertie" and "Popeye, the Sailor" are good examples of the fictitious names used in the blind date dance, March 30. After giving their false names and unanimous addresses to the boys, the girls waited for a ride to the dance with their blind date. There they enjoyed dancing together to the music of Mr. Rollo Sissell's orchestra. The dance was sponsored in the hopes of getting more juniors and seniors to meet.

Transformed into the mysterious and intriguing background of "Treasure Island", the girls' gym was the scene of the annual sophomore class party.

Green and yellow streamers covered the ceiling, while murals of pirates, their loot and a map of Treasure Island decorated the walls. Artificial palm trees and a treasure chest placed in the room also helped create the desired atmosphere.

The program for the evening was presented by members of the class with Bill Bridley acting as master of ceremonies. Included in the program was Anita Samudio's accordion solo, two vocal solos by Ardella Hanson and Rollin Connly, a boys' chorus line and a skit portraying pirate life.

Dance music was furnished by the high school Swing Band. Only the students who had paid their class dues of 50 cents were admitted the party.

Beginning their first year in senior high school, the ambitious sophomores soon adjusted themselves and began to play a part in student activities.

One of the first duties of the class was to elect its officers to lead them through the year.

After filing for their respective offices, those who were elected were: Terry Crowley, president; Don Casey, vice president; Carol Janson, secretary; and Rita Willey, treasurer. Miss Alice Gammel, their class adviser, was ready to assist with any problem of difficulty during the year.

There are many worthwhile activities to take part in upon entering senior high school. Sophomore girls were introduced to the Hi-Teens Club, which they could join with junior and senior girls. B chorus was another group, which was made up entirely of sophomore girls. FFA and Audio-Visual Club were some of the clubs offered exclusively for boys.

Rollin Connly, Jerry Hart, Roger Mangskau, Irwin Hendrickson, Roger Wangen and Don Rye formed the chorus line that performed at the class party.

Passing through the doorway into the junior high school are Mary Lowry and Phillip Lee. They are only two of the pupils that enter for higher learning and social activities.

Junior High Offers Many Activities

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: David Larson, Arlene Peterson, Constance Boyd and Phillip Lee are trying to solve one of the many problems that faced them.

Upon entering the junior high the students passed through one of the gateways of higher learning and social culture. There were many activities and clubs in which the students participated to gain experience, knowledge, sportsmanship and friends.

The Masquers' Society of the Drama Club, under the direction of Miss Hildred Tennehill, presented three one act plays. Duggan Styve, David Larson and Larry Wolff played the leading roles in "The Valiant", "The Shock of His Life" and "The Opening of the Door", respectively. The society also presented two assembly programs and another series of three one act plays.

With Miss Dorothy Anderson as their adviser, the journalism class edited the Junior Hi-Ways. Co-editors of the paper were Jeanette Wong and Jerry Throlson with Arlene Peterson as editorial page editor; Virginia Narverud, feature editor; Charles Bosacker, editor of the sports page; and Judy Dusek, circulation manager. The staff along with their reporters met three times a week and published the edition every three weeks throughout the school year.

Other clubs and events such as the Camera Club, GAA, Service Club and the sunlight socials helped the students to get better acquainted with each other and the faculty members. Through these activities the boys and girls were greatly influenced in their future school and social lives.

During the year the sunlight socials held for the seventh, eighth and ninth grades were sponsored by various clubs, organizations and homerooms. Records were usually used to provide music for the dancing but the senior high swing band played at a few of the social affairs. The students were able to learn dancing techniques and etiquette.

David Larson, Phillip Lee, Constance Boyd and Arlene Peterson were elected to preside over the Student Council meetings. The council has taken an active part in the school curriculum. Homeroom meetings were held from 9:10 A.M. to 10 A.M. every Wednesday morning with the Student Council representative reporting all information obtained at the council meeting. At the end of the first semester, new homeroom officers were elected so as to give more students an opportunity to preside over meetings and to strengthen their leadership ability.

Many of the junior high girls joined the Service Club during the year. The members of the club were under the direction and guidance of Miss Evelyn Bennett. Aiding the faculty is the main objective of the organization. The students' most helpful service was the correcting of papers for the teachers.

Every Tuesday after school the junior high GAA members participated in the numerous sports. Miss Donna Hiese was in charge of the group. The sports included soccer, basketball, volleyball and softball.

As a part of their service club work Francis Brua, Mary Lowry, Connie Boyd, Evelyn Jensen and Darlene Hendrickson, junior highers, busily correct papers.

Not only school work, but also extra-curricular activities kept the eighth graders busy.

All studied courses in English, American history, general science, Industrial Arts or Home Economics, mathematics, art and physical education.

Participating in the junior high band and choruses, being representatives of the Student Council, serving in the Drama, Photography, Service and Press Clubs, and partaking in the sports program occupied their leisure time while cultivating their abilities.

The eighth grade homerooms contributed to the "Have-a-Heart" drive and helped fill Junior Red Cross boxes which were sent to children overseas.

Serving as advisers for the eighth graders were Miss Marjorie Hanson and Mr. Orly Burgess, who helped middlemen solve educational and vocational problems arising as they eagerly awaited their freshman year.

The Industrious Seventh Graders

These four seventh graders are registering for their entrance into junior high school. They are Marilyn Alm, Edward Levine, Russell Sorenson and Paul Foss.

Beginning the best years of their lives, the seventh graders study the regular subjects—social studies, English, mathematics, science, shop and Home Economics—while band, chorus, athletics and clubs occupy most of their leisure moments.

Because there was a larger group than usual this year, there were various small parties rather than one large class party.

From the five grade schools of the city, the seventh graders anxiously enter the junior high school. Here they meet new friends, acquire new knowledge and adjust themselves to the fads and fashions of high school life. The seventh grade advisers are Miss Mary Mettam and Miss Evelyn Bennett.

President Paul Skophammer

Secretary Margaret Blunt

Beginning with the Homecoming festivities, the senior high Student Council undertook its first main project of the year.

The slogan was chosen and committee chairmen were appointed. They were Rolland Green—parade, Phyllis Budahl—dance, Margaret Blunt—publicity, LaVonne Parks—pep fest, Roger Olson—bonfire, Keith Fligge—pin sale, Marilyn Hendrickson and Marlene Sorenson—programs, and Roger Naylor—coronation ceremony.

Elected from each homeroom in the senior high each representative brings suggestions to the council from the students which he represents. In this way the council also brings its views to each student in the homeroom.

All dances given by a school group were conducted by the Student Council as to the preparations for time, sponsors and Swing Band arrangements. The dances, which are usually held after games, were scheduled at the beginning of the year through the council.

The council appropriated money to buy new shirts for the Swing Band members, funds to send members to the Student Council convention; also for many bills which the council was responsible for.

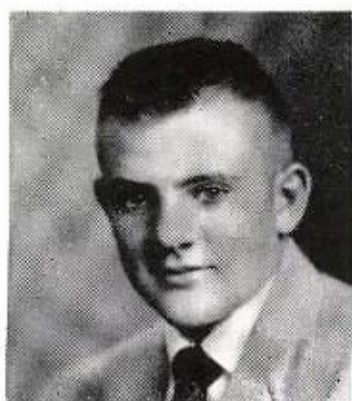

President Paul Skophammer also appointed cafeteria monitors and representatives from each class to be in charge of new students who have entered school in order to provide a familiar and friendly atmosphere. The latter is the first experiment with such a project, but has been the practice of other Big Nine schools.

Mr. Rene Wambach's second year as adviser for the council was interrupted for three months while he was seriously ill. Mrs. Gordon LeBeau substituted for him in his classes and council meetings.

Decorating the traditional Christmas tree, which is displayed in the hallway, and sponsoring the Christmas Seal drive were undertaken by the council members. The Hi-Teens assisted in the seal drive as they operated a self-service seal table in the senior high.

After Christmas vacation the 1951 Tigers Roar plans were ready and underway. John Sturtz headed the production staff as producer. Carol Lindell was appointed director with Margaret Thompson as her assistant. In charge of the stage management was Selma Anderson while Robert Reed headed the stage crew.

The annual traditionally-sponsored Hobo Day was the last main project of the year. Sports and contests were planned for both girl and boy participants. The feature of the day was the junior-senior tug of war across the muddy creek.

Vice president Rolland Green was selected as Minnesota's state delegate to Boys' Nation at the Boys' State Conference last summer in St. Paul. He was chosen from 50 other candidates. He and Paul Skophammer were the high school's representatives to Boys' State.

Rollie was also a council representative to the State Student Council Convention held in November at Minneapolis. Larry Carlson also attended.

The standing committee heads chosen for the year were Roger Naylor and Carol Lindell—assemblies, Phyllis Budahl—finance, Marilyn Hendrickson—publicity, Jeanne Cady—social affairs, Larry Carlson—safety and traffic, John Lemke—elections and parliamentarian. These committees functioned throughout the year whenever their services were needed.

Council Promotes Self Government

To promote student self-government is the fundamental purpose of the junior high Student Council which meets Monday mornings at 9 A.M.

Except for the officers who serve the entire year, the council is completely changed at the end of the semester, when the homerooms elect new representatives. This enables more students to participate.

Acting as monitors, the council members supervise cafeteria behavior, see that the halls are kept neat and that the lights are turned out.

A combined drive to raise funds to fight polio, heart disease and tuberculosis, called the "Have a Heart" drive, is also under their supervision.

Student co-operation was demonstrated by the sunlight socials, where everyone helped. These socials also promoted better school relationships.

The top floor of the junior high was brightened considerably by the Christmas decorations, including a tree, erected by the council.

Helping to plan and promote these activities were Miss Edna Weieneth, faculty adviser, and the council officers—David Larson, president; Phillip Lee, vice president; Connie Boyd, secretary; and Arlene Peterson, treasurer.

Scientists Explore Nature's Mysteries

The purpose of the Science Club is to enable interested students to meet together, to discuss scientific problems and carry out group projects.

A lie detector and a testacoil were among the projects submitted by the Science Club members to the Junior Academy of Science, held on the University Farm School Campus in St. Paul. While attending the academy the members had an opportunity to observe the work done by similar clubs all over the state.

Mr. Paul Wilkie, high school physical education director, invited the club members to his home so that they might view his aquarium of tropical fish.

Taking second place in the Homecoming parade was the Science Club float which featured a miniature atom bomb plant. The slogan portrayed was "Atomize the Austinites".

The 28 club members are guided in their activities by Miss Olive Johnson. Warren Emmons, Mary Brooks, Janet Sullivan and Bill Kuchera served as the club's president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, respectively, for the year.

A scale for measuring weight, built by Bill Kuchera, is examined by Brooks, Wendel, Gaetz, Kuchera, Sullivan.

Hi-Y's Create, Maintain and Extend

To develop and promote high standards of Christian character in the school and in the community was the goal of the Gamma Hi-Y this past school year.

The Hi-Y under the supervision of Mr. Egil Hovey held its meetings every Wednesday at the YMCA.

The group officers who were elected were Richard Greengo, president; James Engen, vice president; Roger Naylor, secretary; and Rollie Green, treasurer.

The boys who attended the State Hi-Y Convention held in the Agriculture Building in Minneapolis were James Engen, Joseph Girtz, Bill Ryan, David Ochs, Eslic Bergstrom and Richard Greengo. The Albert Lea club was given special attention because of their ideal intercircle. The Hi-Yers from other clubs thought highly of the originality of their meetings.

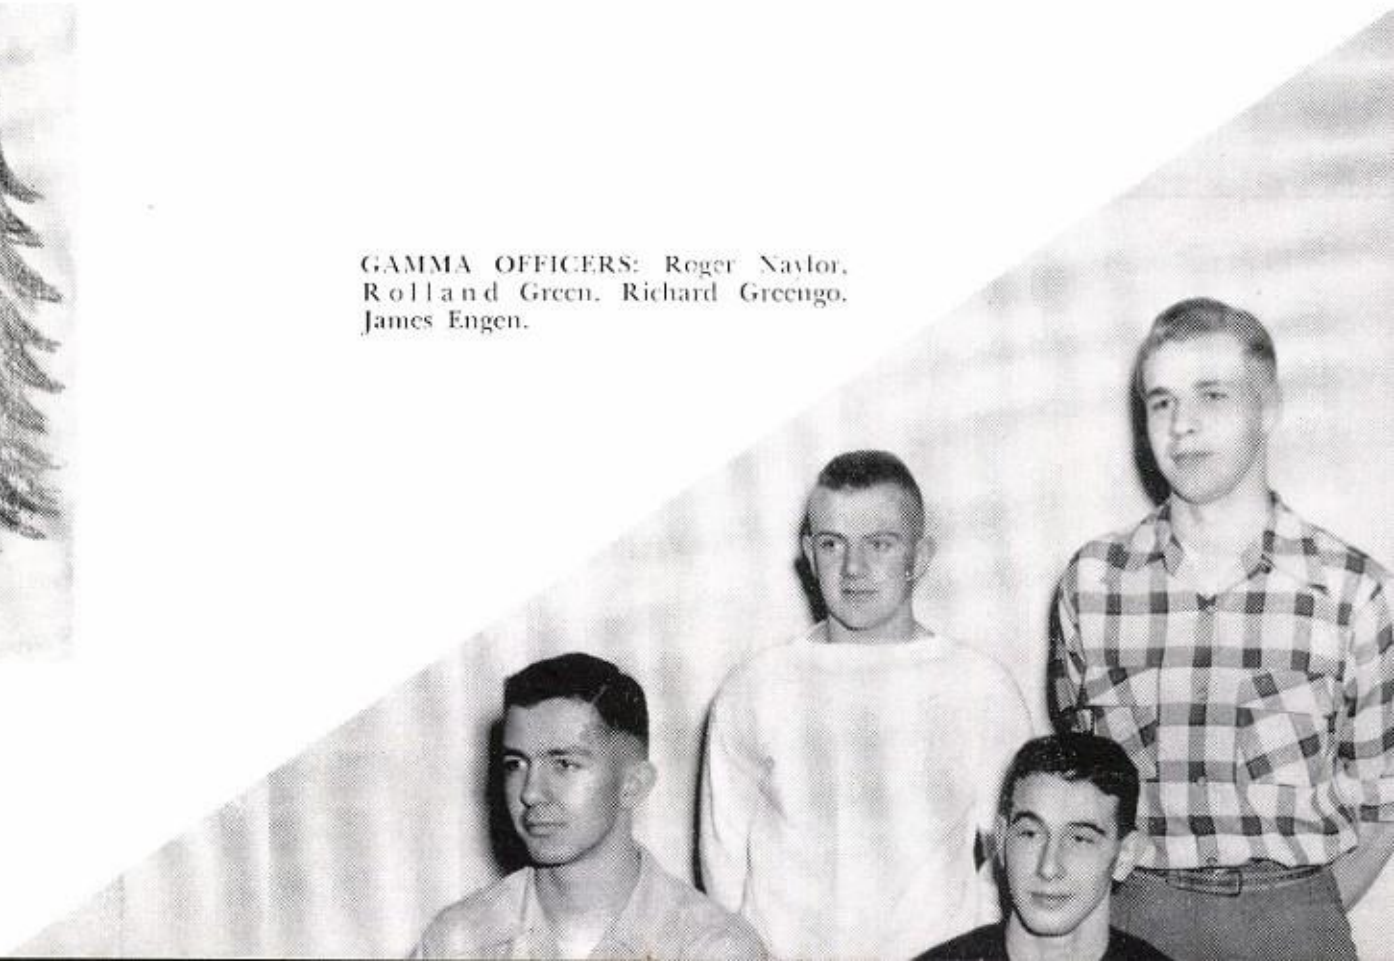

The other activities of the club included, a joint conference with representatives of the Austin High School Hi-Y at Camp Moraine. The conference was held on October 7 and 8 in the form of a training camp.

Seventeen members the Albert Lea club attended and five from the Austin Hi-Y attended the camp. Mr. J. M. Snyder acted as counselman and adviser for the group. The main discussion was centered around extra-curricular activities and service projects. The problems studied by the group included the budget, offices and the committees of the Hi-Y.

The club has also sponsored school dances and undertook the sale of Christmas trees under the supervision of the Y'Men's Club. A total of 22 senior boys belonged to the Gamma Hi-Y this year.

Dick Steiler, Roger Olson and Alvin Simonson work in the Hi-Y stand at the fair grounds.

With the purpose of creating, maintaining and extending, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character, the Beta Hi-Y began the year's activities.

The regular meetings were held every Monday evening at 7 P.M. Roger Olson presided while John Wedge served as chaplain and offered benedictions. Mr. Forrest L. Willey acted as adviser.

Elected to serve in office for the year were Roger Olson, president; Carl Jensen, vice president; Paul Grotenhuis, secretary; Richard Montei, treasurer; and Alvin Simonson, sergeant at arms, whose duty it is to keep order.

Among the projects undertaken during the year, was a stand at the county fair. The boys sold pop, candy, pop corn and hot dogs. They also helped the Albert Lea Y's Men in their annual sale of Christmas trees to private homes all over the city.

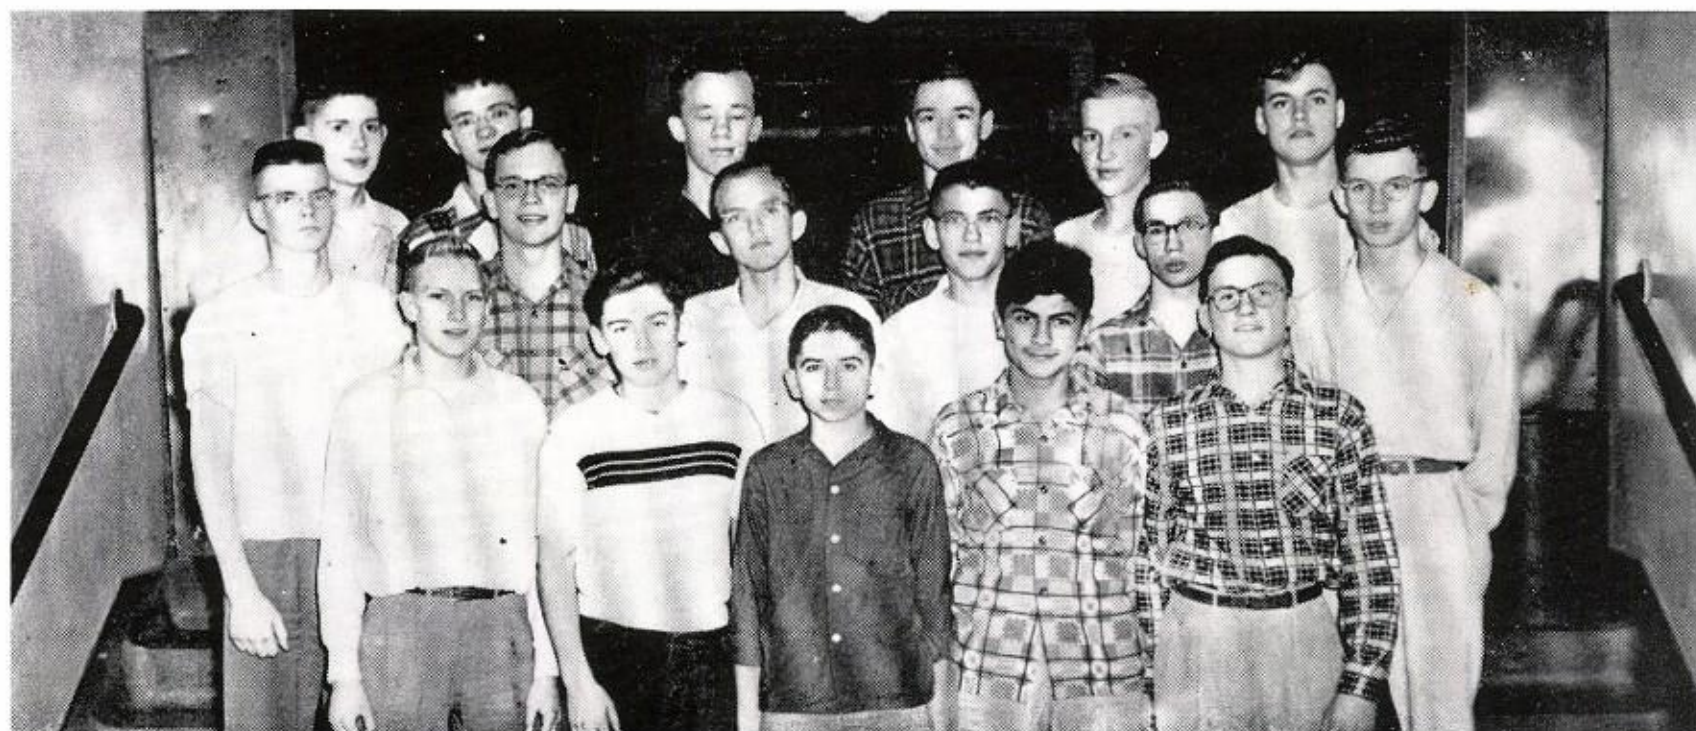

The Junior Hi-Y has sponsored two dances and furnished ushers for the football games and basketball games. From the proceeds taken in at the concession at the sub-district tournaments, the Beta Hi-Y bought shirts for next year's ushers.

Carl Jensen and George Skaff were sent as delegates to the State Hi-Y Conference held in Minneapolis. Austin and Albert Lea attended a Hi-Y rally at Moraine Point during the summer months.

Hi-Teenagers Strive to Help Others

With a membership of 271 this year, the Hi-Teens girls' organization endeavored to render service; promote friendliness; develop character, leadership, personality and capability and to create a high standard of ideals for themselves and their high school. All senior high girls are eligible for membership in this club.

Advised by Miss Ruth Bauer, Miss Gertrude Piers and Miss Ruth Nelson, the girls tried out a new idea for their meetings. One monthly business meeting was held in the high school auditorium, while one project meeting was held monthly in separate classrooms. The group was divided into six smaller ones for project work; each one was led by its council representatives who were chosen from their respective classes at the beginning of the year.

After choosing one, each group completed one of several projects, including making scrap books and joke books for soldiers' hospitals, making stuffed animals for children's hospitals and making favors, place mats, name cards and vases to be distributed where they were most needed. They met in separate classrooms for the project work which was under the supervision of one of the advisers.

HI-TEENS REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL: Seated—Dorothy Hunt and Ruth Madson. Standing: Joyce Earl, Carol Myers and Anita Samudio.

The officers of the Hi-Teens organization were elected after being chosen by a nominating committee. The duties of the president include more than presiding over the group meetings. The president also has charge of the meetings of the Representative Council and plans future meetings.

Planning programs for the Hi-Teenagers is the job of the vice president who also takes the president's place in case of absence. Programs during the year have included guest speakers, musical numbers, readings, movies and a style show.

The secretary keeps the minutes of all of the previous meetings and is custodian of the constitution. She also has a file including the names of each member and the services she has rendered.

Being treasurer of this girls' organization involves keeping the account books up to date, paying bills and straightening out the money matters. A school dance was sponsored by the Hi-Teens Club to raise money in order to help support its activities.

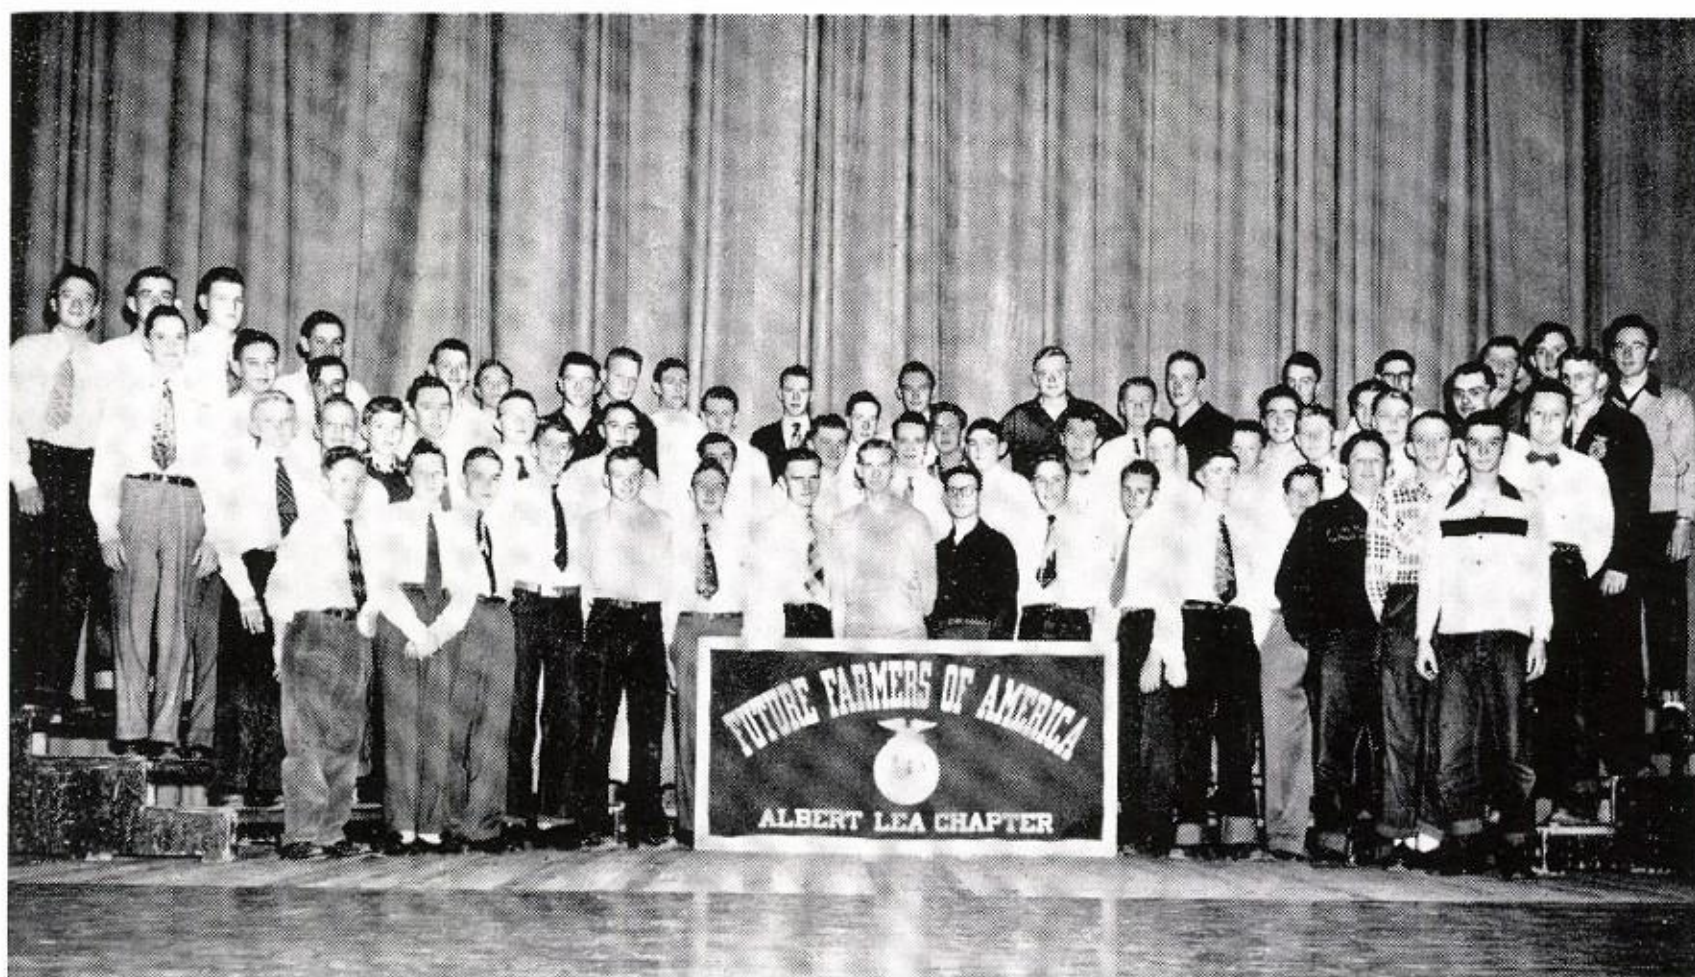

The Hi-Teens organization has, at all times, been striving to prepare the girls for a successful future.

FFA Gains Honors, New Experiences

To encourage taking a share in the general management of the farm's hog, dairy, crop or livestock enterprise is the purpose of a new plan adopted by the high school chapter of the Future Farmers of America.

Attempting to teach by experience and have their studies combine with the home farm operation, the members use their textbooks for references.

The chances being that the boys have learned home projects without instruction, they are encouraged to experience other projects. This also includes the experience of handling all the finances of their work.

Entertainment is also enjoyed in the way of basketball games which are held every Monday night in the high school gym. Games are also played with other chapters.

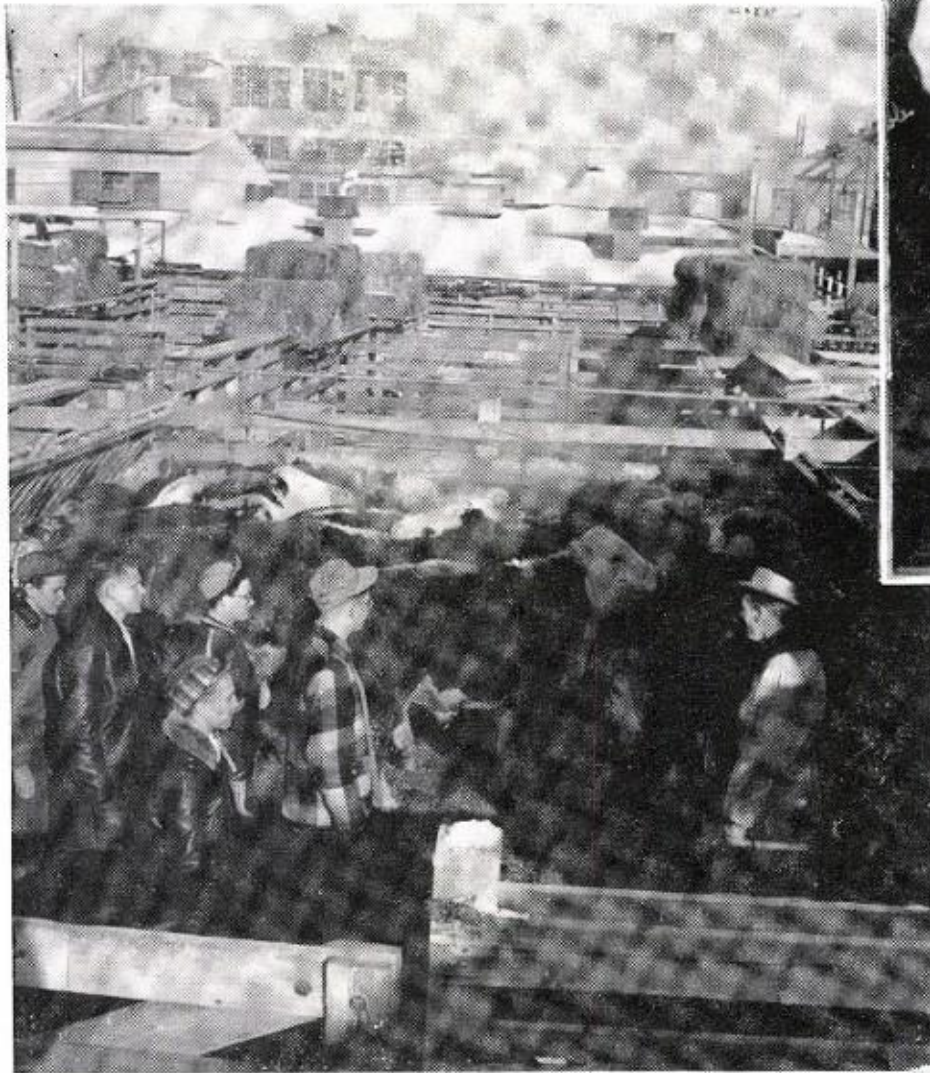

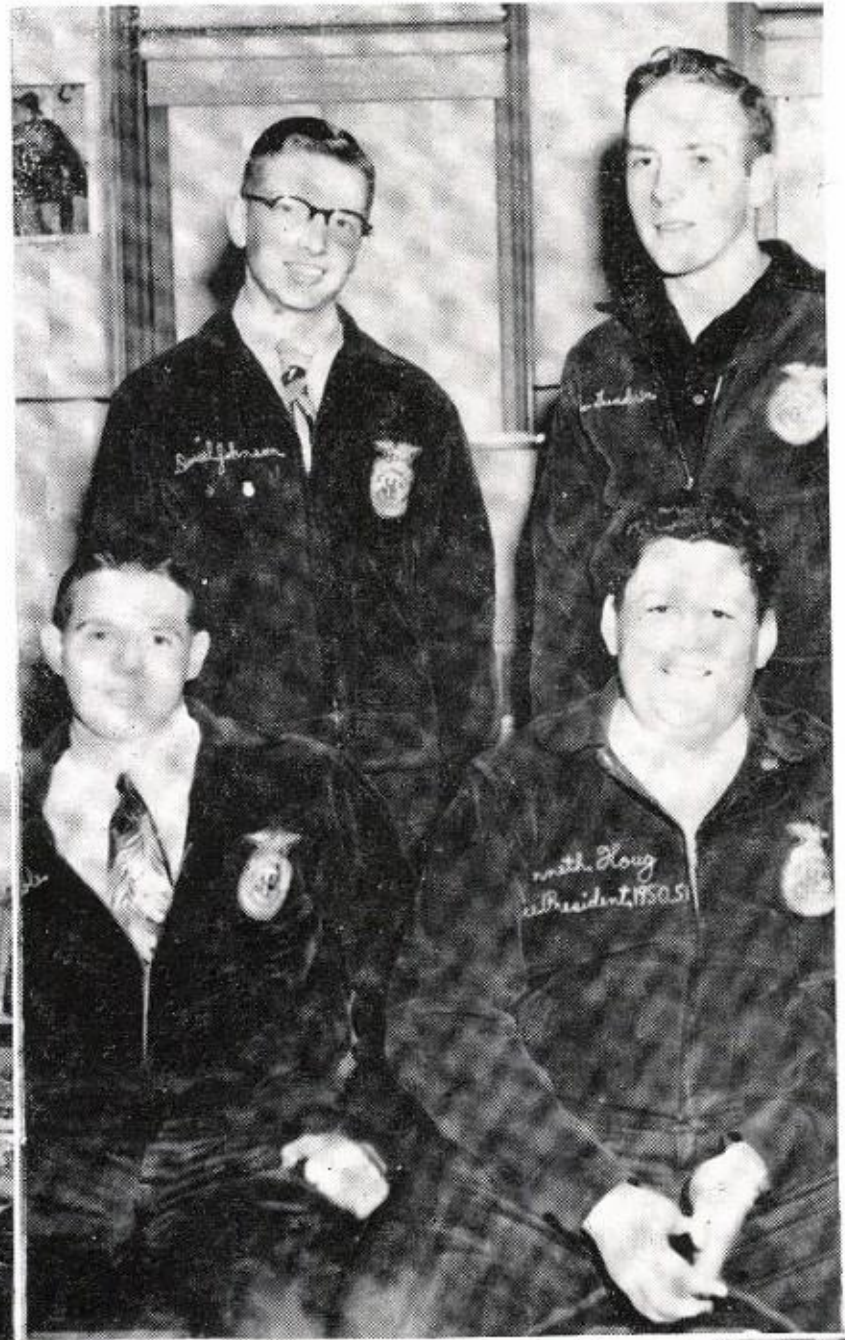

A highlight event was the annual banquet to the parents of the members which was held on March 5. The principal speaker was Mr. Myron W. Clark, Commissioner of Agriculture for the state of Minnesota.

Minnesota Future Farmer Week was observed February 17-24. It was proclaimed by Mayor Amos G. Christensen of Albert Lea and marked the twentieth anniversary of the Albert Lea chapter.

During this week a page in The Evening Tribune was sponsored by the organization to better acquaint the public with its activities and achievements.

Advising the organization are Mr. Donald Paulson, who has served for four years, and Mr. Lowell Ross who began his teaching in the high school this year. He is in charge of the senior boys, those who have recently graduated and adult classes.

A Chorus Brings Listening Pleasure

Practicing every day under the direction of Mr. Robert Myers, 111 A chorus members prepared for the several concerts during the year. Their first major singing was done at the annual fall concert, November 29. On Christmas they sang for the Service Clubs. As a fitting climax, the mass choir candlelight procession was held December 20.

The choir sang in the orchestra concert March 3 while March 11 was the date of the music department's annual Easter Concert. The mass vocal concert took place May 15.

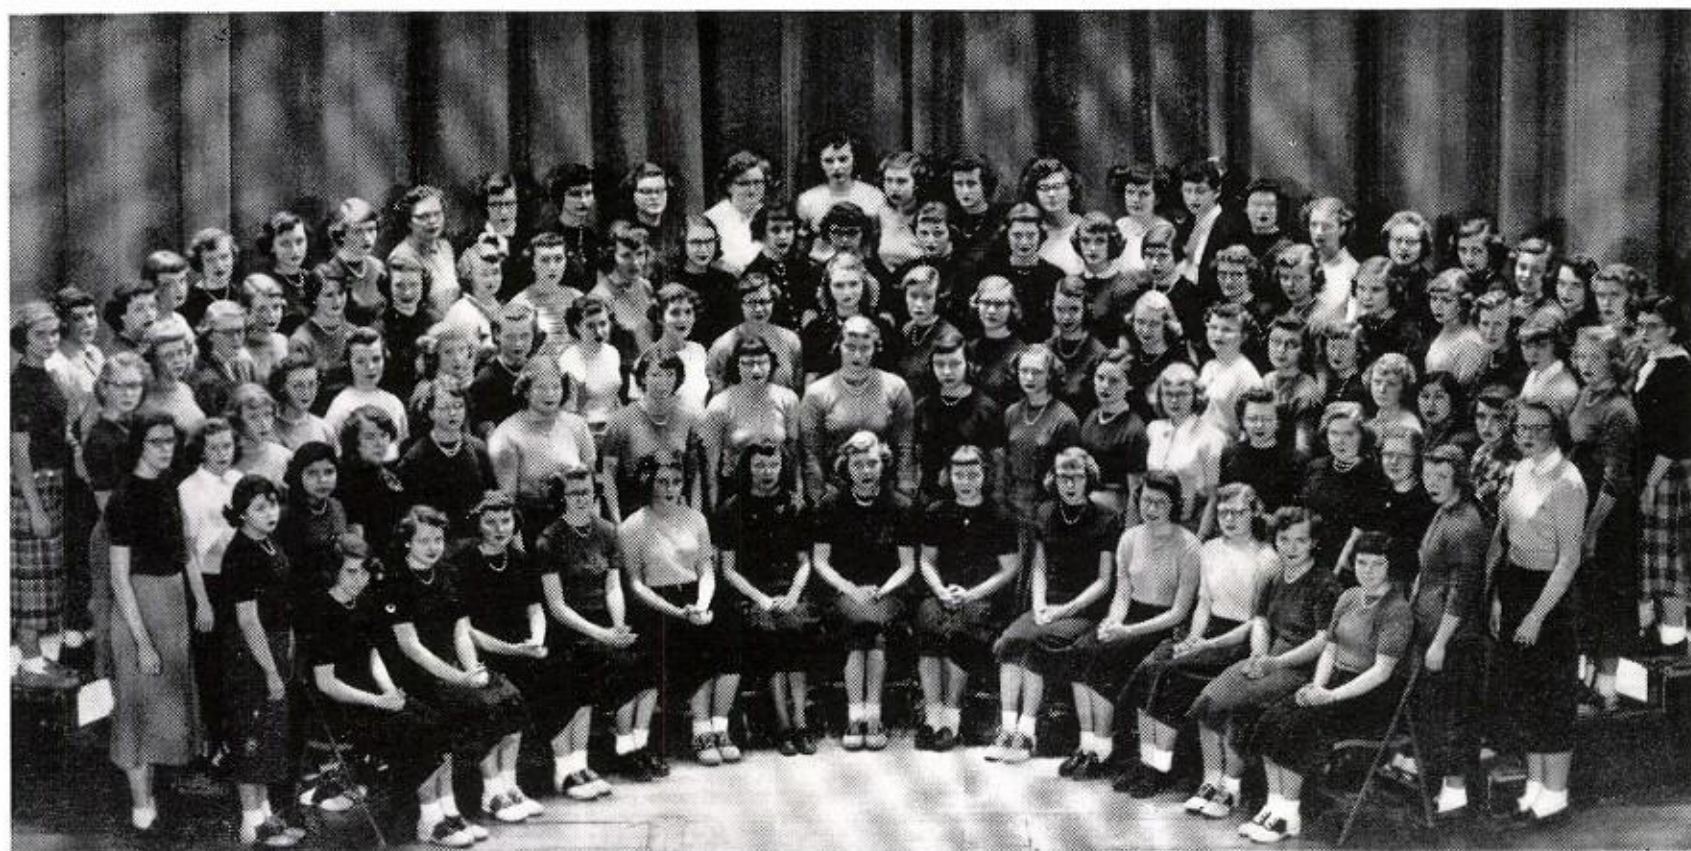

Rochester was the town of interest to all A chorus members on May 4. This was the day they packed into a bus and headed for the annual music festival where they sang several numbers with a mass chorus.

Madrigal, a select group of 33 voices, entertained organizations wanting musical talent during the year. Soloists this year included: Carl Jensen, Grace Wasmoen, Valborg Nordaune, Don Hogquist, LaVonne Bettner, Rollin Connly, Peter Mondeel, Loring Olson and Cleo Nelson, with Mary Knutson as accompanist.

Learning to blend their voices in two, three and four part music was the objective of 105 sophomore girls participating in the B chorus directed by Mr. Robert L. Myers. Strains of their music could be heard any Tuesday or Thursday morning during second hour if you should have passed the chorus room.

During the Christmas season the B chorus joined with the other junior and senior high choruses in presenting a concert which began with a candlelight ceremony. Before vacation they sang Christmas carols in the halls.

Next on their list of activities was a part in the annual spring concert, at which they sang several numbers. Their last appearance for the year came when they sang for the graduates at Baccalaureate.

Within the B chorus was a smaller selected group, which sang for various extra programs. Practice for their performances was given for the school.

As a requirement for entertaining A chorus, the girls learned through B chorus the fundamentals of singing. The majority will have the opportunity of being members of the A chorus next year.

Junior High Proteges Show Enthusiasm

Besides giving several public appearances, the junior high chorus, under the direction of Mr. Robert L. Myers, topped off a successful year by presenting an operetta in the spring.

Students from the eighth and ninth grades are chosen to participate in the junior high chorus which consists of ninth grade mixed chorus, eighth grade mixed chorus and the ninth grade girls' chorus.

Seasonal Concerts Feature Orchestras

Expanding from 35 to approximately 100 students made it necessary to divide the orchestra into two separate musical organizations. The first orchestra consists of both junior and senior high students and the second of junior highers only.

The first orchestra, with a membership of 55 students, met first hour in the auditorium while third hour found the second orchestra's 42 members busily practicing on their instruments.

During the year Luella Reid, a junior, acted as student director of the first orchestra. There were no other officers in either the junior high or senior high orchestras.

Due to the greatly increased interest in orchestra, a new teacher was employed to direct the program. He was Mr. Lester E. Striemer whose duty was not only to direct but also to teach the fundamentals of music.

Under the auspices of Mr. Striemer the orchestras truly had an active year with a varied program for the students to participate in.

They played for the class and all-school plays besides presenting solo numbers at numerous assemblies. Their biggest program was the spring concert held March 3 in which they presented both classical and light popular compositions.

Junior Band Displays Promising Talent

Working toward their goal of admittance into the senior high band, the junior band members practiced their playing and marching techniques.

Under the direction of Mr. L. J. Emmons, the band met every third hour in the band room.

Playing for junior high pep assemblies, marching for several parades, including Homecoming, and playing at the fair were the band's main activities.

Each band member supervised the care of his own uniform which consisted of white pants, shoes, sailor style hats and shirts with black ties.

The majorettes—Carmen Emmons, Elizabeth Peterson, Arlene Peterson and Louise Jensen—led the band in their complicated marching maneuvers.

Performs At Games In New Uniforms

A little get-together for tootin' and flutin'. Standing: Knutsen, Emmons, Cram, Von Berg. Sitting: Esse, Jensen.

Adding a splash of color to the senior high band this year were the new uniforms which arrived shortly before school started last fall. In the school colors of cherry and blue with gold trimming and towering plumes, the uniforms were officially dedicated at the Mankato football game, September 29.

The band participated in several concerts during the year including the fall music concert on November 28 which was dedicated to the Homecoming queen, Margaret Lee Blunt. They also journeyed to Rochester, May 4, for the annual Big Nine Music Festival.

Performing intricate marching patterns at the football games, marching in several parades and playing at the fair were all band activities, under the direction of Mr. L. J. Emmons. A small picked group of band members, known as the pep band, played for assemblies and basketball contests.

In charge of band activities this year were: Roger Naylor, president; Peter Mondeel, vice president; Carol Lindell, secretary; and Jeanne Cady, treasurer.

Variety Seen In

Assistance was given to the juniors and seniors in their class plays by Miss Georgia Pengel, dramatics instructor. An all school play, "Alice in Wonderland", also aroused school interest.

Drama Club met every two weeks to plan and discuss ways of raising needed funds. One of its projects was selling stationery engraved with a tiger and Albert Lea High School in red and blue. There were 25 engraved sheets, 25 plain sheets and 25 envelopes included in every pack sold.

Living animals were used in two of the plays; a cat in "Alice in Wonderland" and a dog in "Cheaper by the Dozen", the junior class play. These belonged to students who owned tame pets.

Dramatic Activities

Forming the inner core of Drama Club is the National Thespian Society which conducts two initiations per year in order to provide an opportunity for new members to join the national society.

In order to become National Thespians the members must earn at least ten points by working on make-up, costumes, staging, prompting and other committees.

After one becomes a member of Thespians he may direct plays with the Drama Club members constituting the cast. In this way all gain experience.

The officers of the Drama Club this year were: Robert Schmidt, president; Robert Miller, vice president; Sally Anderson, secretary; Marjorie Hellie, assistant secretary; Paul Grotenhuis, treasurer; and Grace Wasmoen, historian.

Records, skits and language games enabled members of the Spanish Club to speak the language with more fluency and use it with a wider knowledge.

In addition to studying vocabulary and grammar, they studied the habits and customs of the Spanish people and countries. "Arroz con Leche", "Alla en el Rancho Grande", "The Pinata Song" and "Chia-panecas", Spanish and Mexican folk songs, were sung.

Officers presiding over club meetings were Mary Jo Donovan, president; Jean Anderson, vice president; Carol Hanson, secretary; and Dan Bergen, treasurer.

Highlighting the club's activities was the annual Christmas party. A Christmas play, spoken in Spanish dialect and carols sung in Spanish, were presented by the club. In accordance with the old Spanish custom, a pinata of candy was broken.

Miss Ruth Bauer is adviser of Spanish Club as well as French Club. Sena Mathews, Barbara Teff, Lynne Allen, Barbara Jensen, Betty Heather and Margaret Lee Blunt constitute the club's membership.

The Spanish and French Clubs sponsored the "Have-a-Heart" dance together. The Spanish Club supervised the decorating, and the French Club had charge of the king and queen coronation ceremony.

Both clubs joined the Latin Clubs in their annual banquet held in the spring of the year.

Classical-Visual Clubs Promote Interest

The Audio-Visual Club was organized five years ago for the purpose for providing experienced students to operate the visual aids equipment.

Operating the projector for various classes during the year was 12 senior high school boys. The boys who had free hours when movies were to be shown were assigned to operate the projector.

Under club adviser, Mr. Irwin Volkman's supervision, the boys learned how to operate the movie projector, run the slide projector and splice broken films.

As the Audio-Visual Club is a service club, regular meetings were not held.

Being that there was no Virgil class this year, the Caesar Club was formally initiated into the Junior Classical League in December.

The Roman Saturnalia, or Roman Christmas, was the theme of the party which was held in the Home Economics rooms. Miss Clara Berdan is their adviser.

This year, a banquet was held honoring Pan-American Day with the French and Spanish Clubs attending.

Officers are John Sullivan, president; Janet Sullivan, Edithann Nelson, co-program chairmen; Joan Smith, secretary; and David Head, treasurer.

Librarians and Ushers Serve the School

Serving at auditorium programs and assemblies is the Ushers Club, an all girl organization under the direction of Miss Clara Berdan. They greet and seat the people attending these affairs.

The Ushers Club was organized five years ago and has been serving the community ever since. The club emphasizes courtesy and friendliness and strives to better public relations.

The girls have no uniforms, but must dress either formally or informally according to the type of program which is to be presented.

In the spring of the year, Betty Blake was elected president and, therefore, acted as head usher for this year. At the close of the year, inexperienced ushers are taught how to usher correctly and properly for next year's service.

The seven members of the Library Club spent their free periods every day helping Miss Mabel Rawlings, librarian. Shelving and checking books, typing and presenting over-due slips to negligent students are some of the duties accomplished by the members of the club.

While offering a valuable service to this school, the girls in this organization are also compiling a wealth of useful information on how to choose interesting and wholesome books and magazines.

They also learn to select books for the school library, the proper handling of new books and the filing and reference work necessary before the book is filed for use on the library shelf.

Although a large percentage of Miss Rawlings' assistants are not planning on becoming librarians, the knowledge they have acquired will prove helpful.

The Red Cross Goal Is to Help Others

Filling a gift chest highlighted the work of the 1950-51 senior high Red Cross Council. The chest which was sent abroad, was financed by a drive made in the fall and by homerooms contributing supplies or money, aside from their membership dues.

Other projects were sending gifts to rest homes in the city and to the Veterans' Hospital in Minneapolis. Those who headed these projects were Jerry Burtis and Margie Axelson, co-chairmen; Pat Bok, treasurer; and Pat Prosser, secretary.

In the junior high each homeroom filled at least one small gift box with some filling as many as six. These were sent abroad in April.

The Sunshine Club, which was part of the junior high council, sent cards to rest homes on holidays and to children who were injured or hospitalized.

Mary E. Nelson and Howard Heckes acted as leaders for the group; Carmen Emmons, secretary; and Carolyn Schneider, treasurer. Sponsors for these groups are Miss Olive Johnson and Miss Lucy Houlihan.

Diversified occupations is a course offered in Albert Lea High School for those who do not plan to go on to college, but are interested in gaining knowledge and experience in some definite trade.

Students taking this course are given two credits for it; one for their work on their respective jobs and one for their study of diversified occupations during class in the high school.

Advising the group is Mr. Norman K. Bailey, who instructs them in English and diversified. They are excused at 1 P.M. to go to their place of employment where approximately 28 hours of their week are spent. The 28 members of the class work in grocery stores, offices, garages, restaurants and department stores in the business district.

The diversification class itself includes training the students to cope with any situation that might arise, whether it be in buying and selling or in office practice. They learn to understand and interpret business situations and work harmoniously with people they come in contact with.

Photography Club Develops Pictures

Taking, developing and printing the pictures for the TIGER and AH LA HA SA was the work done by the Photography Club this past school year.

The organization, under the guidance of Mr. Thomas Slettehaugh, held its meetings every Monday. The organization is composed of 12 boys and three girls. This total membership marks an increase of 50 new members over last year's.

Officers elected by the members included Gordon Sward, president; John Minor, vice president; and Barbara Robinson, secretary.

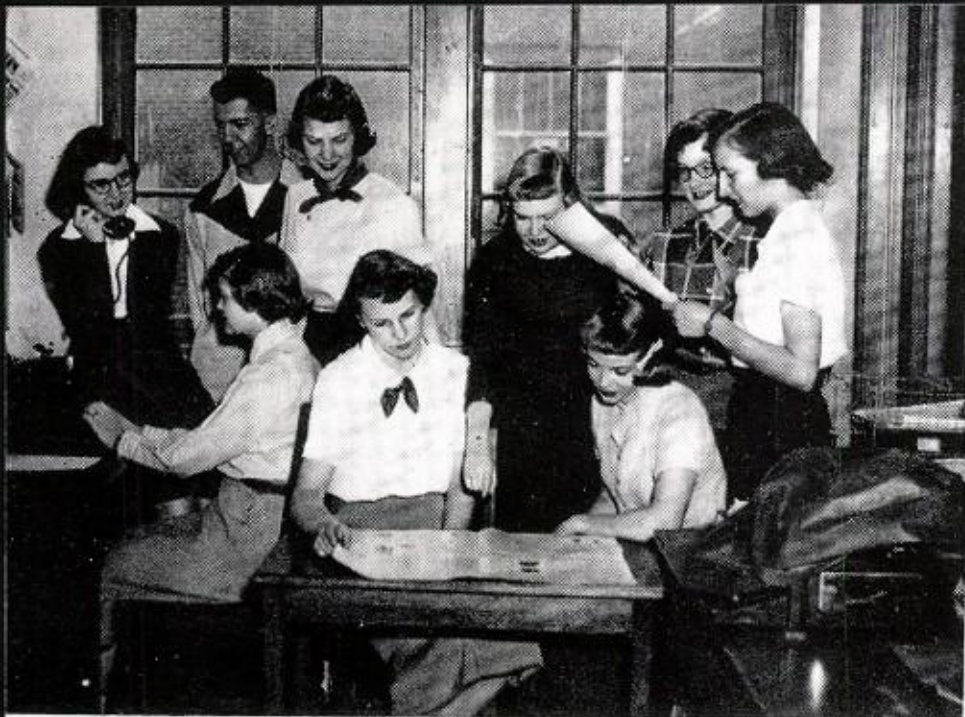

Learning of various new techniques of work in the dark room and proper and more efficient technique for the old method of developing the pictures were the main projects of the club.

New equipment the club purchased included a new Bush camera and two new developing tanks. This new equipment will provide better pictures which they are always striving to improve.

The club which makes most of the pictures for the yearbook and school paper had their work hampered when the electronic flash unit was broken. Despite the delay, they managed to provide the pictures.

Tiger Staff Toils

Walking into 113 P.A. on a night after school, one would find the 1951 TIGER staff working on your yearbook, using the theme, "Gateway to the Future".

Co-editors of the TIGER have the position of seeing that all the material is finished on time. Watching and planning the budget carefully to get the annual published are the business managers. Literary editor has the task of checking the copy as the writers turn it over to her.

Other staff members are divided into groups from two to five. The groups are circulation, administration, classes, sports, features and organizations.

In September, some of the staff members went to the annual Minnesota State Press Convention at the University of Minnesota where they spent two days comparing their books and newspapers to other schools.

Mankato was the next town of interest to the yearbook writers. In October they traveled there to see yearbooks with All-American ratings and heard criticisms of their 1950 book in the hopes of bettering themselves for work on the 1951 TIGER.

Exhibiting the successful process of the Student Directory sales are Axelson, Bleichwehl, Schaeffer, Minor, L. Anderson.

With the AH LA HA SA publication of February 18, the junior journalists reached their goal—that of having complete responsibility of the school paper.

Many in the group had some journalistic background in junior high. The Student Directory was the first venture of the class. Since the beginning of the year, they have obtained ads for the edition.

Heading the work as editor-in-chief is Lois Bussman. She is assisted by Margie Axelson and Luzetta Anderson in the capacities of first page editors. Having charge of the editorial page are Valborg Nordaune and Janet Jensen. Editing the third and sports pages are Gayle Gunderson, Janet Skaar and Keith Fligge. Dale Jensen, respectively.

Seeking to make the AH LA HA SA better than ever, the juniors have faced many problems. One among these was the absence of their instructor, Miss Edna Gercken, due to illness.

Society Stresses Leadership, Service

"I pledge myself to uphold my high scholastic standing, to hold as fundamental and worthy an untarnished character, to endeavor courageously to be a leader and to give of myself freely in service to others. In so doing, I shall prove myself worthy of a place in the Albert Lea Chapter of the National Honor Society".

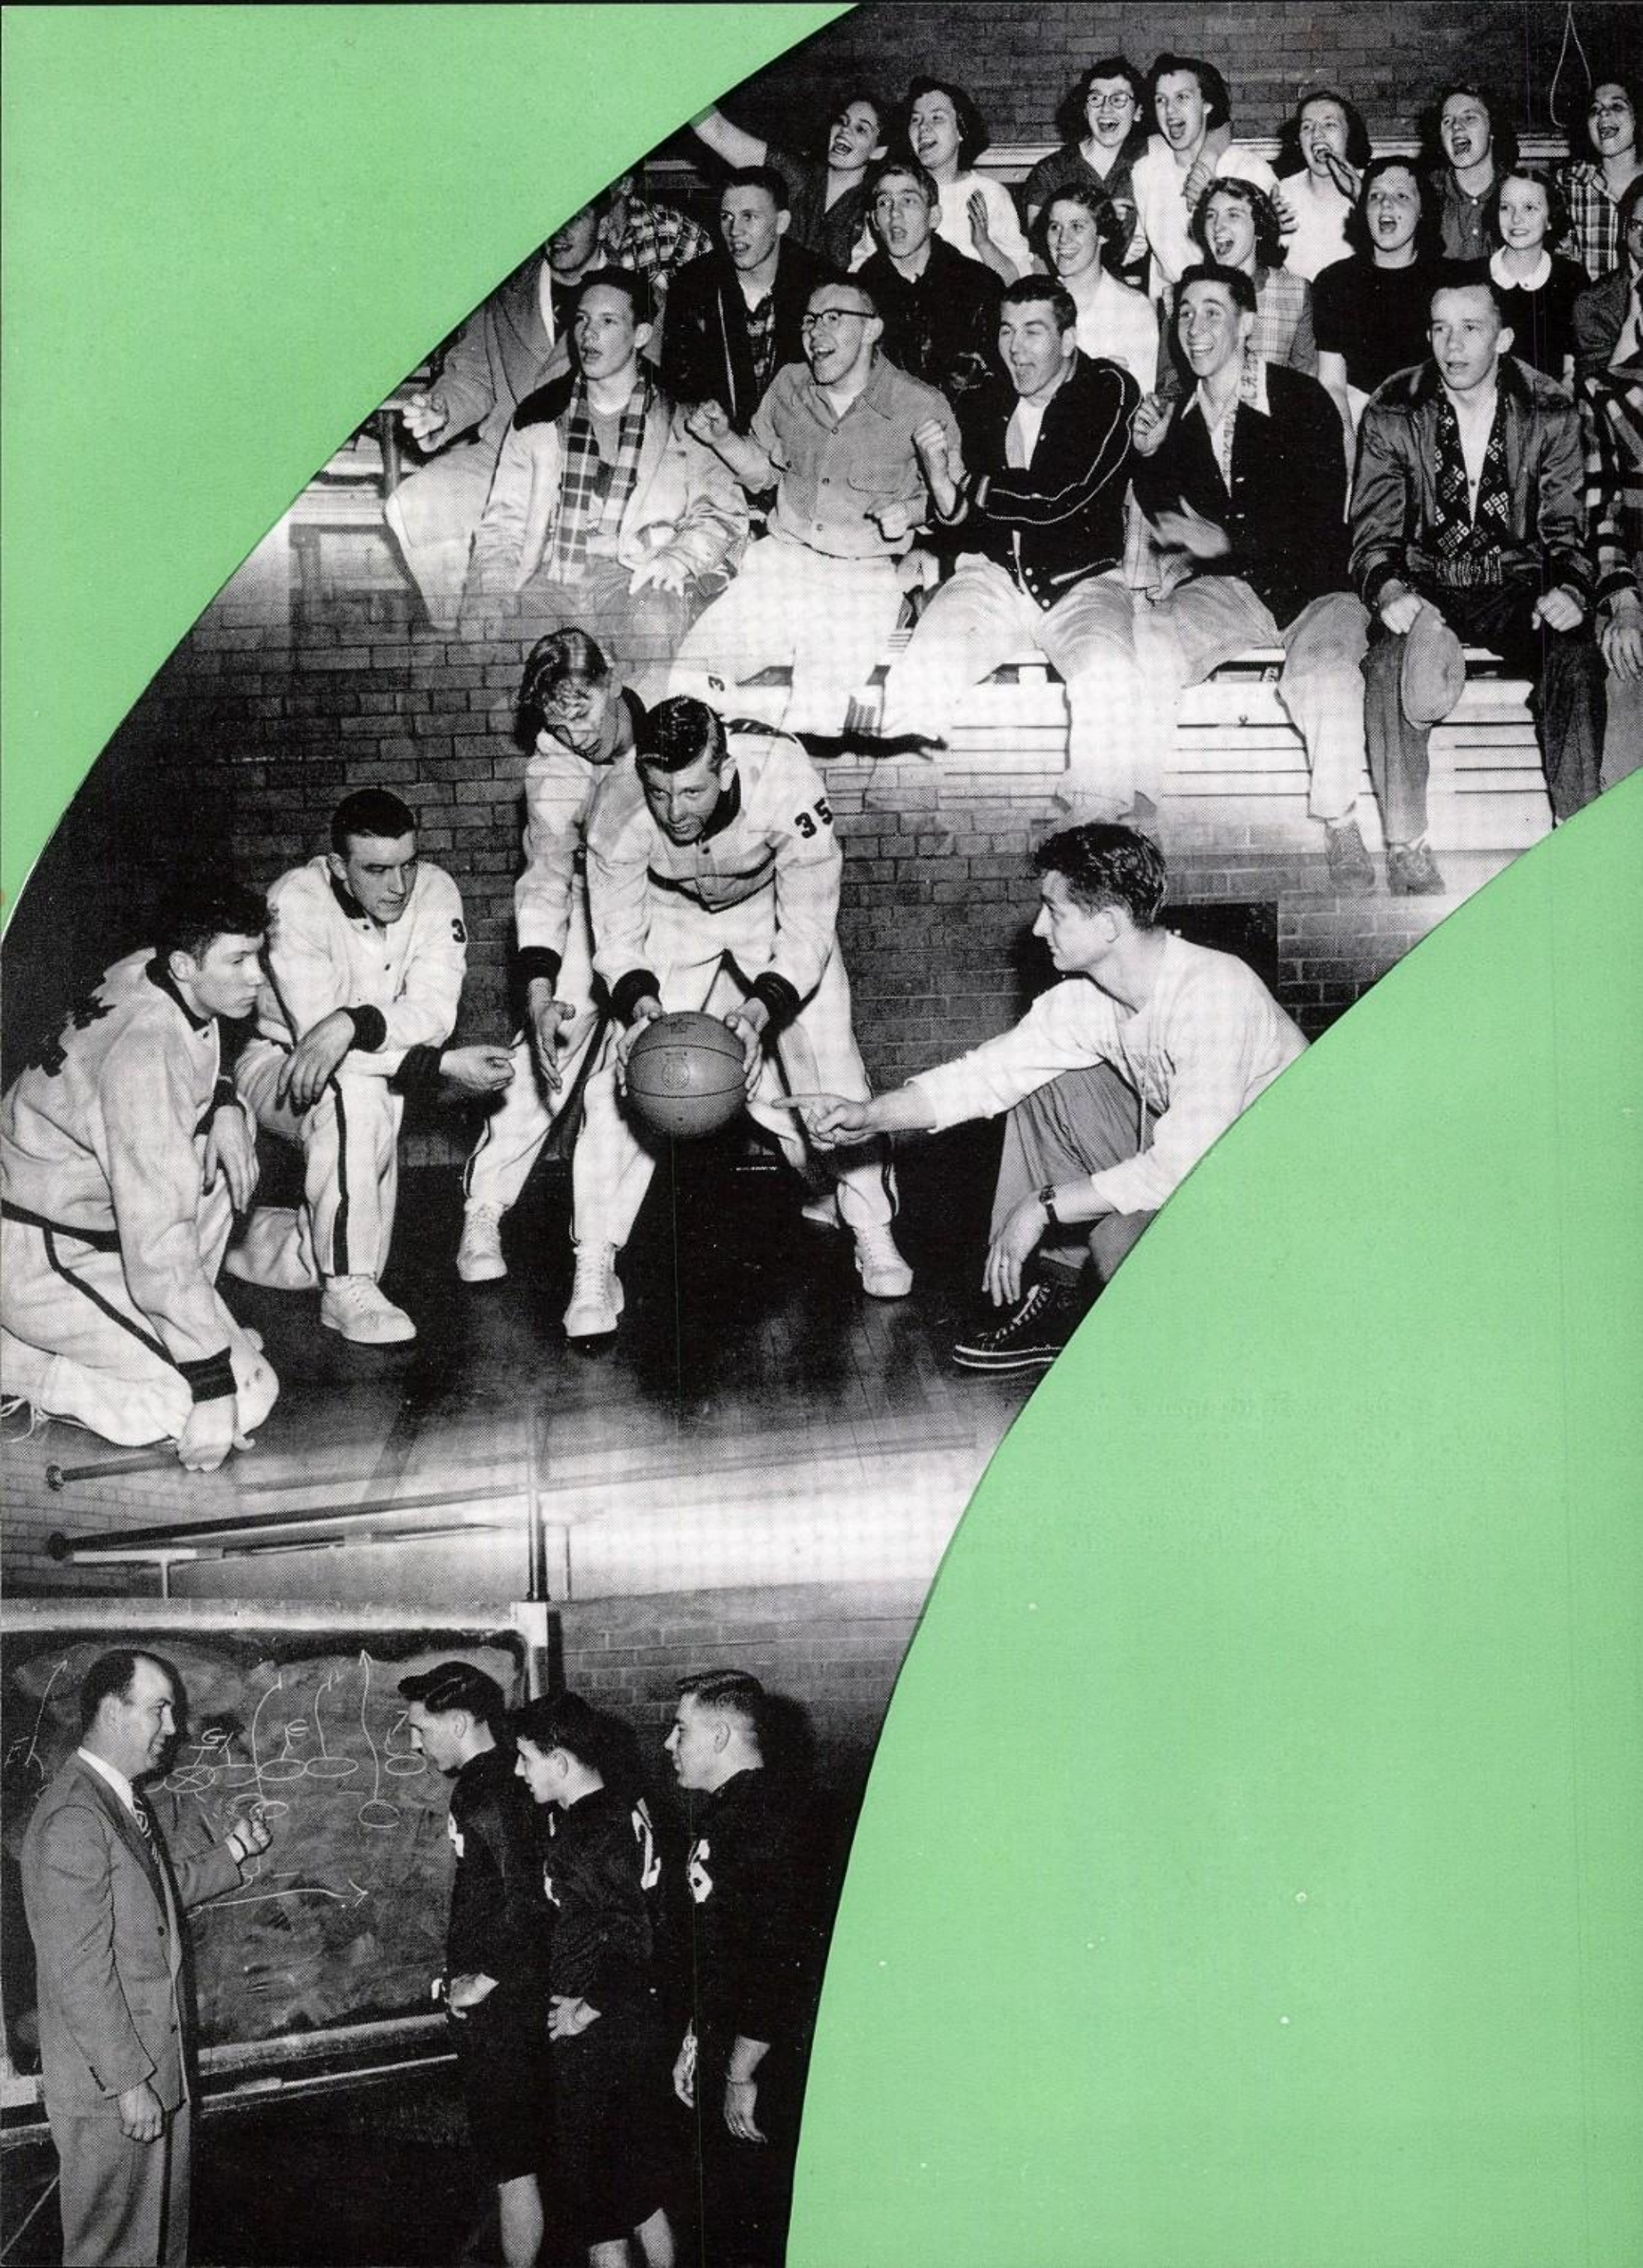

Repeating this pledge, 11 deserving seniors were added to the National Honor Society November 1 at the fall initiation. They were selected on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership and service—all of equal importance.

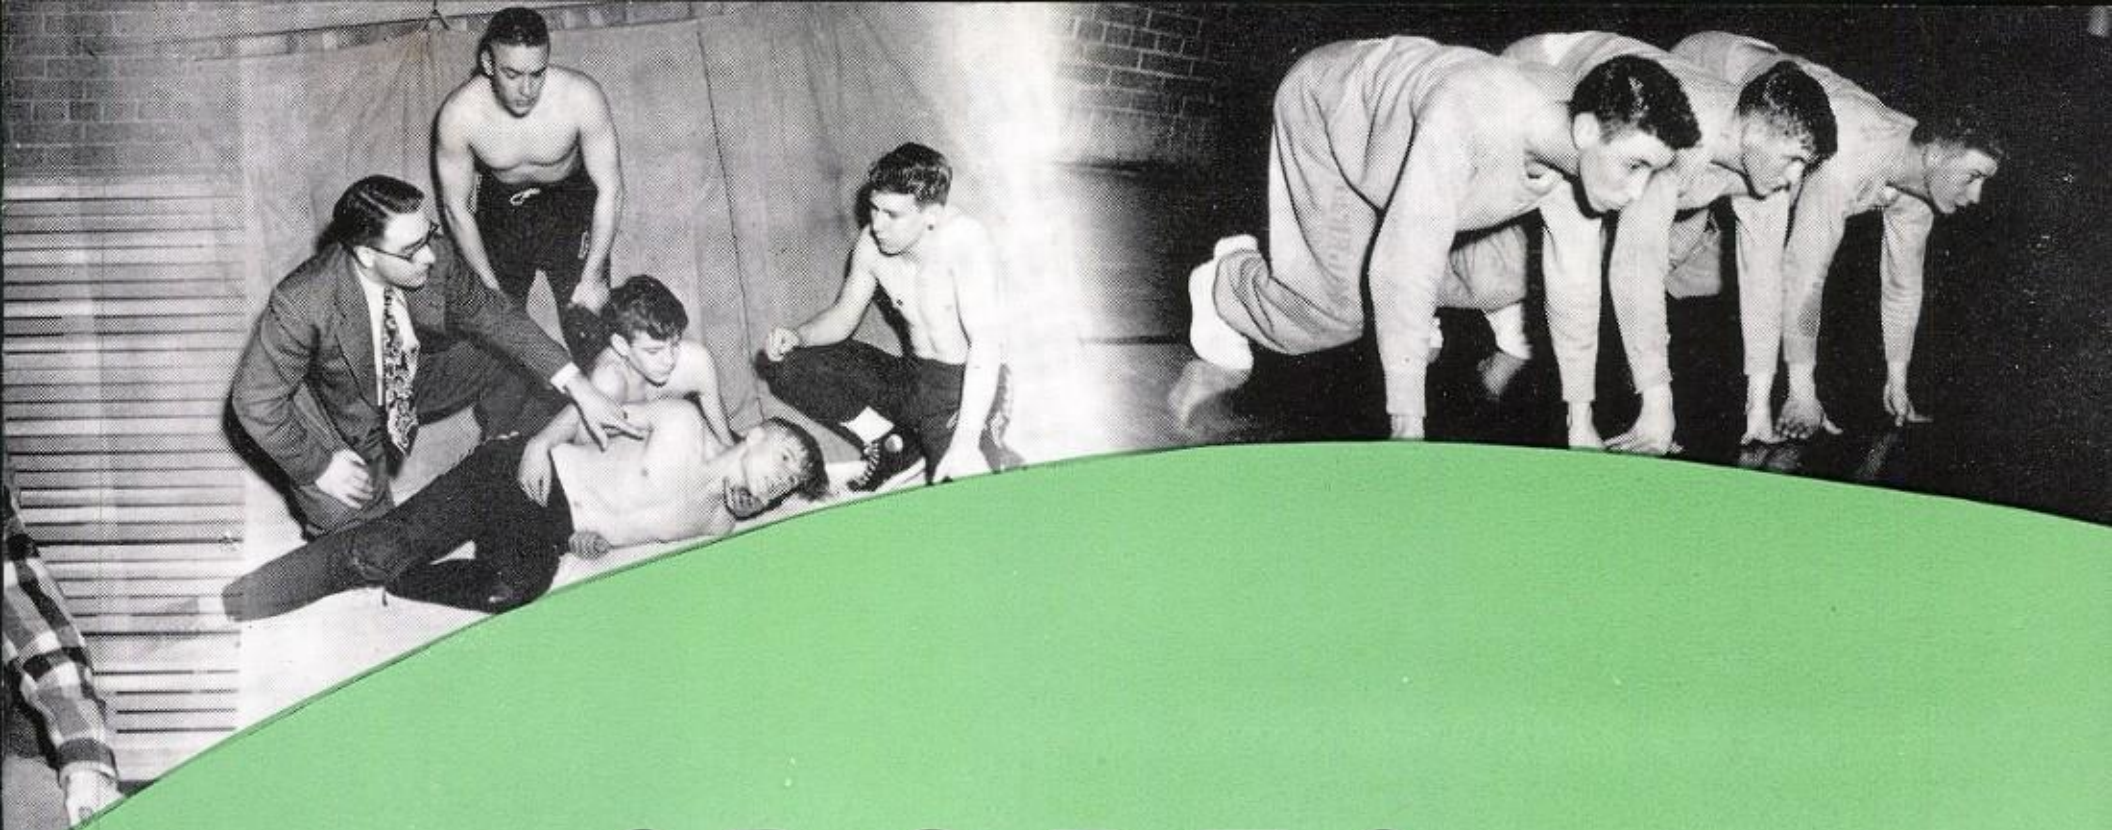

To make the ceremony highly impressive, the names of the initiates are not revealed until they are called to the back of the auditorium by the secretary. Each is then furnished with a lighted candle and led down the two center aisles by two confirmed members. Pins are then presented on the stage.

Although the society sponsored many activities, a carnival was the largest money-making project. All funds obtained from this event were distributed to the more needy organizations of the school. The chief purpose of the group is to make students more aware of themselves as they and others see them.

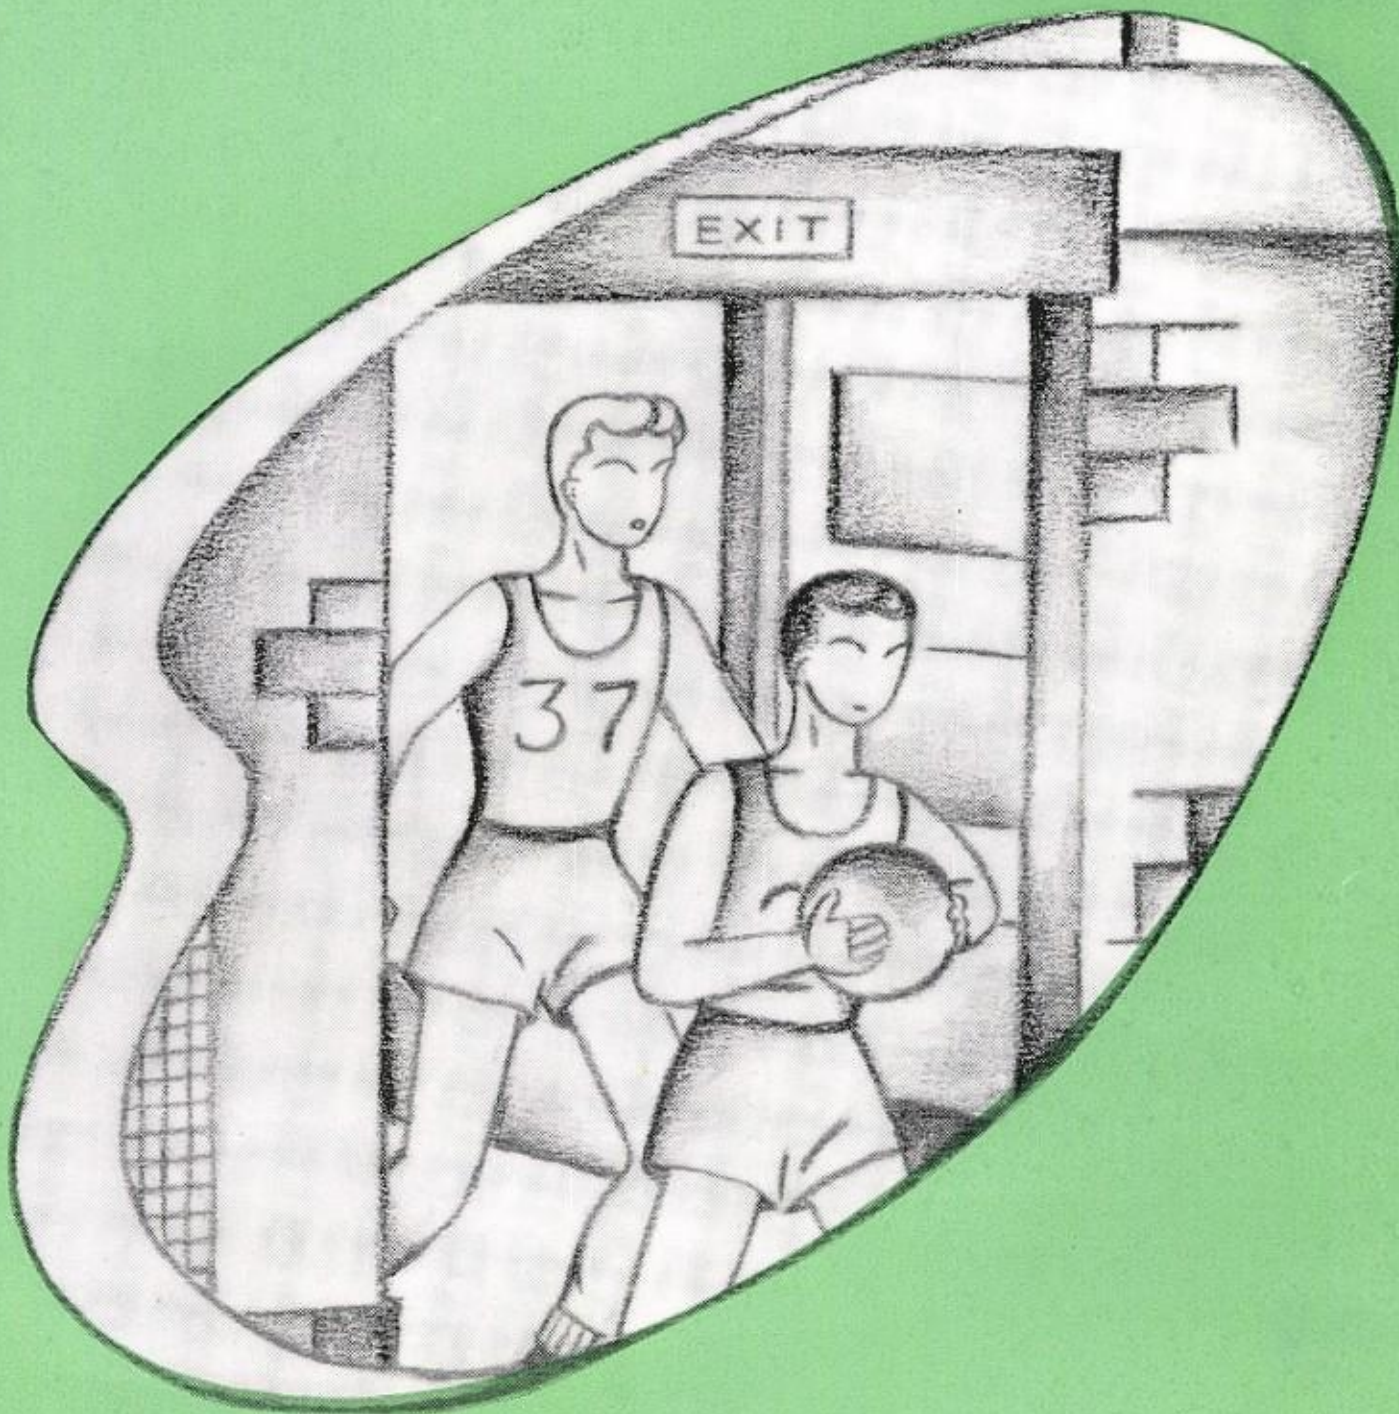

Service projects such as the "Hall of Dimes" and the "Have-A-Heart" drive were also under the Honor Society's auspices. Twenty-five dollars was donated to the Christmas Seal fund as well. It is definitely a non-profit and service organization.

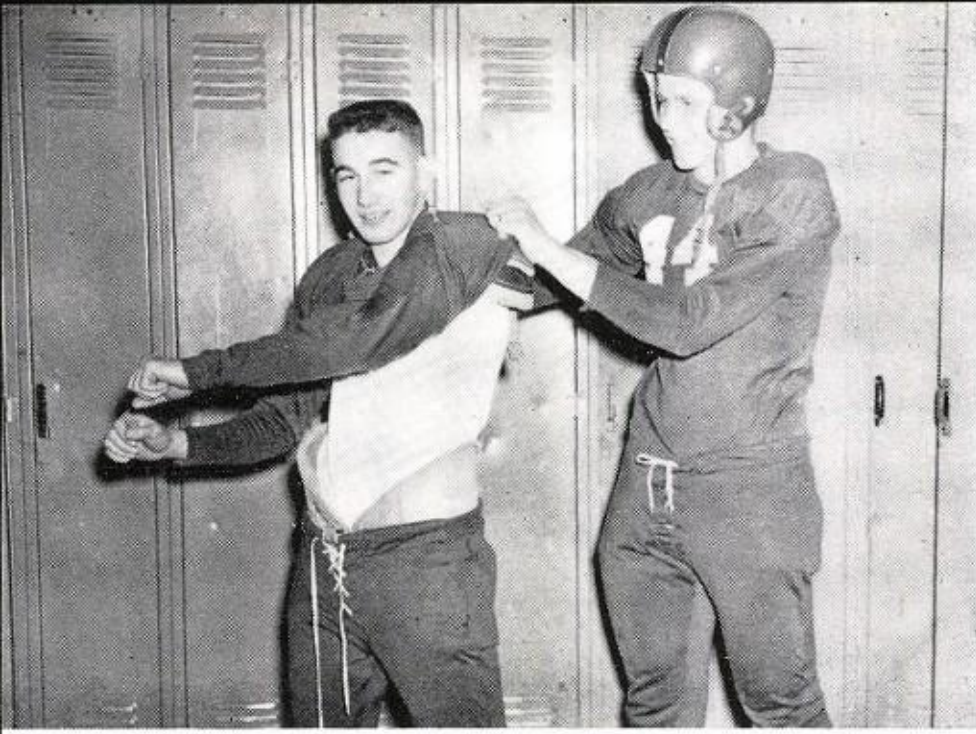

New members were also added at the spring initiation, in which both juniors and seniors were admitted. The same officers planned the induction. They were: James Engen, president; William Kuchera, vice president; Carol Lindell, secretary; and Marjorie Hellie, treasurer. Principal Forest L. Willey acted as adviser for the honorary group.

SPORTS

Tiger co-captains, Richard Greengo and Peter Veldman, prepare for a home game. Pete pulled the Tigers from several distressing situations with his terrific punts. Dick was the leading ground gainer for the Tigers, and was selected as the Tiger "Player of the Year."

Grid Machine Gains

The Albert Lea gridmen finished their 1950 season with a record of one win and seven losses. The lone win was chalked up when the Tigers defeated Winona, 13-7, in their last conference game of the season.

The first Bengal defeat was by a score of 27-6 at the hands of a strong South St. Paul team. Owatonna then invaded Abbott Field to emerge victorious, 28-0, over Coach Gordy LeBeau's gridsters.

After losing three consecutive games to Faribault, Mankato and Rochester, the Tigers lost the Homecoming game to Austin, 21-6. Richard Greengo tallied the cherry and blue marker with a dazzling 79-yard run. The Bengals gained a moral victory over Austin when they held the Scarlets to their lowest margin.

Emerging with individual honors were Dick Greengo and Pete Veldman; Dick placing on The Albert Lea Evening Tribune's All-Conference team and Pete considered one of the best long range punters in the state.

Needed Experience For Future Years

One of the highlights of the 1950 football season was the dedication of the fieldhouse on Abbott hill. This stadium holds approximately 800 spectators and features modern lockers and shower rooms. A large press box and a concession stand are also important facilities of the new high school stadium.

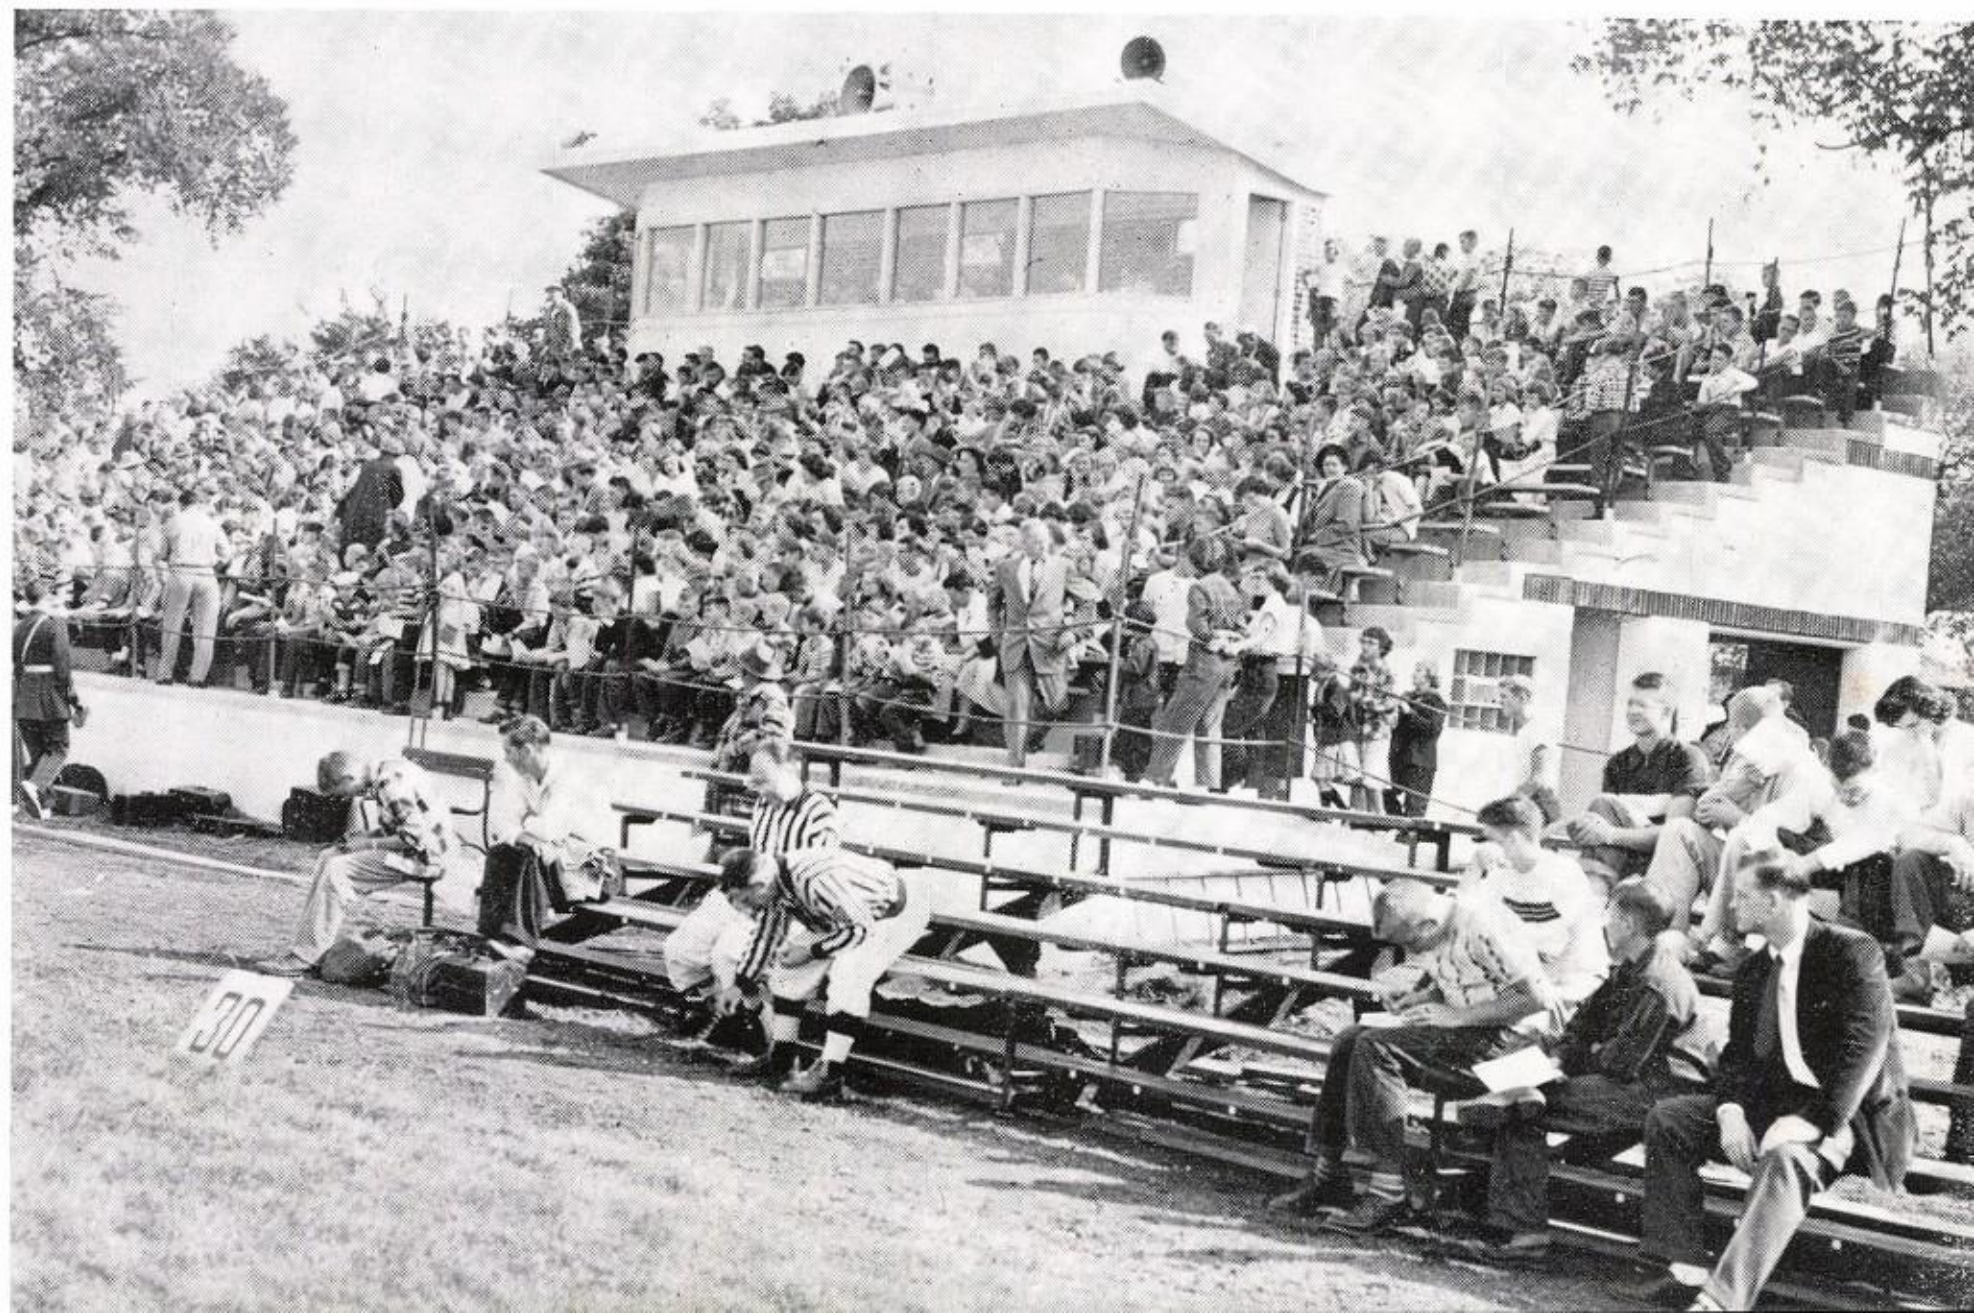

Also rated high is the newly-laid sod, considered to be the finest turf in Minnesota, which makes up the playing field. Bleachers on the north and south sides provide a seating capacity for another 1,700.

The scoreboard, which was donated in 1949 by the Lions' Club, is now at the top of the hill and a new lighting arrangement has been installed. The field dedication took place September 29 when the Bengals met Mankato for the second home game. Owatonna met the Tigers here in an afternoon game because of the delay in obtaining the lighting facilities.

Some of the most promising prospects for the 1951 season include James Christianson, Tom Donovan, Joe Jacobs, James Malepsy, Delano Hovey, Larry Duggan, Harlyn Hagmann, Dick Weeks, Roger Olson, Chuck Robinson, Roger Mangskau and Al Simonson. These boys were some of the outstanding players last fall and will probably be among next year's first stringer players. Although this season was disheartening, the gridmen showed promise and should go far in years ahead.

Busy as little bees were the football managers who issued uniforms and towels to the gridsters. Hard at work are Dan Bergen, George Skaff, Clay Lyon and Bill Bergen.

Bringing down Mankato's Arthur (44) are Tigers Leo Jackson and Dick Berglund.

Baby Bengals Display Fighting Spirit

With the combined efforts of Coaches Luther Olson, LeRoy Maas and Gordy LeBeau, the B squad afforded its 16 sophomores and freshmen the experience they will need in years to come.

Although finishing their 1950 season with a record of two wins and four losses, the Baby Bengals showed plenty of scrap and spirit as they chalked up wins over the Alden and Waseca B squads while losing to Freeborn, Owatonna, Mason City and Austin.

This year's squad consisted of six freshmen and ten sophomores: Bill Mathies, Clayton Robinson, Bill Sorenson, Philip Lee, Paul Yokiell and Richard Knutson; while Ralph Smith, Dick Maertz, Dean Hammond, Dick Weeks, Dean Hermanson, Terry Crowley, Richard Rierson, Donald Thompson, Jerry Miller and Donald Jacobsen made up the ten sophomores.

Due to their playing ability, Joe Jacobs, Delano Hovey and Roger Mangskau, three B squad regulars, were moved to the varsity team early in the year.

Stating that the sophs and freshmen have a good group of boys, Head Coach LeBeau is hoping that the efforts put forth toward the Baby Bengals will produce a winning grid squad in a few years, provided these boys retain their interest in the sport.

Tigers Cop Second Place In Big Nine

One of the highest scoring teams in the state was the 1950-51 edition of the cherry and blue cagers. Under the able administration of Coach Paul Wilke, the Tigers built up an over-all record of 11 wins and seven losses. Never, in Coach Wilke's six years of service under the cherry and blue banner, have the Tigers ranked below third place in the Big Nine conference, marking a record to be proud of in a strong conference like the Big Nine aggregation.

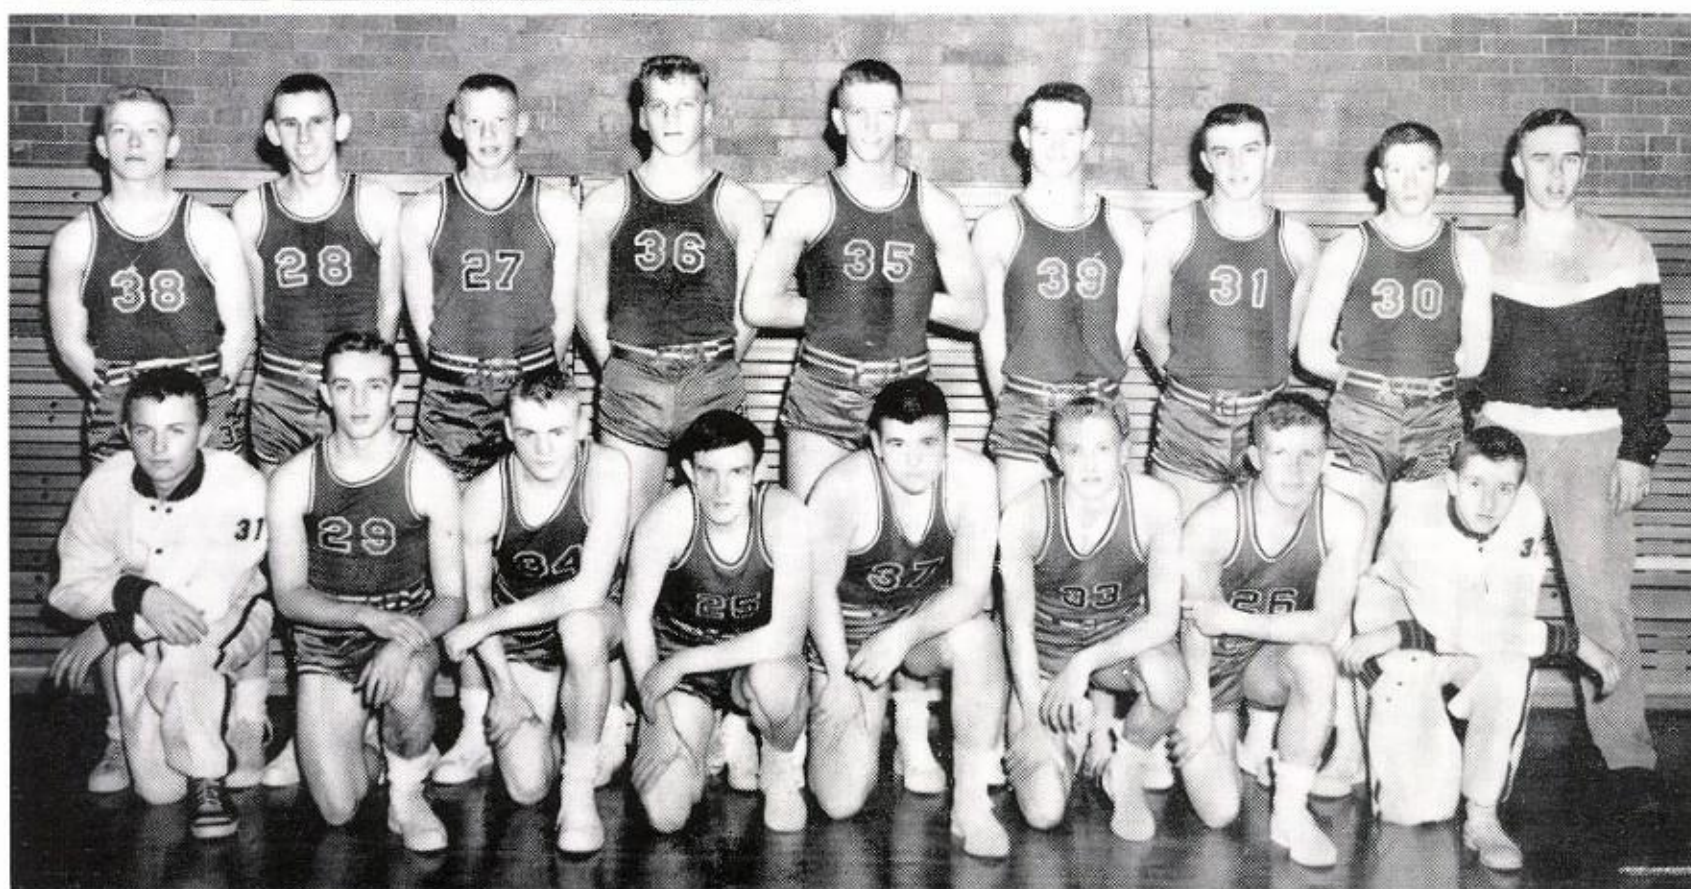

The Tigers battled their way out of a series of ties for the coveted second place in the Big Nine to gain sole possession of the position at the close of the regular season. Playing at Wells for the opener of the season, an exhibition contest, the Wilkemen were met and thrown back in an overtime tilt. Thoroughly aroused by this upset the locals edged Owatonna, and ripped through Mankato and Blue Earth. In these three contests, the Tigers' "big three" of the scoring parade, Rabbit Nelson, Leo Schultz and Bumper Westrum clearly demonstrated their scoring abilities and their smooth floor play.

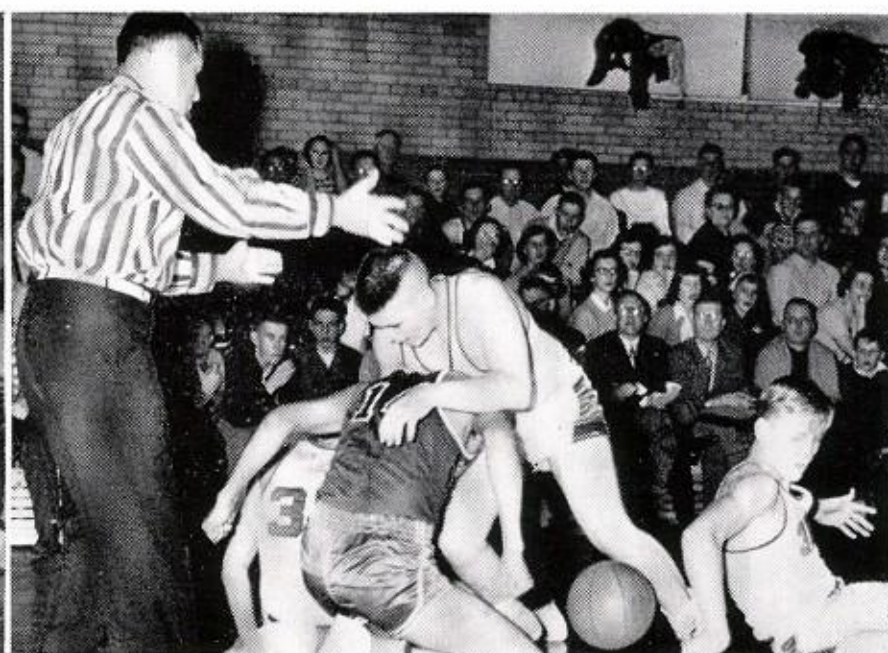

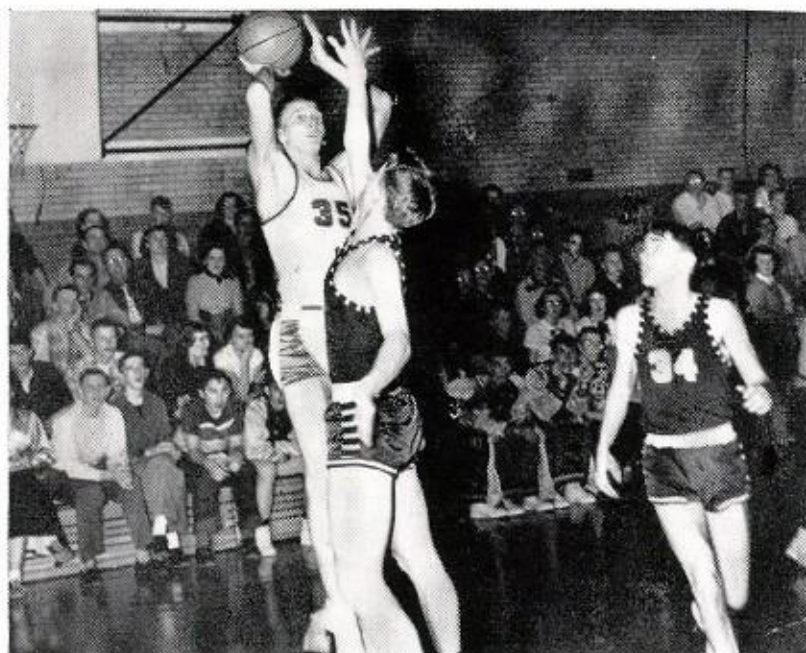

A turn of events occurred when Austin invaded the Tigers' lair. Though the Packers defeated the Tigers, the Tigers received consolation in the fact that Austin's center was held to his lowest mark up to that point in the campaign. Hitting from all spots, Nelson again took scoring honors by dropping in 22 points while Westrum followed with 18 markers.

Northfield's Raiders proved no match for the Tigers as Bumper Westrum, playing his usual kangaroo-like game, sank 26 points to tie for scoring honors with the Raiders' Paulsen.

Players Singe Nets In Hot Scoring Pace

Engaging in a vacation tournament affair at Hibbing, the Tigers broke even, defeating Grand Rapids and losing to the host town. The Wilkemen fell to Mason City in a game played on the local court and retaliated at the expense of Winona's Winhawks. Hitting the season's high, the Tigers walked over Keewatin in a preliminary contest held in Williams Arena, on the University of Minnesota campus. Nelson singed the nets for 30 points while Schultz and Westrum scored 19 and 15 points, respectively.

A well-balanced Rochester five had little trouble dumping the Tigers on the huge Mayo Civic Auditorium court. The Rockets met the Tigers on one of their cold night and were never in serious trouble.

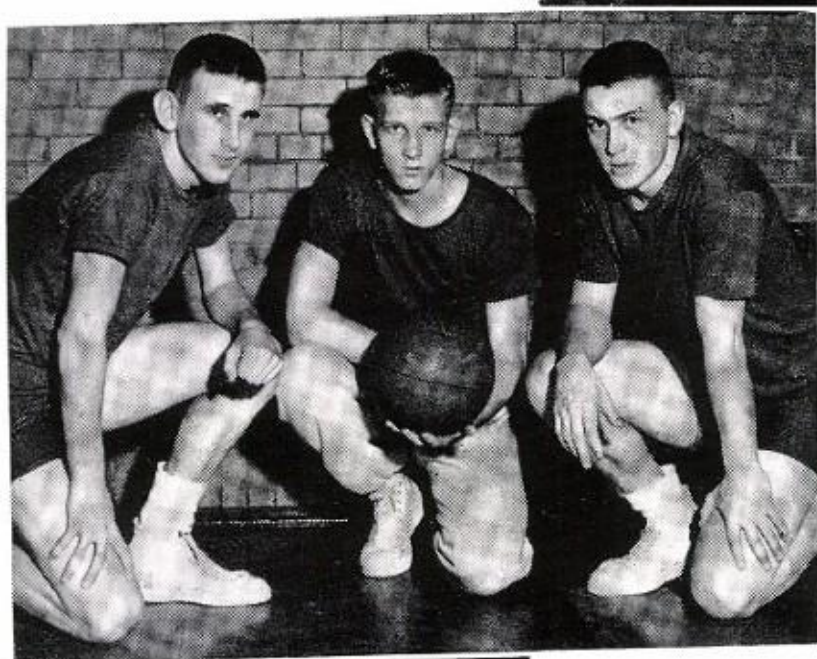

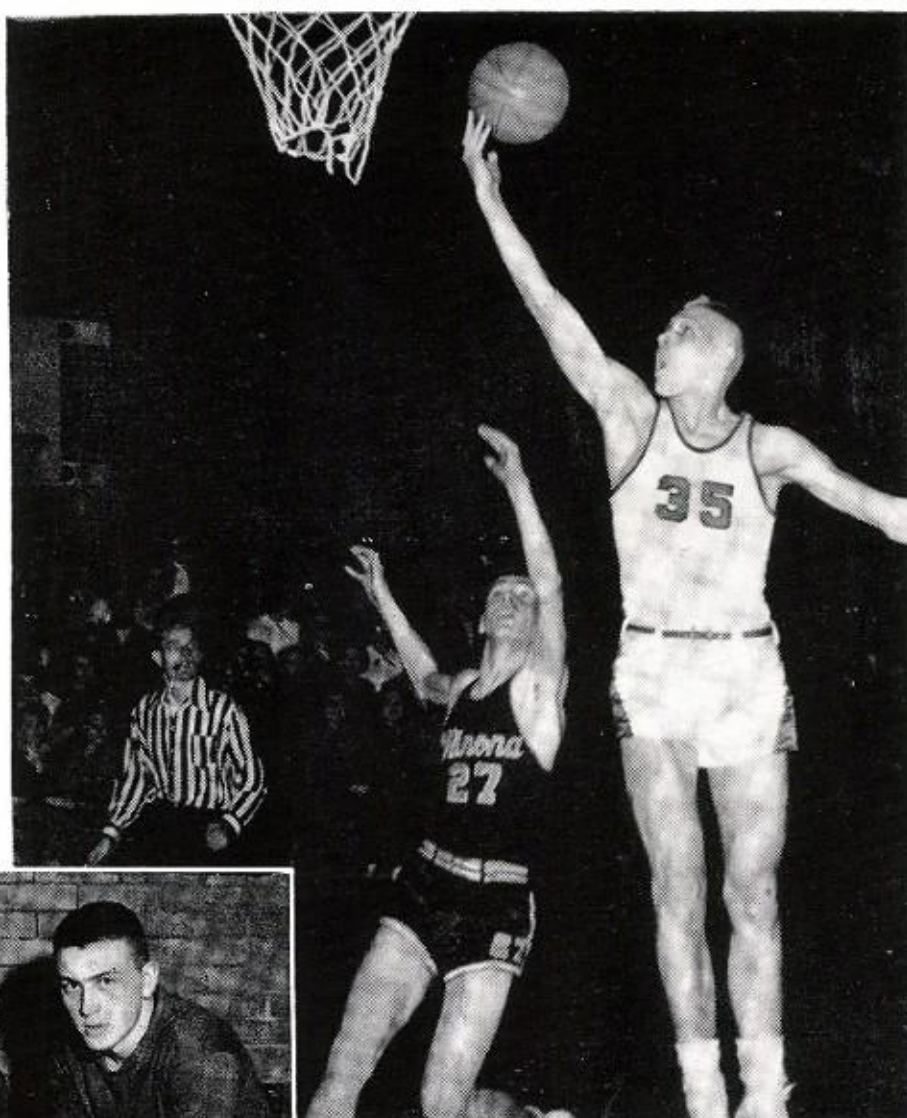

Playing a smooth and co-ordinated floor game, the Bengals waltzed past Fairmont. Upon invading Austin the Wilkemen found a stubborn, well-balanced quintet, and came out second best. The Tigers then proceeded to break the seven-game winning streak belonging to the Red Wing Wingers, a crew of speedsters.

Westrum chalked up 19 points for the second consecutive game as the Bengal aces squeezed past Mankato. The game was a thriller, with the lead changing hands every few minutes. A two-point edge gave the Tigers a win over Faribault in their final conference game. Two fighting squads rang up the scoreboard at a blistering rate as the Austin powerhouse edged the Tigers in their final game of the season.

Copping scoring honors in Big Nine play was Rabbit Nelson, who placed second with 170 points. Rabbit totaled 71 field goals and sunk 28 free throws.

Also finishing with high scoring honors were Bumper Westrum and Leo Shultz. Bumper placed sixth with a 141 total while Leo followed next with 125.

All three of these boys will be returning next year as well as Ervin Rickheim, Keith Fligge, Dick Berglund, Tom Donovan, Bill Bridley and Don Rye.

Although the loss of Dean Hahn, Bill Ryan and Mike Skophammer will be felt keenly, Coach Wilke will have a strong '52 team with this year's B's.

Reserves Show Promise For Future

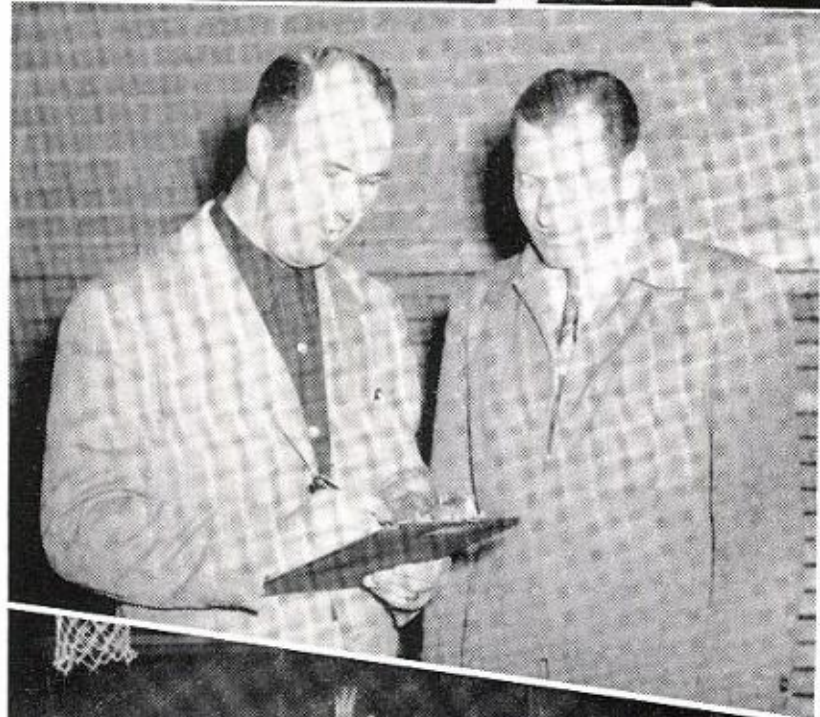

Two sophomores who saw action on the A squad during the last part of the season, Don Rye and Bill Bridley, are also likely prospects for next year's squad. Another B squad veteran moved to the varsity squad was Roger Schultz, who chalked up 97 points during the season and who will probably be among next year's potential players.

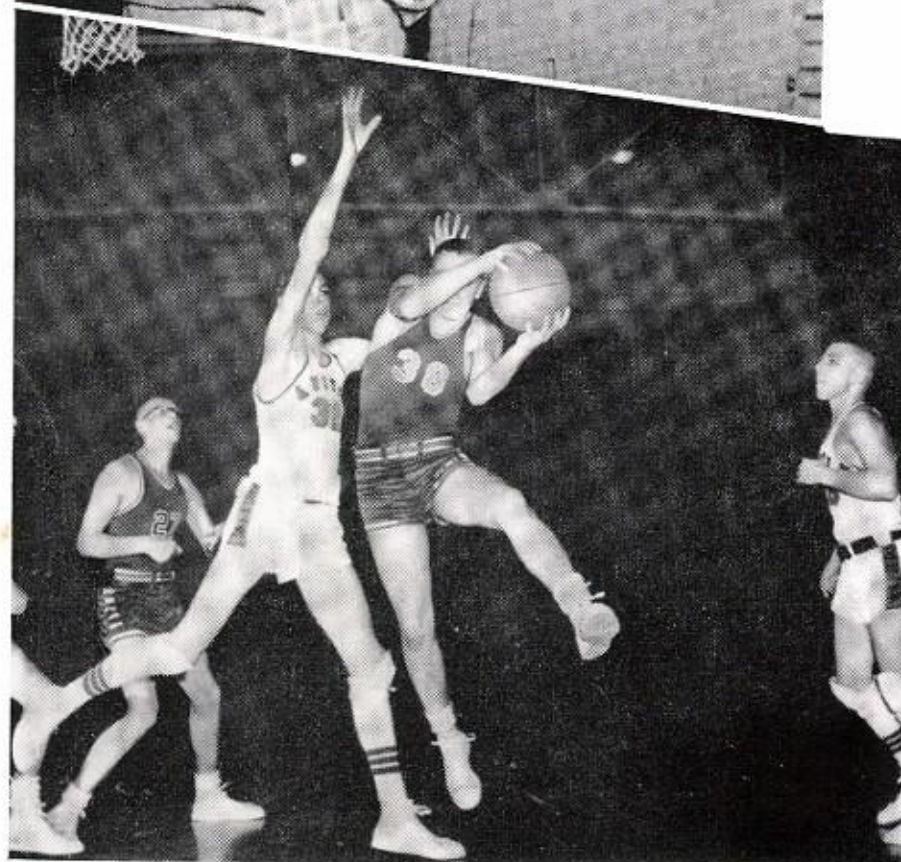

Bridley and Ralph Dahl followed next for scoring honors with 69 and 62 points, respectively. Rye finished with a total of 52 points while Roger Mangskau copped 50, Don Nelson hit for 29, Delano Hovey and Roger Wangen chalked up 24 and Delbert Hoeve, Don Wendt, Arliss Bachtle and Joe Jacobs had 22, 17, 12 and nine points, respectively.

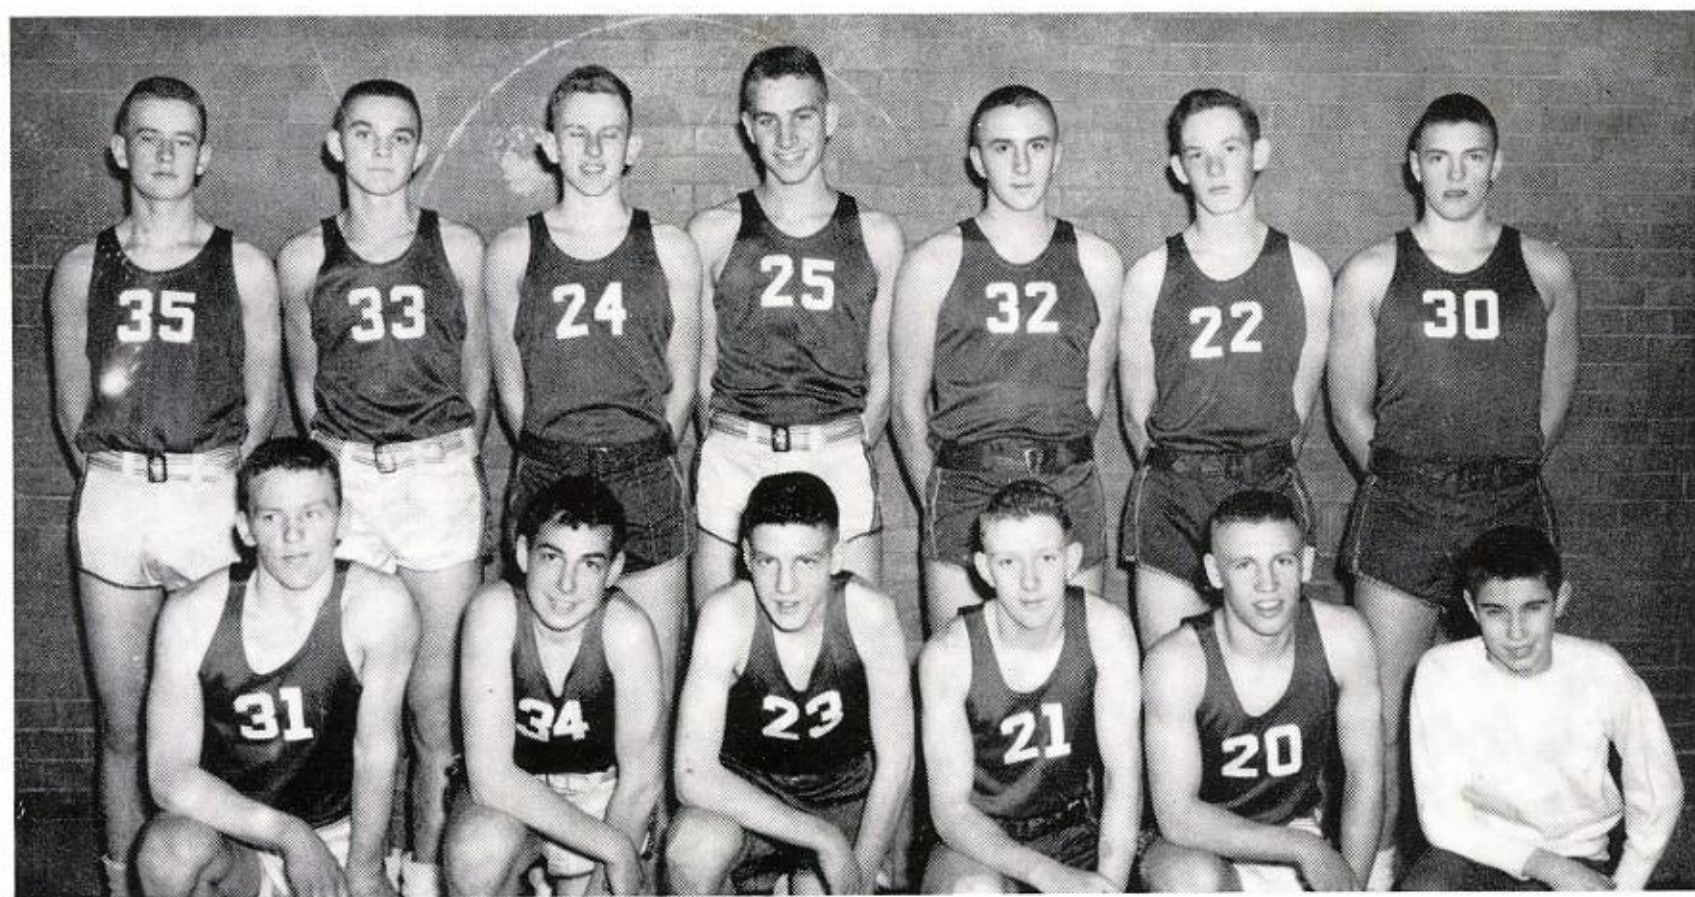

The highest game average was copped by Bridley, who averaged 9.9 markers per game. Schultz and Dahl were close seconds with averages of 8.8 and 6.2.

The varsity should have a well-rounded squad for '52 if these sophomores maintain their interest.

Matmen Gain

The Albert Lea Tigers climaxed their most spectacular mat season when little Joe Kelly and heavy-weight Pete Veldman copped state championships.

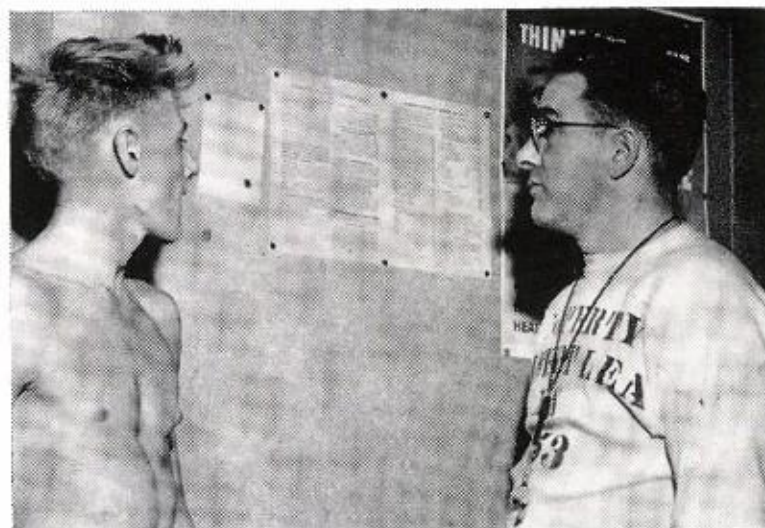

Coach LeRoy Maas's matment finished their 1950-'51 season with a Big Nine record of five wins and one loss, resulting when the Tigers challenged Faribault for the conference crown. The Bengals finished even in exhibition matches with a win over Blue Earth, 32-3, while losing to Britt, 30-10.

The Maasmen won the Region One title by a score of 37-36, nosing out second place Faribault by a single point. Through wins by Kelly, mat-captain Paul Callahan and Veldman, the Tigers placed fourth in the state with 16 points. The other Tiger traveling to the state tourney, Darrel Lande, was edged out, 3-2, by Ron Malcolm of Blue Earth.

Darrel Lande and Pete Veldman were the only Tigers to emerge from conference matches undefeated, both having a record of five wins plus one tie. Captain Paul Callahan followed with a record of three wins, two draws and one defeat.

Though he will be hampered by the absence of a 1950-'51 B squad, Coach Maas still has a lot of potential power in the Kelly twins, Eugene Evans, Terry Crowley, Harlyn Hagmann, Carl Jenson, Dick Maertz and freshman Paul Yokiel.

Taking part in eight meets were the 1950 trackmen coached by Mr. LeRoy Maas and high assistants, Mr. Orlyn Burgess and Mr. Gordon LeBeau. The Tigers won the Austin triangular meet and the District meet which was held on the Austin field.

In addition, the team placed third in the regional meet, sixth in the Big Nine meet and seventh in the Faribault relays. They placed ninth in their class in the high Carleton invitational meet, and entered a selected squad in the St. Thomas meet.

Coaches Burgess, Maas and LeBeau led the 1950 cindermen to success.

Captures District Title, Third In Region

Two records were set during the season and a third record was tied. Charles Easter set a new district and school record of 5' 7½" for the high jump and the 880 yard relay team set a new record, going the distance in 1:37.4 seconds. The team was composed of Upin, Grube, Rasmussen and Berglund. Veteran Joel Upin, the only Tiger to reach the state meet, tied his record of 24.2 seconds for the low hurdles. He set this record during the previous season.

The prospective for the 1951 track season is very bright indeed, as the squad lost only four of its members through graduation. Ivan Grotenhuis, Joel Upin, Charles Easter and Gilbert Whitson were the departing lettermen.

Those returning to the Tiger line up are Rudolph Grube, Jerry Burtis, Dick Berglund and Bill Kuchera, who will run the dashes; Dick Greengo, who runs the mile; Pete Veldman and Carl Jensen are returning to throw the weights; Paul Skophammer, the high jump; and Jim Malepsy, who will participate in the broad jump and some dash events. Aside from the lettermen many new prospects are expected to turn out.

Coach Stanley Breckner's golf squad placed second in the State Tournament, losing only by two strokes. After copping the Big Nine championship with an undefeated record, they went on to win the District and Region crowns. The District crown was won from Austin who held it for three consecutive years.

Clayton Westrum, who has held the District crown for three years, also won the regional and state medalist championships. The loss of Richard C. Nelson through graduation will be felt keenly.

Tennis Record Hampered By Weather

Placing second in conference play, Coach Tommy Thompson's netmen went on to cop second place in the regional but lost the title to Rochester by the margin of two points.

The Tigers finished their Big Nine matches with a record of two wins and one loss, defeating Faribault, 8-0, and Mason City, 5-3, while losing to Owatonna by one point. In the Faribault match the Bengals won six singles and two doubles with Gary and Richard P. Nelson the only Tigers defeated.

John Gonzalez, Russ Jensen and Ed Forbes were the only Tigers to win from Owatonna. While defeating Mason City, the Bengals lost one single and a double.

The netters will be hampered by the loss of Gary and Doug Nelson, John Gonzalez, Charles Holmquist and Ed Forbes through graduation. However, five regulars, "Rabbit" Nelson, Roger Ackland, Roger Jensen, Larry Duggan and Jim Engen will play in 1951.

A CHEERLEADERS: Wava Hagen, LaVonne Parks, Beverly Truesdell, Catherine Muldown, Darlene Dolan, Robert Schmidt and Henry Hickey.

Enthusiastic Cheerleaders Lead Yells

The 1950-1951 cheerleader squad was one of the largest groups of cheerleaders the ALHS has had for many years. Two new yells, the Score Yell and the T-E-A-M, were introduced. A new school song, "Hoop Dee Do", was written by Mr. Mel Grayson, the KATE sports announcer, and presented to the student body at a pep assembly to use throughout the year.

After tryouts for the B squad cheerleading staff, Henry Hickey was found eligible to join the A squad group of cheerleaders during his senior year.

To improve their skills and originate new yells, Miss Lois M. Spencer, adviser, held practices weekly for the A and B squad cheerleaders.

B CHEERLEADERS: Shirlee Hendrickson, Edythe Bleichwehl, Marianna Rasmussen and Marlene Venem. C CHEERLEADERS: Patti Hendrickson, David Jensen, Shirley Larsen, Gloria Knudtsen, Arlene Petersen and Jean Ginkel.

Winning awards in the bowling field were John Moen, LaMar Trytten, LaVern Baldwin, Ralph Smith and Gary Smith.

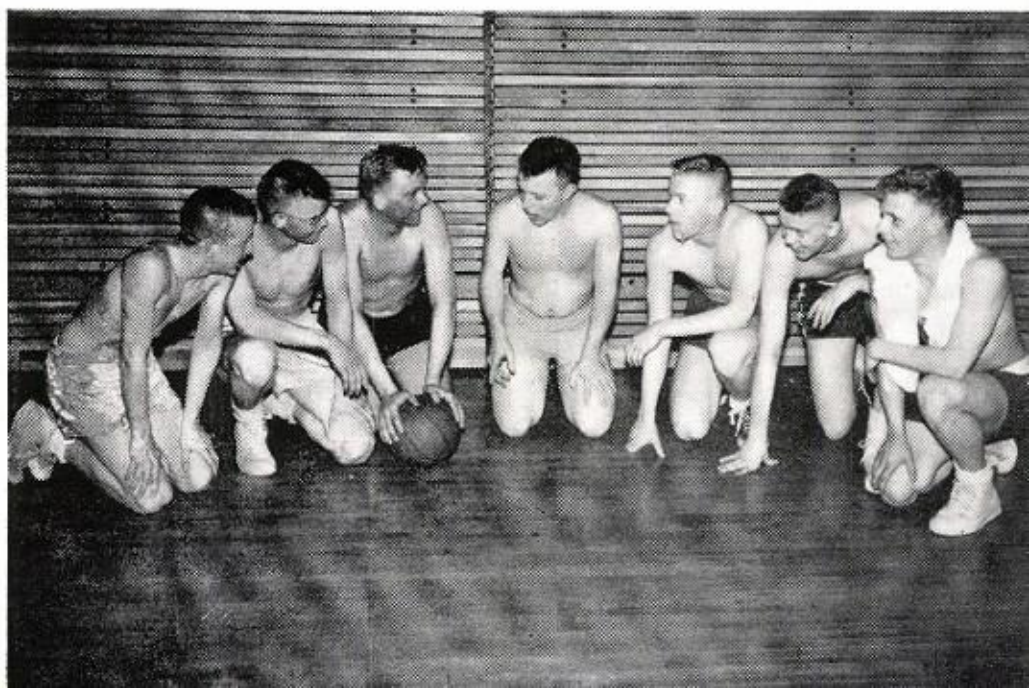

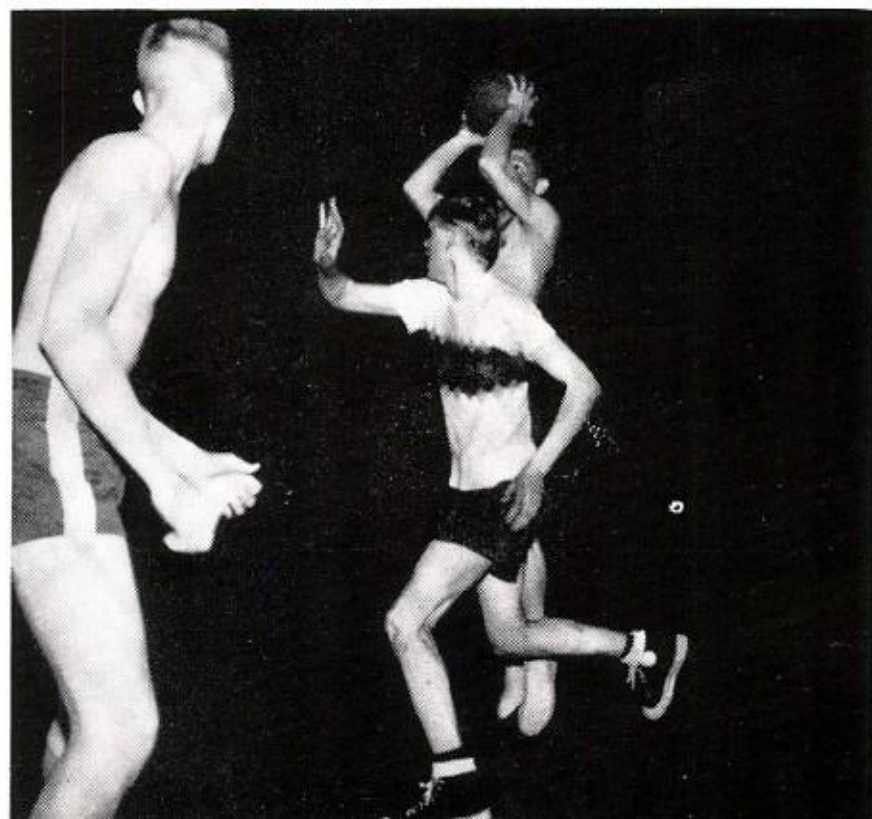

Intramural, Bowling Champs Win Fame

The American Junior Bowling Congress placed Albert Lea's bowling team third among the top ten teams of the nation. A state trophy was awarded to the team for one year. Each boy was presented an individual trophy. Mr. Sam Jenkins advised these boys as supervisor of bowling activities in school.

In the intramural elimination tournament the Net Rippers took the championship, while the Joy Boys took second. During the seasonal games Naylor's team was on top with four wins and no losses. The Joy Boys were second with three wins and one loss. Following were the Lower Lakers and the AL Puddlers with a one-three and a zero-four record, respectively. These games were held on Monday nights with Mr. Forrest L. Willey as adviser of the games.

INTRAMURAL CHAMPS: Thomas Reardon, Roger Olson, Lemoine Johnson, Lawrence Duggan, Doyle Haley, Laurie Guy and Charles Robinson. Caught in action of a game were Laurie Guy, Art Andersen and Charles Robinson.

GAA OFFICERS: Shirley Thomas, secretary-treasurer; Sally Anderson, president; and Margie Axelson, vice president.

REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL: Yvonne Hagen, Audrey Vinck, Edythe Bleichwehl, Darlene Dolan, LaVonne Parks and Marcella Pierce.

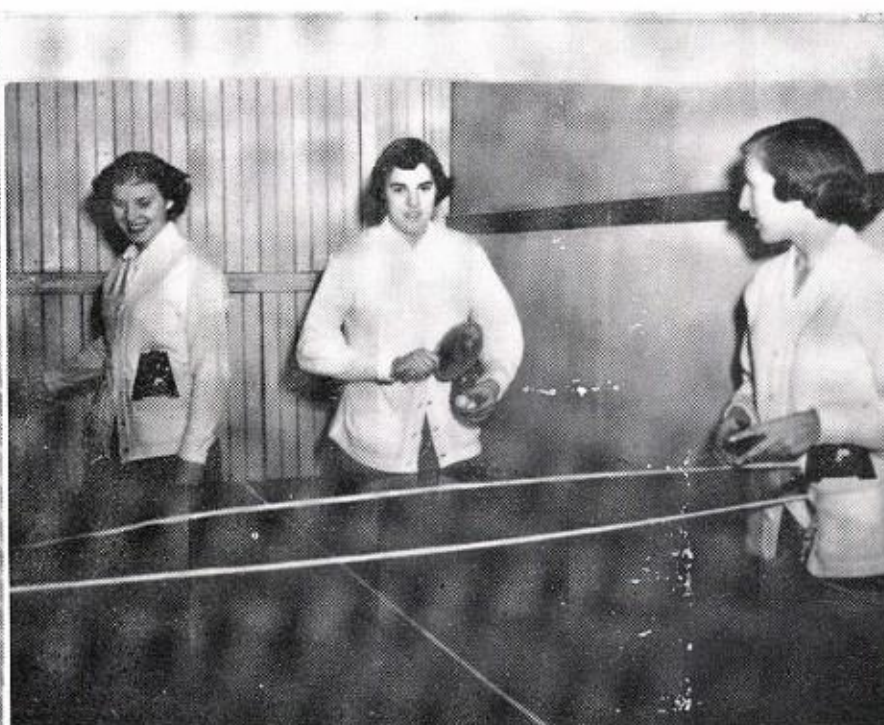

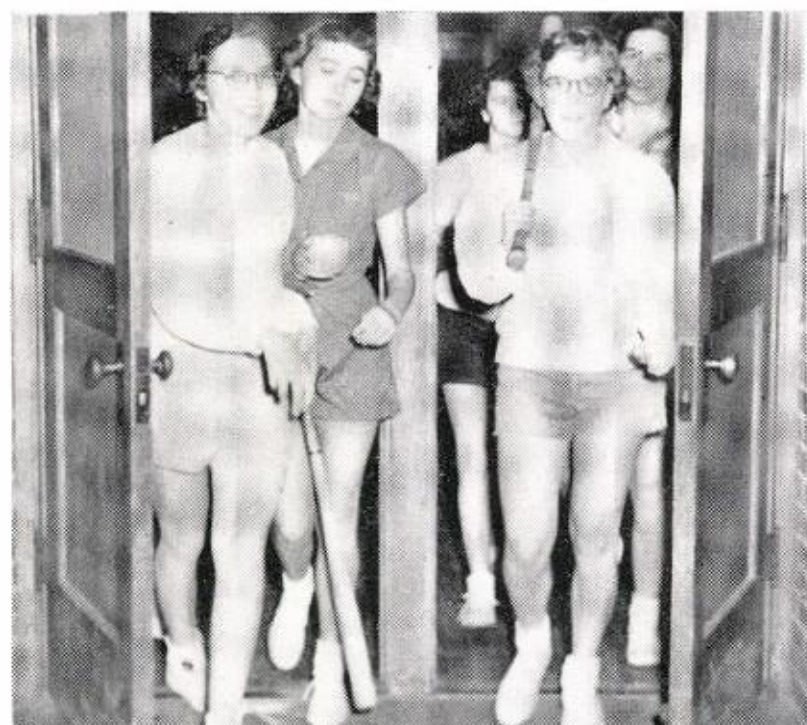

Girls' Athletic Association Participates

Leadership of the Girls' Athletic Association for the '50-51 year was accomplished by Sally Anderson, president; Margie Axelson, vice president; Shirley Thomas, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Lois Spencer, adviser of the organization.

Activities for the year were soccer, volley ball, basketball and softball. A new division introduced this period was the section on individual sports. Engaging in this division of deck tennis, badminton, ping pong, ring tennis and shuffleboard gave the GAAers a variety of sports in which to participate.

In Year's Activities

Starting the year with soccer, the GAAers swung into the main sport of basketball. Mixed tournaments with Mabel Huber, Marlene Sorenson, Lois Von Berg, Donna Wolff and Patricia Bok as captains found Huber's team winning the championship with all wins and no losses to their credit.

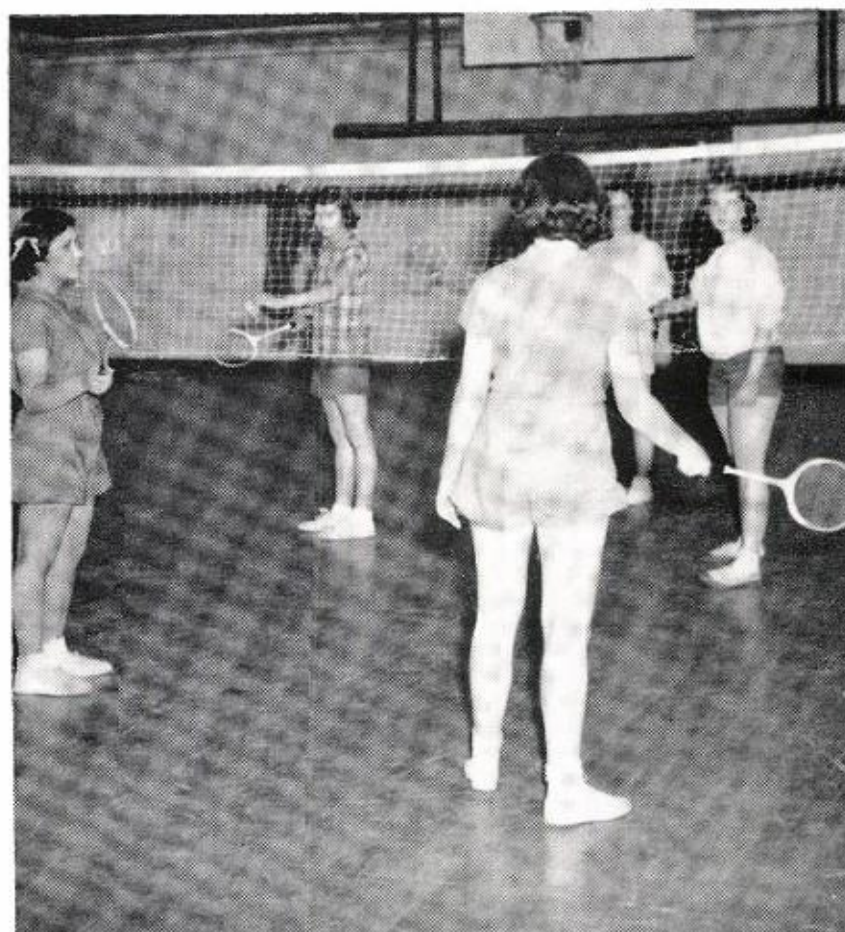

The class tournaments followed with the juniors winning all their games. The seniors won two games and lost two while the sophomores lost all four of their contests with their upperclassmen.

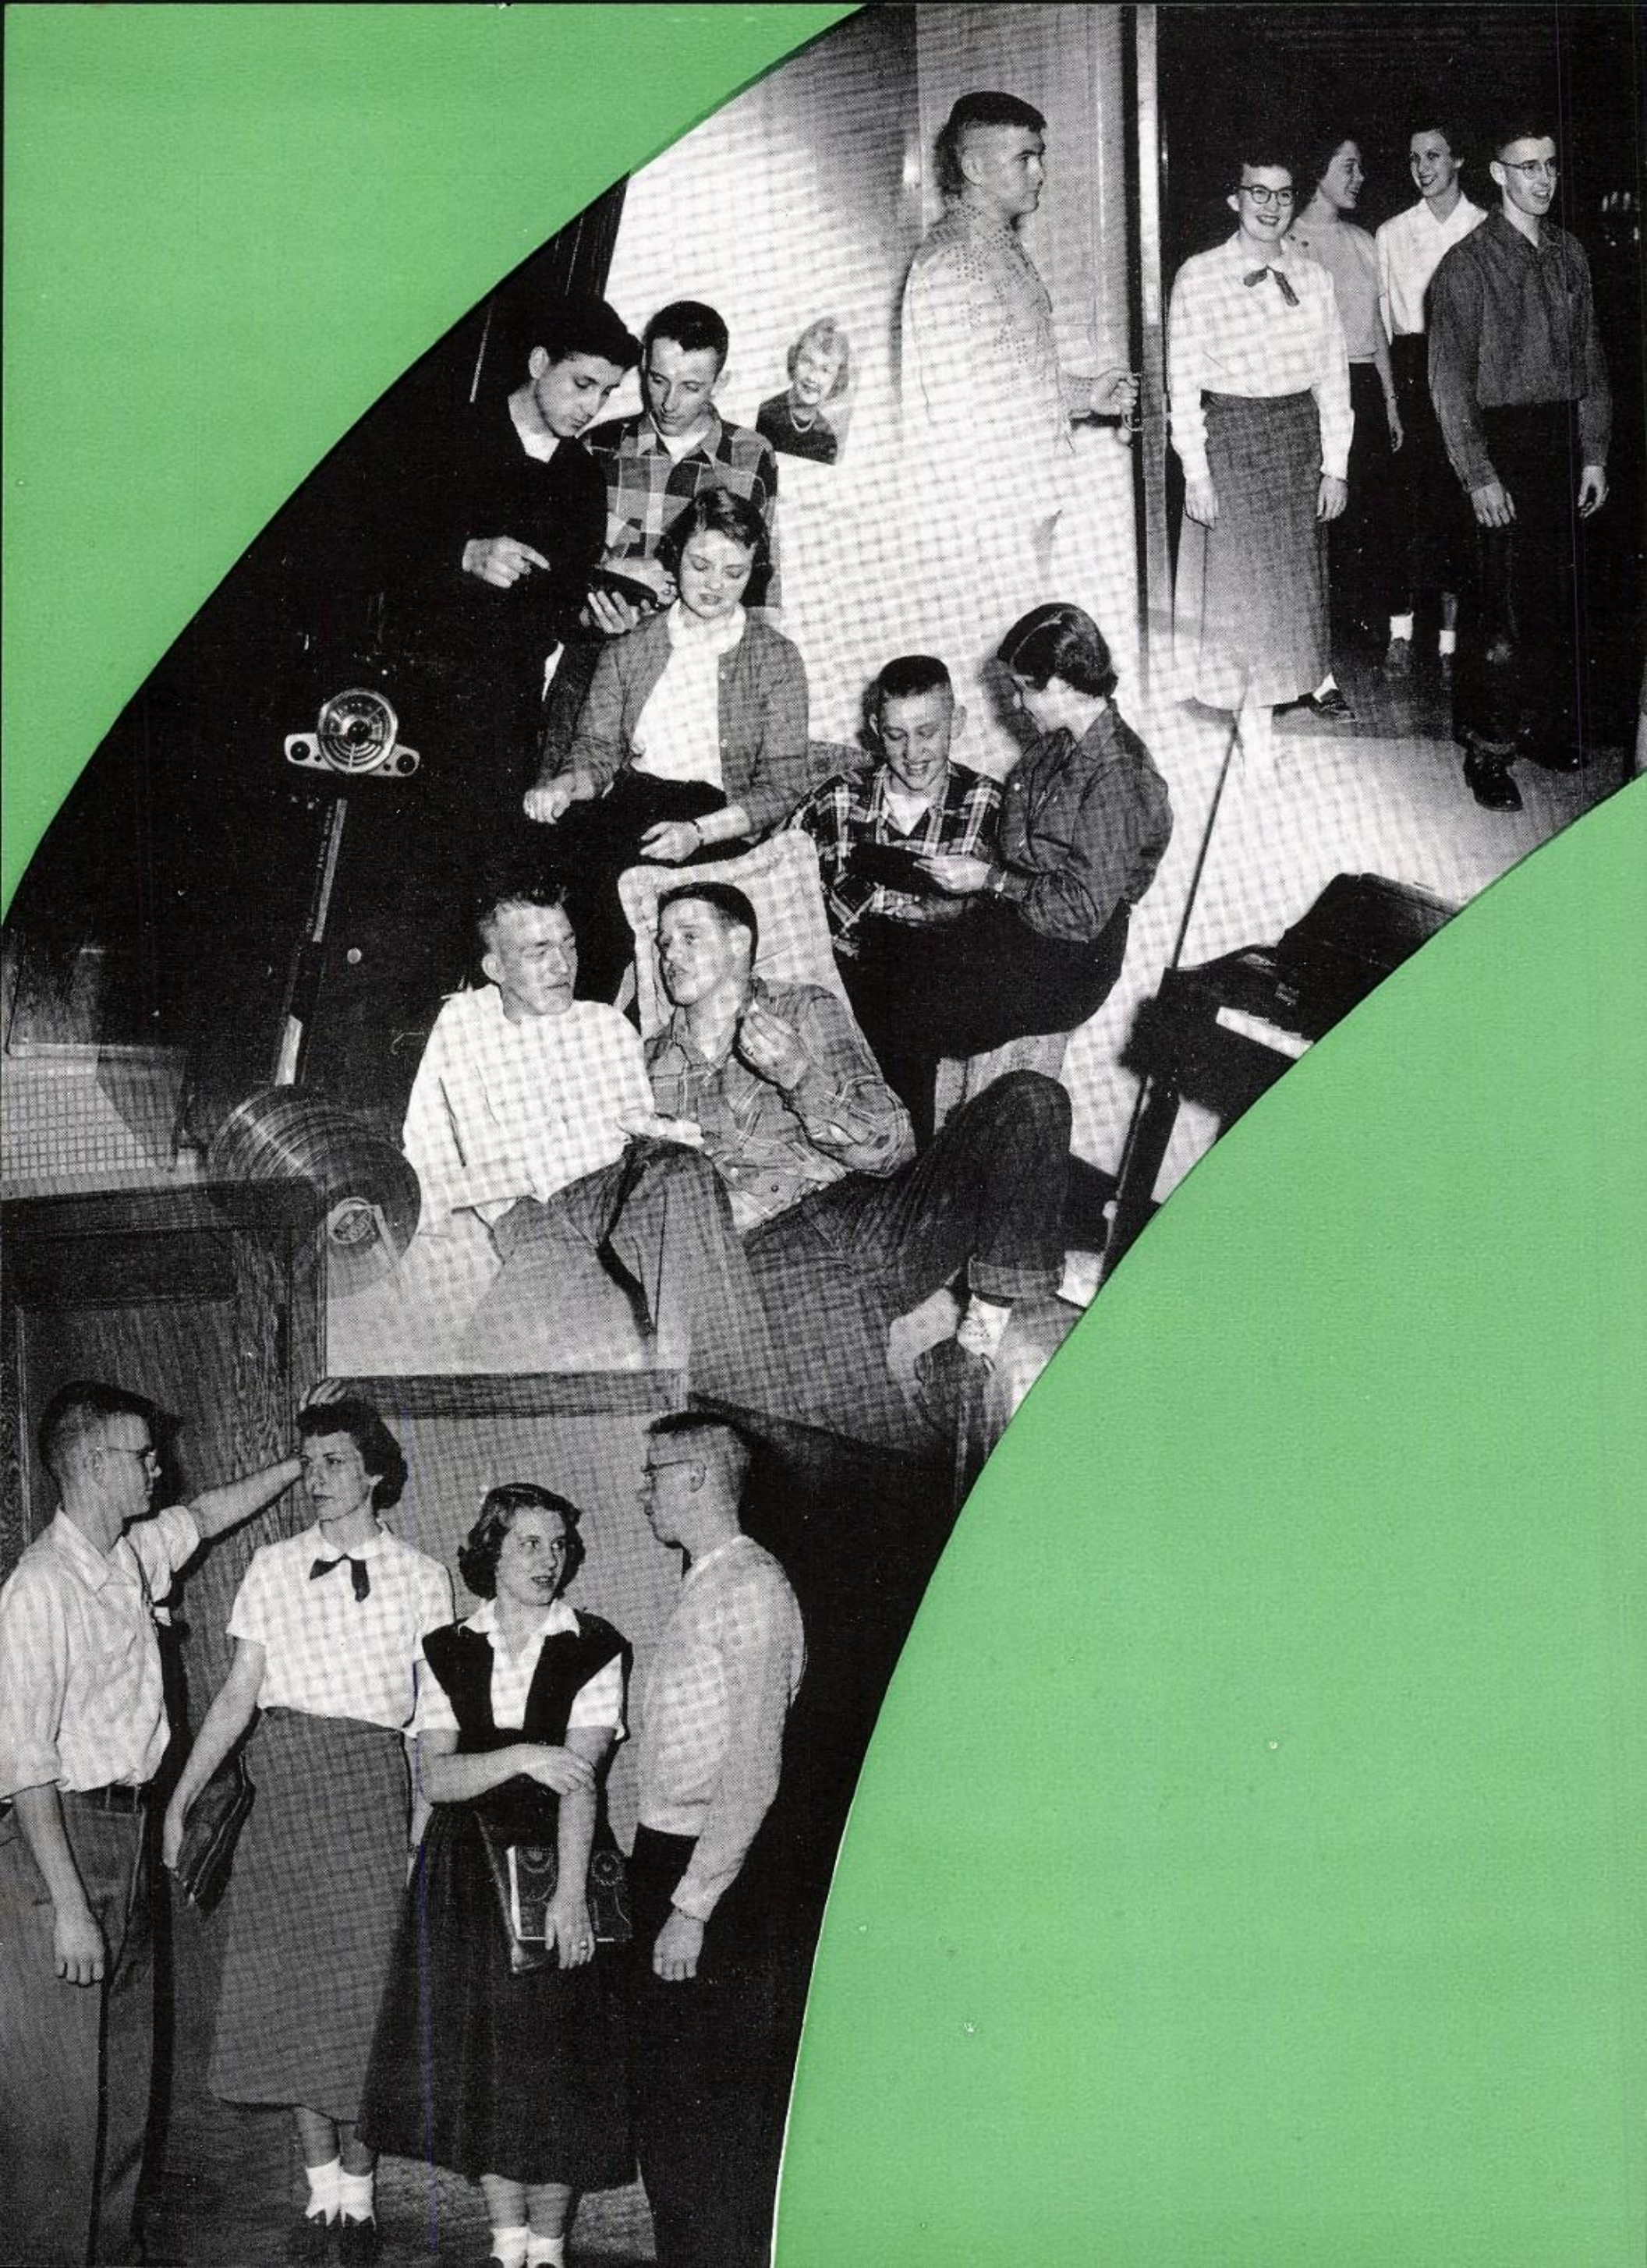

After basketball the girls engaged themselves with volleyball games followed by softball. To earn extra points some of the GAAers participated in hiking, bowling, biking and playing tennis.

During the year the organization sponsored several money-raising projects. A basketball game open to the public between the seniors and the juniors found the juniors victors, 37-23. Following the girls' game was a men's faculty team versus the intramural champs. They also sponsored several dances during the year.

In the spring they attended the Big Nine Play Day at Faribault and held an initiation for the new members.

Waiting for the return of the birdie in a badminton game are Anita Samudio, Jeanne Robinson, Marcella Kinsley, Barbara Teff and Sue Stiel.

FEATURES

QUEEN MARGARET LEE

Queen Margaret

The coronation ceremony, October 13, added the final touch of grandeur and excitement to Homecoming festivities as Queen Margaret Lee Blunt and her attendants—Marjorie Hellie, Marilyn Hendrickson, Nadiene Dale, Jeanne Cady—were revealed to a tense and anxious audience as the curtains parted to the beautiful strains of "La Czarine".

Acting as master of ceremonies, Paul Skophammer, Student Council president, escorted the queen from her throne, administered the oath and placed a crown of red and white roses upon her head. After taking the traditional pledge, the gracious queen expressed her happiness and thanks to the student body.

Queen Margaret Lee was Student Council secretary, a Thespian and second page co-editor of the AH LA HA SA. As a junior, Marjorie Hellie represented her class at Girls' State and co-edited the second page.

Being editor-in-chief of the AH LA HA SA has taken up most of Nadiene Dale's time. A member of Thespians, Marilyn Hendrickson was co-editor of the AH LA HA SA third page. Co-TIGER editor, Jeanne Cady, led her sophomore class as president. The queen and her attendants are all members of the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll.

HOMECOMING QUEEN CANDIDATES: Marilyn Hendrickson, Marjorie Hellie, Nadiene Dale, Margaret Lee Blunt and Jeanne Cady.

Reigns Over Homecoming Festivities

CORONATION CEREMONY: Paul Skophammer, Robert Miller, Peter Veldman, Marjorie Hellie, Nadiene Dale, Margaret Lee Blunt, Marilyn Hendrickson, Jeanne Cady, James Eugen, Rolland Green and Robert Kaasa.

In pledging loyalty of the four main fields of activity, Peter Veldman represented athletics, Robert Miller spoke for the drama department, Rolland Green gave the support of the music department and James Engen pledged the loyalty of clubs and activities.

The queen wore a white formal and received a bouquet of red roses. The attendants, attired in pastel formals, were presented with red rose corsages. Officiating as crown bearer was Robert Alan Kaasa. Concluding the royal ceremony, Grace Wasmoen sang "My Beautiful Lady", from "The Pink Lady".

With Colorful Flurry

With the slogan, "When Tigers Rumble, the Scarlets Tumble," the 1950 Homecoming gaiety commenced with a colorful parade on Wednesday evening, October 11.

By 7 P.M. the trucks had been transformed—in a flurry of crepe paper, scotch tape, bright-colored signs and paints—from the bare conveyances of the afternoon into gayly ornamented and amusing floats.

The judges for the contest were members of the Board of Directors of the city's Chamber of Commerce. First, second and third place classifications were awarded by this group with a trophy presented to the most outstanding and original entry.

Upper Left: Question, "How to beat the Scarlets"—Answer, courtesy of Drama Club, "Scald them in a coffee pot, of course"; John Minor's demonstration of his meatgrinder technique; "Gorgeous!—who the car or the candidates?"; "Applying the finishing touches".

the Parade Started

Winning the first prize in the float competition was the FFA attraction with its clever banner proclaiming "It's an Udder Victory or It's in the Bag"; a live cow illustrated the slogan. Few will forget one of the other prize winners because Joey Girtz made such a fetching queen for the senior Hi-Y.

As is traditional, the snake dance followed the parade. Afterwards the students gathered in Morin Park for the blazing bonfire and the pep fest.

Even though we lost the game Friday the thirteenth to Austin, 21-6, we were consoled by the fact that they were held to one of their lowest scores of the season. Our touchdown was made by co-captain Dick Greengo in a 76-yard run in the first period.

During the half the band, arrayed in their colorful new uniform, saluted both Austin and Albert Lea. Queen Margaret Lee and her attendants entered with a fanfare. Austin crowds cheered when one of their number showed his loyalty to our queen by a kiss.

Dancing later in the decorated gym to the dreamy music of Mr. Rollo Sissel's orchestra, the members of the class of '51 realized they had participated in their last and best Homecoming.

Upper Right: ALHS announces the marriage of Miss Victory to Mr. Tiger; Keep smiling, Joey, maybe they'll elect you next time; The ferocious Tiger threatens.

Dreamers Dance

Decorated tables portraying "a land where dollar bills are falling off the trees" set the pace for the banquet preceding the 1950 junior-senior prom.

Amid parachute clouds and mural-bedecked walls, awed juniors and dreamy-eyed seniors danced to the music of Al Menke's orchestra.

Weaving the theme, "A Dreamers' Holiday," into the decorations, the murals depicted a colorful insect band, elfland scenes, a star-way to the sky and gingerbread men to transform the gymnasium into a land of dreams, make believe and fantasy.

Lending itself to the mood of the dancers, a silver castle—set on a pink cloud and floating in a blue sky—carried the promsters into a new land of magic reserved only for that night of nights.

And then, the Grand March: Ruth Overgaard, John Jeffers, Margaret Lee Blunt and Richard Greengo; Where good friends gather: Robert Reed, Darlene Dolan and Carol Lindell; After dinner speakers: Paul Skophammer, Sally Anderson, Richard Greengo, Judy Petersen and Charles Wulff; It's lots of work, but worth every bit of it: John Rimmel, Jeanne Cady, James Engen, Sally Anderson, Barbara Erickson and Darrel Lande.

Reigning over the "Fiesta de Corrazones," the annual heart dance, were LaVonne Parks and Peter Veldman. Chosen by the members of the senior high from a group of six candidates, the pair represents the social life of the students.

to Sweet and Jazz

Highlighting the social activities of the school were the dances throughout the year. Decorations for the affairs transformed the gymnasium's drab interiors into gay and bright lands, putting students in the mood for dancing to the music of the band.

Among the memorable dances was the annual pie social presented by the junior class. The girls provided the tasty, pastry treats and the boys, the money to pay for these delicious contributions.

With the theme "Fiesta de Corrazones," the heart dance sponsored by the French and Spanish Clubs, featured the coronation of the evening's royalty, LaVonne Parks and Peter Veldman.

Catwalk Capers featuring Carol Lindell and Gordon Sward. This is a scene which might be considered typical of a school party.

Alice Visits In Magic Land of Wonder

Fantasy and make-believe summarize the plot of "Alice In Wonderland", written by Lewis Carroll and directed by Miss Georgia Pengel.

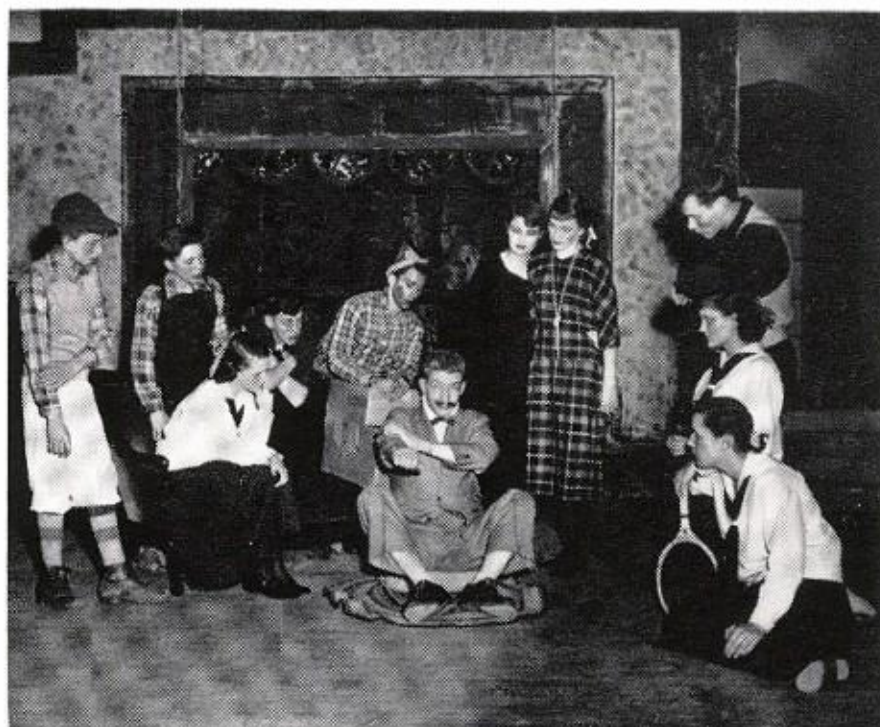

The curtains opened to find Alice, played by Dorothy Hunt and Margaret Blunt, just falling into a rabbit hole. Here the heroine encounters the White Rabbit, Bill Kuchera, who is anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Duchess, Carol Lindell.

Following the pleasant journey of Alice, the audience travels through such delightful scenes as the Mad Hatter's quaint tea party, the Queen's croquet games and the grand finale—the court scene—in which the Knave of Hearts, Warren Emmons, is found "not guilty" of the terrible crime of stealing the Queen's, Barbara Erickson, cherished tarts.

All ends happily when the heroine awakes to find herself once more in the land of reality.

Bottom: Just as the engineer directs—Earl, Montie, Hoffarth, Sanborn, Steiler, Wedge, Jorgenson, Wayne, Hagmann, Jensen, Grube, Reese, Guy, Tennyson, Butler and Knutson.

Children Prove "No Picnic"

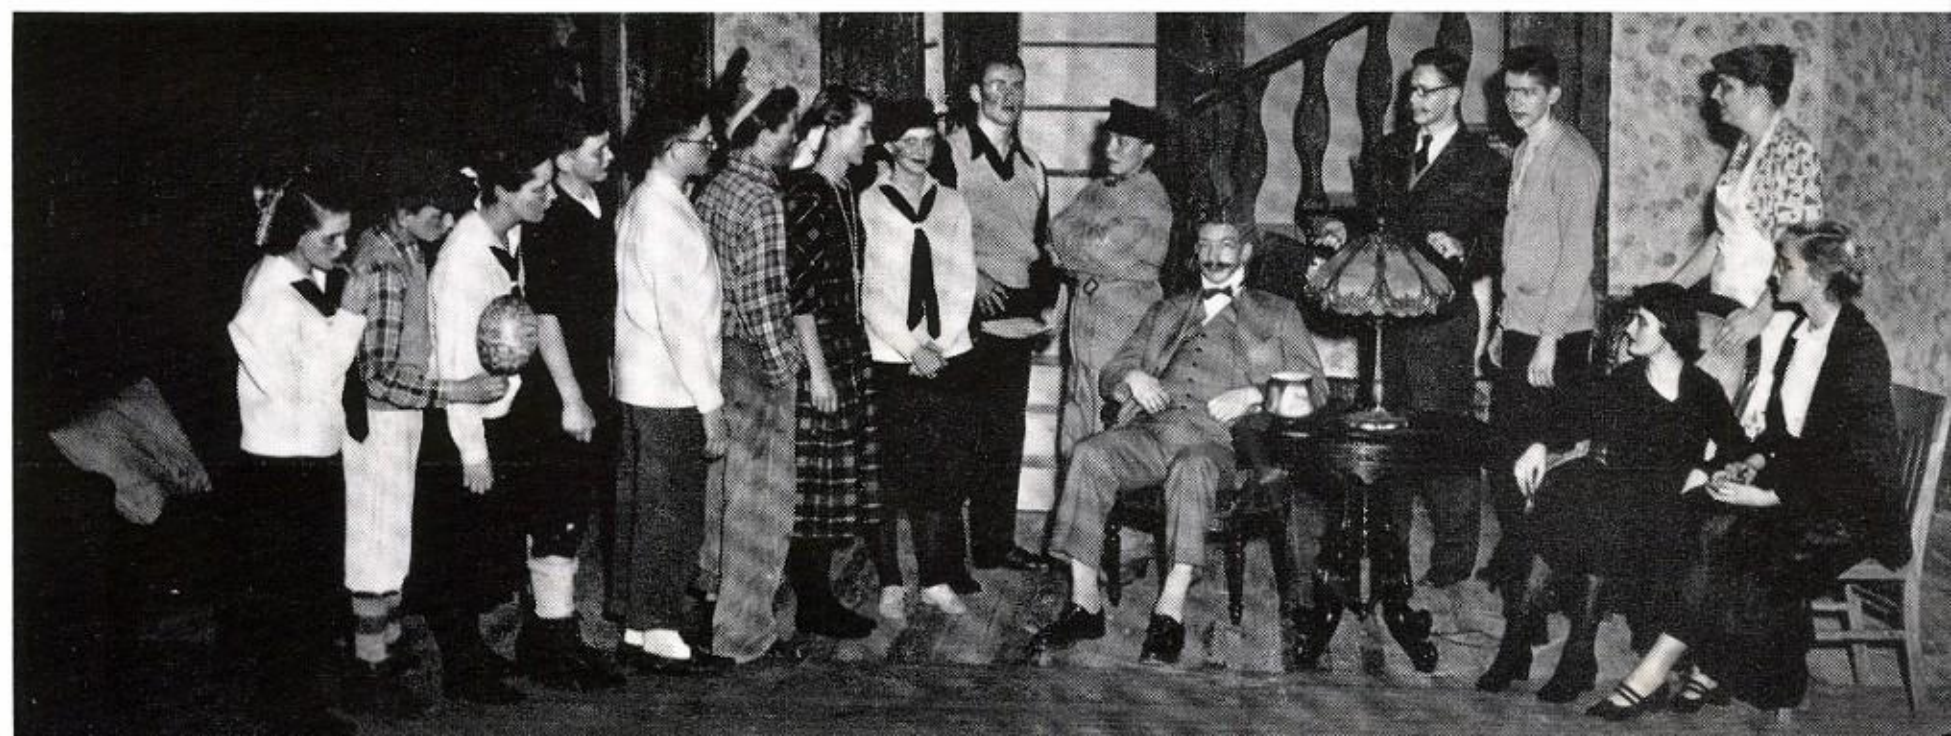

A family of redheads dominated the scene of the production "Cheaper by the Dozen", presented by the junior class, March 24 and 26.

Carrying the plot of the play, Ernestine, portrayed by Helen Wayne, and Frank, enacted by Harlyn Hagmann, appeared to mark the lapse of time between each scene.

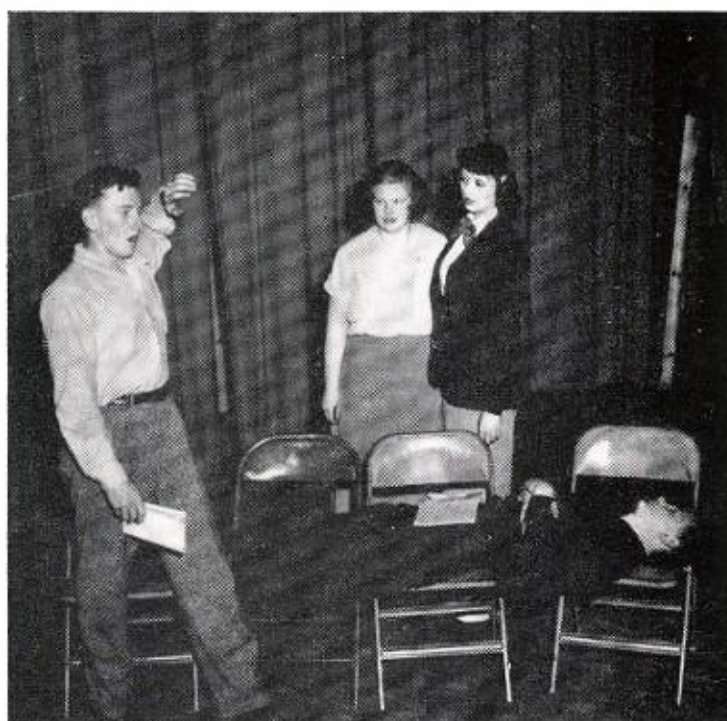

That intelligence can bring heartaches as well as happiness was proved by Anne, Erliss Jorgenson, when she strived to graduate ahead of her class.

Through a series of shocking events, such as the appearance of stockings, teddies and boy friends, Mr. Gilbreth, Ruby Grube, was brought to realize that young ladies must grow up. Though the task of presenting these problems was left to Anne, a sympathetic mother, Shirley Tennyson, was a great help.

Whether at rehearsal, or during the performance, a dozen children proved themselves to be "no picnic."

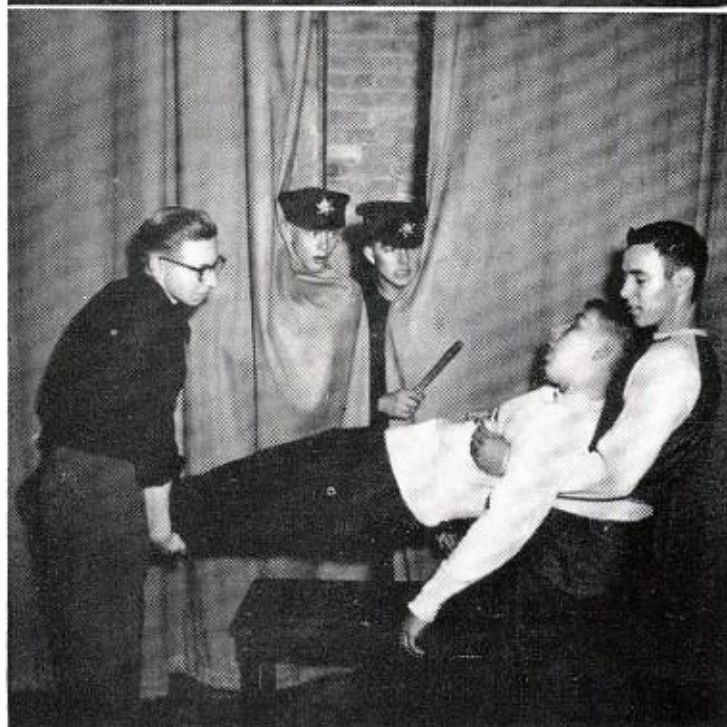

Old Maids Frolic

Expressing horror at finding a corpse: Miller, Jenson, Wright and Anderson.

Depositing a body: Schmidt, Willadsen, Pestorious, Sward and Keeler.

Against the background of laughter, murder and oddities, the senior class play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," continued merrily through its rollicking three acts.

The play by Joseph Kesselring was presented May 5 and 7 by the members of the senior class under the supervision of Miss Georgia Pengel.

Martha and Abby Brewster—portrayed by Betty Wright and Barbara Jensen, understudied by Beverly Truesdell and Mary Brooks—were obsessed with the desire to eliminate lonely, old gentlemen.

Confusing himself with Teddy Roosevelt was the deficiency of Teddy Brewster, enacted by Truman Olson. Romantic interest was added to the plot through the efforts of Robert Miller and Donna Ray Dombroske.

Other members of the cast included: David Halverson, Jerald Wendelboe, Ronald Willadsen, Kenneth Pestorious, Gordon Sward, Arthur Anderson, Robert Schmidt, William Keeler and Warren Slagle.

Concerts Enliven Year

The concert season of Albert Lea High School was officially started on November 28 by the combined force of the orchestra, chorus and band. This, the first in a series of concerts given throughout the year, was presented in honor of the Homecoming Queen, Margaret Lee Blunt.

Opening with "The Clock in the Toy Shop" the annual Christmas Concert, made a little brighter by the many candles, was given by the choruses and orchestras of the junior and senior high schools.

The third concert presented by the musical groups was originally scheduled for March 3, but due to the extreme blizzarding, the pre-Easter Concert was held a week later on March 10.

Edythe Bleichwehl, drum majorette of the high school band, contributed to the concerts with her exceptional skill at twirling a baton.

The concert season closed on May 15, when a choral group of 500 students presented a program.

The annual Christmas Concert featured the Choral readers who were members of the sixth hour speech class.

"Shock of His Life": Larson, Jensen, Larson, Schneider and Morrison.

The Junior High Drama Club is composed of various committees—make-up, stage, crew, art work and ushering—all of which work around the Masquers' Society, a group chosen at the beginning of the year by Miss Hildred Tennihill, club adviser. The 16 members of the Masquers' Society are the club actors.

Productions of the Drama Club throughout the year were three one-act plays, a three-act play and one radio skit. Heading the group as president is Larry Wolf, with Evelyn Jensen, Carolyn Schneider, Susan Nelson, Dugan Styve and David Larson serving the Drama Club as vice president, secretary, treasurer and business managers, respectively.

Mardi Gras Magic

In the bright festive spirit of the Mardi Gras, the 1951 Tigers Roar was presented before a capacity audience on the evenings of January 27 and 29. Robert Schmidt and Lowell Barr, two watchful policemen, starred in the prologue and epilogue.

Portraying a renowned band leader, Rollic Green emceed the first act. A delightful variety of musical selections were offered, with Ardella Hanson and Don Hougquist rendering the vocals.

Hostess Dorothy Hunt entertained an impersonator, Lois Nelson, magician Terry Crowley and an extremely talkative Grace Wasmoen at an open house in the second act. These, however, were only a few of her guests.

The scene then shifted back to the street itself where, among other performers, Edythe Bleichwehl twirled a lighted baton, and colorfully-attired Lawrence Ashleson played his accordion. Betty Wright perfected a fitting climax to the entire Roar when she lamented her "Baisin Street Blues".

Upper Left: Are they triple jointed?; Nobody's looking, girls; Featured as soloist at the Club Creole; "Now it was like this, Clancy"; "—Carry moonbeams home in a jar."

Among the assembly programs arranged by the University was the Roger's Novelty Act. Students were amazed at feats of juggling and balance performed by Roger Rittenbaugh.

Programs Educate

Entertaining and educational assemblies were presented to the students throughout the school year. Lecturers, musicians and novelty acts were brought here through the University of Minnesota. Long remembered will be Mr. John Sloan who lectured and entertained with his "liquid air". A more serious assembly with Dr. Herst R. Anderson speaking on the United Nations was presented on United Nations Day.

The student body also gave a variety of assemblies. The most important of these was at 2 P.M. on the Friday of the Homecoming game. Skits at pep fests were given by various speech classes, homerooms and clubs. Christmas and Easter Concerts were presented by the choruses and orchestra under the direction of Mr. Robert Myers and Mr. Lester Streimer.

Clever costuming was the outstanding feature of this pep assembly, sponsored by the fourth hour speech class.

Guide to Careers

With the help of the Kiwanis Club the senior high sponsored its annual Career Day, November 13.

The day's activities were heralded off with an all-school assembly. At this time the guest speakers representing different careers were introduced.

Students spent the two morning sessions in gathering information concerning colleges of their choice.

National Honor Society members with their fathers and participating college representatives were the guests at the noon luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis.

In the afternoon all students were divided. Those interested in obtaining a higher education took part in one of the 24 college discussion groups. Those who were interested primarily in a working career took vocational tours through the city.

Doorways

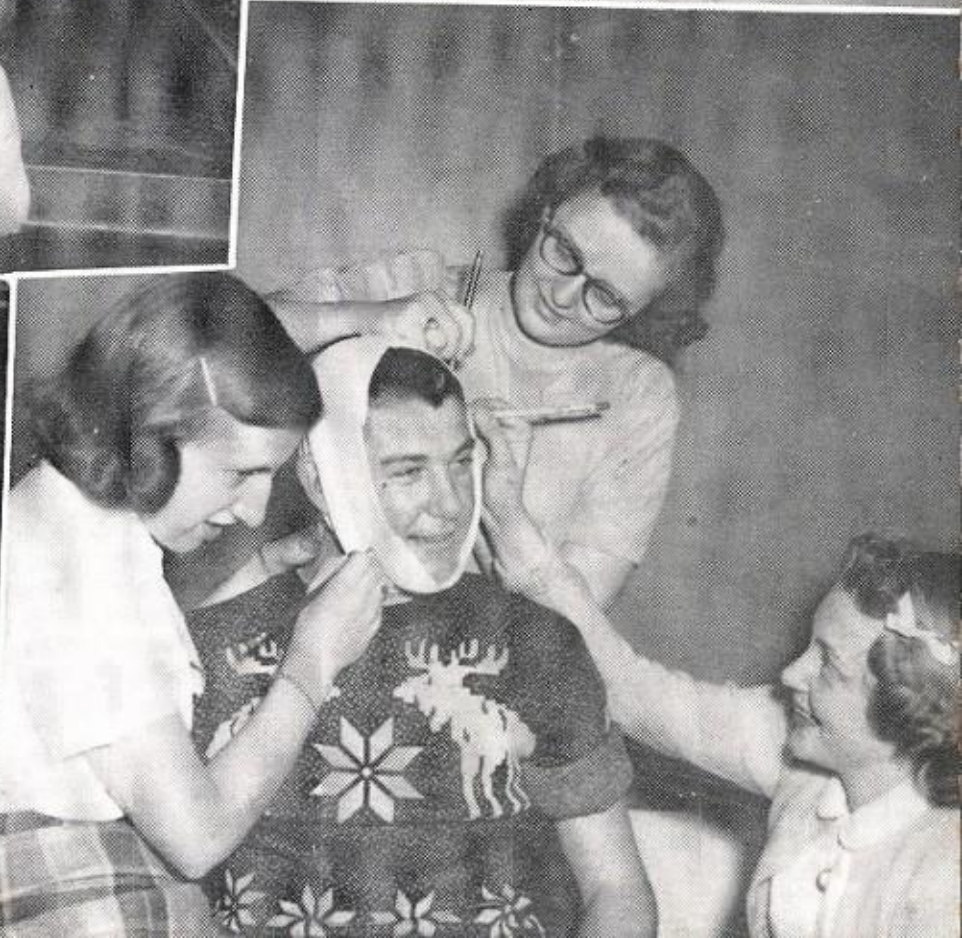

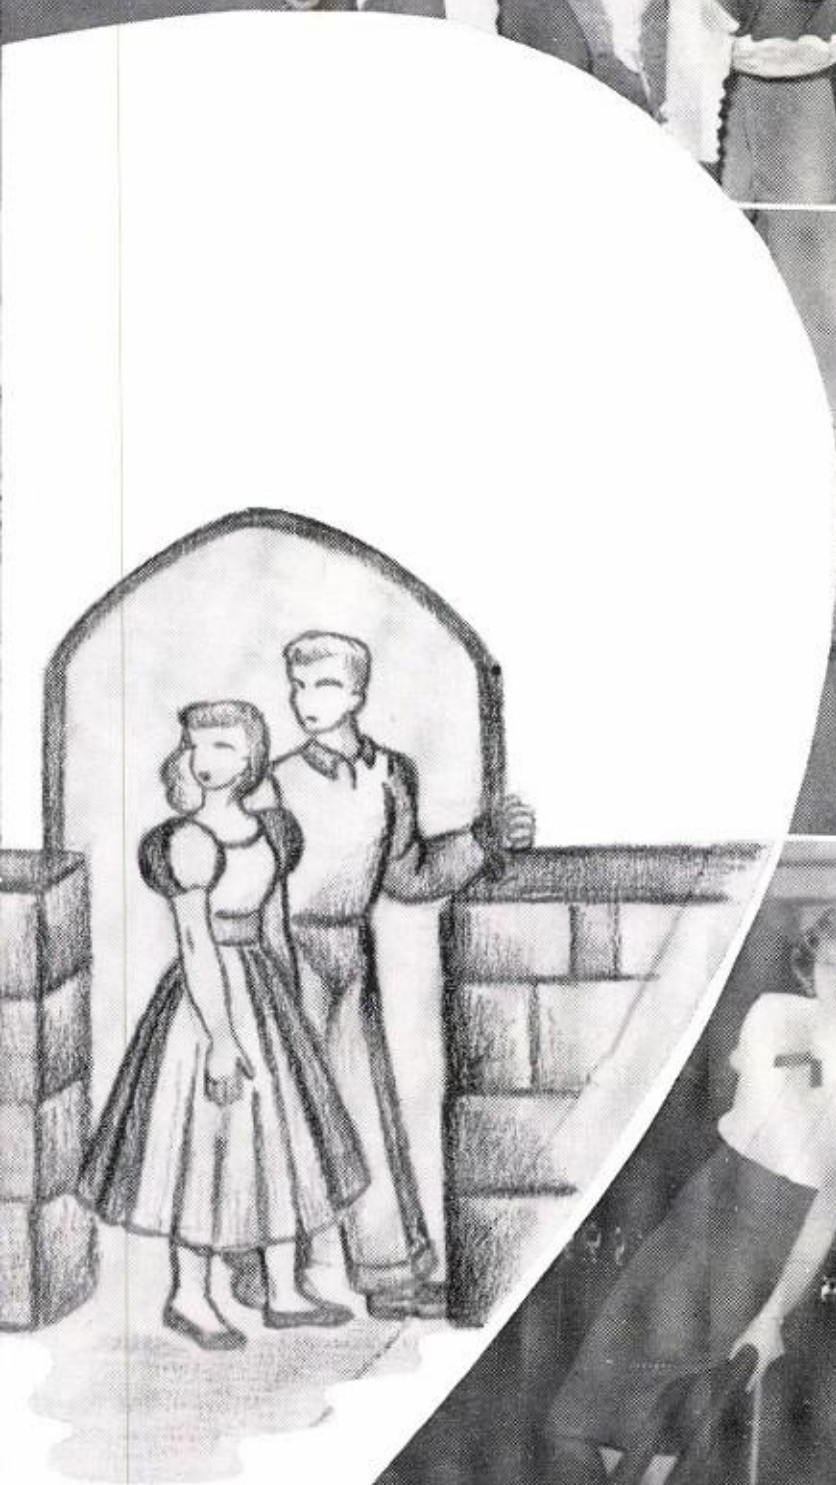

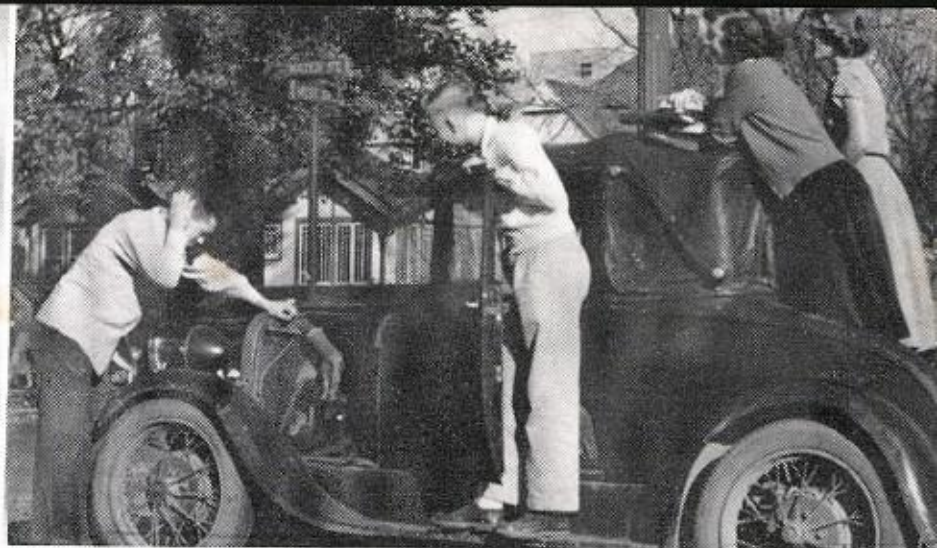

As the doorways to the future open for us, the members of the class of '51, those doorways of our school days are closing behind us.

Taking one last look back as we step across the threshold, we again remember the freshman party in the armory and the feeling of superiority that is part of being the "big shots" of junior high.

Advancing cautiously along as sophomores, we remember the first Homecoming we really felt a part of, our class party and the fact that at last we sat downstairs in the auditorium during assemblies.

The thrill, work and anticipation surrounding the prom filled our junior year. "Uncle Fred Flits By," the class play, was another highlight of that year.

Now as seniors, with our own Homecoming queen, yearbook, Student Council officers and being looked to as examples, we await our final processional march to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance."
